The Securitization Of Rape Women War And Sexual Violence:

The Securitization of Rape S. Hirschauer, 2014-12-18 This book uniquely applies securitization theory to the mass sexual violence atrocities committed during the Bosnia war and the Rwandan genocide Examining the inherent links between rape war and global security Hirschauer analyses the complexities of conflict related sexual violence Wartime Sexual Violence Kerry F. Crawford, 2017 Defining the weapon Her story is far too common the US response to sexual violence in the DRC A security concern sexual violence and resolution 1820 Expanding the agenda PSVI and state led advocacy The legacy of the weapon of war frame The Oxford Handbook of Gender, War, and the Western World Since 1600 Karen Hagemann, Stefan Dudink, Sonya O. Rose, 2020 To date war history has focused predominantly on the efforts of and impact of war on male participants However this limited focus disregards the complexity of gendered experiences with war and the military The Oxford Handbook of Gender War and the Western World since 1600 investigates how conceptions of gender have contributed to the shaping of military culture examining the varied ideals and practices that have socially differentiated men and women s wartime experiences Covering the major periods in warfare since the seventeenth century The Handbook explores cultural representations of war and the interconnectedness of the military with civil society and its transformations Children and Youth at Risk in Times of Transition Baard Herman Borge, Elke Kleinau, Ingvill Constanze Ødegaard, 2023-12-04 Children and youth belong to one of the most vulnerable groups in societies This was the case even before the current humanitarian crises around the world which led millions of people and families to flee from wars terror poverty and exploitation Minors have been denied human rights such as access to education food and health services They have been kidnapped sold manipulated mutilated killed and injured This has been and continues to be the case in both developed and developing countries and it does not look as if the situation will improve in the near future Rather current geopolitical developments political and economic uncertainties and instabilities seem to be increasing the vulnerability of minors especially in the wars and armed conflicts currently being waged not only in Europe but on almost every continent How can risks children and youth are exposed to in times of transition be reduced Which role do state agencies non governmental organisations as well as children s coping strategies play in mitigating the vulnerabilities of minors This volume addresses risks to which children and young people are exposed especially in times of transition The focus is on different groups of children in the European wartime and post war societies of the Second World War occupation children in Germany teenage National Socialist collaborators in Norway and more recent cases such as child soldiers refugee children and children of European Islamic State fighters The contributions come from international scholars and different academic disciplines educational and social sciences humanities law and international peace and conflict studies and are based on historical quantitative and or qualitative analyses A Media Framing Approach to Securitization Fred Vultee, 2022-10-14 Presenting securitization as a communication issue this book combines media framing with the theory of securitization to explain how the discourse of security informs media content and what happens to policy and public understanding when it does. Because securitization studies the construction of threats to societal structures as well as political institutional structures, this book addresses security framing as a question of identity and the ability of political cultural elites and media actors to manipulate it. After setting out how its theories work together, the book turns to news and its effects. How do media accounts make empirical sense of the world when they are bound by the need to make social cultural sense first? How does security look in competing news accounts and how do securitizing frames affect attitudes toward policies and political elites? Last, the book asks how academics and professionals can address the challenges to a democratic public's role in decision making created by the manipulation of security. Bringing together distinct fields within communication studies to reflect on the pressing issue of securitization, this book will be a key resource for scholars and students working in the fields of mass communication, policy studies, critical linguistics, and international relations as well as risk and crisis communication.

In Plain Sight Gaby Zipfel, Kirsten Campbell, Regina Mühlhäuser, (eds.), 2019-12-10. In the mid 1970s, at the peak of the women's movement, feminist activism and research opened the door to questions that are still pressing today. While sexual violence has gained public awareness and become a subject in academic debate, efforts to understand and strategies to prevent this form of violence remain inadequate. Who are the perpetrators? How is sexual violence tied to other forms of violence? What are the consequences for individual victims and societies? Compiled by the International Research Group Sexual Violence in Armed Conflict (SVAC), this volume takes an interdisciplinary approach to understanding wartime sexual violence. Its enquiry employs four key relationships: War, Power, Violence, Sexuality, Gender, Engendering, and Visibility/Invisibility. Through these, the authors identify gaps in existing knowledge to develop a deeper and more nuanced understanding of the field. This volume is the result of long-standing cooperation. The International Research Group Sexual Violence in Armed Conflict (SVAC) is a network of interdisciplinary scholars and NGO experts founded in October 2010. Sociologists, philosophers, historians, literary and legal scholars, as well as NGO professionals from Europe, the US, Asia, and Africa, bring together empirical and theoretical studies focusing on sexual violence in different theatres of armed conflict. The group compares source material and promotes the systematic development of research questions and methods.

