Duncan,Richard J. Murnane,2014-01-01 In this landmark volume Greg J Duncan and Richard J Murnane lay out a meticulously researched case showing how in a time of spiraling inequality strategically targeted interventions and supports can help schools significantly improve the life chances of low income children The authors offer a brilliant synthesis of recent research on inequality and its effects on families children and schools They describe the interplay of social and economic factors that has made it increasingly hard for schools to counteract the effects of inequality and that has created a widening wedge between low and high income students Restoring Opportunity provides detailed portraits of proven initiatives that are transforming the lives of low income children from prekindergarten through high school All of these programs are research tested and have demonstrated sustained effectiveness over time and at significant scale Together they offer a powerful vision of what good instruction in effective schools can look like The authors conclude by outlining the elements of a new agenda for education reform Restoring Opportunity is a crowning contribution from these two leading economists in the field of education and a passionate call to action on behalf of the young people on whom our nation s future depends Copublished with the Russell Sage Foundation The Journal of Economic Education ,1986 Africa on the Move Mr.Lamin Y Leigh,Mr.Ali M. Mansoor,2016-01-22 This book describes the reforms needed to move small middle income countries in sub Saharan Africa to advanced economy status The result of intense discussions with public officials in the countries covered the book blends rigorous theory econometrics and practitioners insights to come up with practical recommendations for policymakers It spans topics from macroeconomic vulnerability and reserve adequacy to labor market institutions and financial inclusion The book is a must read for researchers interested in the economic issues facing developing countries in sub Saharan Africa East European Accessions Index ,1955 The New Zealand University Calendar University of New Zealand,1920 ERDA Energy Research Abstracts United States.
