The Law and Practice of the International Court, 1920-1996, Third Edition Shabtai Rosenne, 2024-09-02 Banking Regulations for Examiners United States, 2006 FDA Regulatory Affairs David Mantus, Douglas J. Pisano, 2014-02-28

FDA Regulatory Affairs is a roadmap to prescription drug biologics and medical device development in the United States. Written in plain English, the concise and jargon-free text demystifies the inner workings of the US Food and Drug Administration (FDA) and facilitates an understanding of how the agency operates with respect to compliance and product approval, including clinical trial exemptions, fast track status, advisory committee procedures, and more. The Third Edition of this highly successful publication examines the harmonization of the US Federal Food Drug and Cosmetic Act with international regulations on human drug biologics and device development, research, manufacturing, and marketing. Includes contributions from experts at organizations such as the FDA, National Institutes of Health (NIH), and PAREXEL. Focuses on the new drug application (NDA) process, cGMPs, GCPs, quality system compliance, and corresponding documentation requirements. Provides updates to the FDA Safety and Innovation Act (FDASIA) incorporating pediatric guidelines and follows on biologics regulations from the 2012 Prescription Drug User Fee Act (PDUFA V). Explains current FDA inspection processes, enforcement options, and how to handle FDA meetings and required submissions. Co-edited by an industry leader (Mantus) and a respected academic (Pisano). FDA Regulatory Affairs, Third Edition, delivers a compilation of the selected US laws and regulations, as well as a straightforward commentary on the FDA product approval process that is broadly useful to both business and academia.

The Old English Version of Bede's Historia Ecclesiastica Sharon M. Rowley, 2011

Pioneering examination of the Old English version of Bede's Historia ecclesiastica and its reception in the middle ages from a theoretically informed, multi-disciplinary perspective. The first full-length study of the Old English version of Bede's masterwork, dealing with one of the most important texts to survive from Anglo-Saxon England. The subjects treated range from a detailed analysis of the manuscripts and the medieval use of them to a very satisfying conclusion that summarizes all the major issues related to the work, giving a compelling summary of the value and importance of this independent creation. Dr. Rowley convincingly argues that the Old English version is not an inferior imitation of Bede's work but represents an intelligent reworking of the text for a later generation. An exhaustive study and a major scholarly contribution.

GEORGE HARDIN BROWN, Professor of English, emeritus, Stanford University. The Old English version of Bede's Historia ecclesiastica gentis anglorum is one of the earliest and most substantial surviving works of Old English prose. Translated anonymously around the end of the ninth or beginning of the tenth century, the text, which is substantially shorter than Bede's original, was well known and actively used in medieval England and was highly influential. However, despite its importance, it has been little studied. In this first book on the subject, the author places the work in its manuscript context, arguing that the text was an independent ecclesiastical translation thoughtfully revised for its new audience. Rather than looking back on the age of Bede from the perspective of a king centralizing power and building a community by recalling a glorious English past the Old English version of Bede's Historia transforms its source to focus on local history key Anglo Saxon saints and their miracles The author argues that its reading reflects an ecclesiastical setting more than a political one with uses more hagiographical than royal and that rather than being used as a class book or crib it functioned as a resource for vernacular preaching as a corpus of vernacular saints lives for oral performance and episcopal authority Sharon M Rowley is Associate Professor of English at Christopher Newport University
