The Stone Virgins A Novel:

The Stone Virgins Yvonne Vera, 2004-02-14 An uncompromising novel by one of Africa's premiere writers detailing the horrors of civil war in luminous haunting prose Winner of the Macmillan Prize for African Adult Fiction In 1980 after decades of guerilla war against colonial rule Rhodesia earned its hard fought for independence from Britain Less than two years thereafter when Mugabe rose to power in the new Zimbabwe it signaled the beginning of brutal civil unrest that would last nearly a half decade more With The Stone Virgins Yvonne Vera examines the dissident movement from the perspective of two sisters living in a small township outside of Bulawayo In a portrait painted in successive impressions of life before and after the liberation Vera explores the quest for dignity and a centered existence against a backdrop of unimaginable violence the twin instincts of survival and love the rival pulls of township and city life and mankind's capacity for terror beauty and sacrifice One sister will find a reason for hope One will not make it through alive Weaving historical fact within a story of grand passions and striking endurance Vera has gifted us with a powerful and provocative testament to the resilience of the Zimbabwean people Yvonne Vera writes with magnificent luminosity The Stone Virgins is a song about the author's people and the tragedy of their lives and their loves contrasted against the sheer beauty of their land It may yet prove to be one of the notable novels of the twenty first century Ama Ata Aidoo award winning author of Changes A Love Story Without sensationalism or heroics this searing novel speaks of dislocation terror betrayal and strength Booklist The stone virgins

Yvonne Vera, 2005 Tales of the Nation Lene Bull-Christiansen, 2004 In light of the uses and misuses of history in Zimbabwean politics in recent years this research report focuses on how versions of the country's liberation war history have become a site of struggle over the definition of Zimbabwean national identity As identity politics often do Zimbabwean nationalism draws on a wide field of cultural symbols of identity and political discourses of inclusion and exclusion Therefore the report takes a cross disciplinary approach to the issue of national identity by mapping out the imaginary field of Zimbabwean nationalism This approach opens up the possibility of cross reading the political discourses of the President and the ruling party ZANU PF with opposing voices such as those in the works of the author Yvonne Vera This cross reading shows how Vera's novels and the political discourses participate in the struggle over Zimbabwean national identity by offering different versions of the nation's history in the form of patriotic history feminist nationalism or narratives of difference In this way the research report adds to our understanding of power and resistance in Zimbabwean politics of national identity

Africa Writes Back to Self Evan M. Mwangi, 2010-07-02 The profound effects of colonialism and its legacies on African cultures have led postcolonial scholars of recent African literature to characterize contemporary African novels as first and foremost responses to colonial domination by the West In Africa Writes Back to Self Evan Maina Mwangi argues instead that the novels are primarily engaged in conversation with each other particularly over emergent gender issues such as the representation of homosexuality and the disenfranchisement of women by male dominated governments

He covers the work of canonical novelists Nadine Gordimer Chinua Achebe Ngu gi wa Thiong o and J M Coetzee as well as popular writers such as Grace Ogot David Maillu Promise Okekwe and Rebeka Njau Mwangi examines the novels self reflexive fictional strategies and their potential to refigure the dynamics of gender and sexuality in Africa and demote the West as the reference point for cultures of the Global South

War in African Literature Today Ernest Emenyonu, 2008 This issue of African Literature Today is devoted to studies of how African writers as historical witnesses have handled the recreation of war as a cataclysmic phenomenon in various locations on the continent The theoretical question is whether the fictionalized representation demonstrated equitable balance between socio political messages lessons of war and the sanctity of art aesthetics Contributors have explore the subject from a variety of perspectives panoramic regional national and through comparative studies Was has enriched contemporary African literature but at what price to human lives peace and the environment Publisher s description

Decolonising Gender Caroline Rooney, 2007-11-13 Through examination of the functions of language and cross cultural readings of literature from African queer reading to postcolonial Shakespeare Rooney explores current ideas of performativity in literature and language and negotiates a path between feminist theory s common pitfalls of essentialism and constructivism

Mapping Africa in the English Speaking World Sibonile Edith Ellece, Kemmony Collete Monaka, Owen S Seda, 2010-10-12 Mapping Africa in the English Speaking World addresses issues of representations of Africa in the English speaking world English has become a global language which has turned the world into a global village and as Graddol 2008 states it is now redefining national and individual identities worldwide shifting political fault lines creating new global patterns of wealth and social exclusion and suggesting new notions of human rights and responsibilities of citizenship This book grapples with the relationship between Africa and the rest of the English speaking world and touches on issues of Euro American misrepresentations of the continent in literary works and films misrepresentations which are nevertheless passed as true and infallible knowledge of Africa marginalization of Africans African languages and culture African scholarship language policy language diglossia African theatre in post colonial Africa identity negotiations in post colonial Africa and relations between gender and language among other issues These issues are bound to stimulate debates on Africa and its representation s in the English speaking world

The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean Since 1950

Simon Gikandi, 2016 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 examines the institutional and social peculiarities that make fiction produced in Africa and the Atlantic World since 1950 important to the history of the novel in English

Perceiving Pain in African Literature Z. Norridge, 2012-11-29 An analysis of literary accounts of suffering from sub-Saharan Africa this book examines fiction and life writing in English and French over the last forty years Drawing on writers from the canonical to the less well known it uses close readings to examine the personal social and political consequences of representing pain in literature

Diasporic Women's Writing of the Black Atlantic Emilia María Durán-Almaraz, Esther Álvarez López, 2013-10-30 This book brings together a complete set of approaches to works by female authors that articulate the black Atlantic in relation to the interplay of race class and gender The chapters provide the grounds to engender a more complex understanding of the scattered geographies of the African diaspora in the Atlantic basin The variety of approaches displayed bears witness to the vitality of a field that over the years has become a diasporic formation itself as it incorporates critical insights and theoretical frameworks from multiple disciplines in the social sciences and the humanities thus exposing the manifold character of black diasporic interconnections within and beyond the Atlantic Focusing on a wide array of contemporary literary and performance texts by women writers and performers from diverse locations including the Caribbean Canada Africa the US and the UK chapters visit genres such as performance art the novel science fiction short stories and music For these purposes the volume is organized around two significant dimensions of diasporas on the one hand the material corporeal and spatial locations where those displacements associated with travel and exile occur and on the other the fluid environments and networks that connect distant places cultures and times This collection explores the ways in which women of African descent shape the cultures and histories in the modern colonial and postcolonial Atlantic worlds