Race and Gender in Modern Western Warfare David Ulbrich, Bobby A. Wintermute, 2018-12-03. This book fills a gap in the historiographical and theoretical fields of race, gender, and war. In brief, Race and Gender in Modern Western Warfare (RGMWW) offers an introduction into how cultural constructions of identity are transformed by war and how they in turn influence the nature of military institutions and conflicts. Focusing on the modern West, this project begins by introducing the contours of race and gender theories as they have evolved and how they are employed by historians, anthropologists, sociologists, and other scholars. The project then mixes chronological narrative with analysis and historiography as it takes the reader through a series of case studies ranging from the early nineteenth century to the Global War of Terror. The purpose throughout is not merely to create a list of so-called great moments in race and gender but to create a meta landscape in which readers can learn to identify for themselves the disjunctures flaws and critical synergies in the traditional memory and history of a largely monochrome and male exclusive military experience The final chapter considers the current challenges that Western societies particularly the United States face in imposing social diversity and tolerance on statist military structures in a climates of sometimes vitriolic public debate RGMWW represents our effort to blend race gender and military war to problematize these intersections and then provide some answers to those problems Return of the Western Sue Matheson,2025 Transmitting the crisis that Frederick Jackson Turner and Theodore Roosevelt feared when the frontier closed the Western has returned to reveal a cultural watershed at work in twenty first century America revitalized with horror terror and the peccant Darkened and dystopic contemporary Westerns point to a national bankruptcy upending the notion that regenerative civilizing impulses direct nation building Exploring films like Open Range 2003 Yah i Bat 2010 The Keeping Room 2015 Little Woods 2018 and First Cow 2019 as well as television series like Justified 2010 1015 Longmire 2012 2017 Westworld 2016 2022 and Yellowstone 2020 this thought provoking collection examines re constituted masculinities feminine re fashioning and new directions in Western filmmaking Covering a wide range of aesthetic and thematic concerns Return of the Western Refracting Genre Representing Gender in the Twenty First Century reminds us how deeply this versatile genre is grounded in the American psyche and EU integration Gender Roles in Peace and Security Manuela Scheuermann, Anja Zürn, 2019-08-09 This volume examines the specific gender roles in peace and security The authors analyse the implementation process of United Nations Security Council Resolution 1325 in various countries and discuss systemic challenges concerning the Women Peace and Security agenda Through in depth case studies the authors shed new light on topics such as the gender related mechanisms of peace processes gender training practices for police personnel and the importance of violence prevention The volume studies the role of women in peace and security as well as questions of gender mainstreaming by adopting various theoretical concepts including feminist theories concepts of masculinity organizational and security studies It also highlights regional and transnational approaches for the implementation of the Women Peace and Security agenda namely the perspectives of the European Union NATO the UN bureaucracy and the civil society It presents best cases and political advice for tackling the problem of gender inequality in peace and security Trauma-sensitivity and Peacebuilding Lydia Wanja Gitau, 2017-08-18 This book identifies a gap in peacebuilding theory and practice in terms of sensitivity to trauma and its impact on the survivors of war and other mass violence The research focuses on the traumatic experiences and perceptions of peace of South Sudanese refugees in Kakuma Refugee Camp in Northwestern Kenya It further explores the possibilities for peacebuilding identified in these perceptions A lack of sensitivity to the trauma experienced by the survivors of conflict and mass violence leads to interventions that are at best removed from and at worst detrimental to the welfare of the survivors Interventions that take into consideration the complex and multifaceted ways in which the survivors experience and respond to the traumatic events encourage capacities for resilience in the survivors engage the creative arts in peacebuilding and emphasise the centrality of community and relationships are seen to assist the survivors in recovery from trauma and to facilitate peacebuilding Diverse anecdotes and real life stories from the research participants The journey as a recurring motif throughout the book weaved in a clear easy to read style of writing Gender and the Violence(s) of War and Armed Conflict Stacy Banwell, 2020-10-16 The ebook edition of this title is Open Access thanks to Knowledge Unlatched funding and freely available to read online Drawing on historical and contemporary case studies this book delves into visual and text based materials to unpack gender based violence s perpetrated and experienced by both sexes within and beyond the conflict zone Securitization Revisited Michael J. Butler, 2019-07-23 This book seeks to interrogate how contemporary policy issues become securitized and furthermore what the implications of this process are A generation after the introduction of the concept of securitization to the security studies field this book engages with how securitization and desecuritization works within and across a wide range of security domains including terrorism and counter terrorism climate change sexual and gender based violence inter state and intra state conflict identity and memory in various geographic and social contexts Blending theory and application the contributors to this volume drawn from different disciplinary ontological and geographic spaces orient their investigations around three common analytical objectives revealing deficiencies in and through applications of securitization considering securitization through speech acts and discourse as well as other mechanisms and exposing latent orthodoxies embedded in securitization research The volume demonstrates the dynamic and elastic quality of securitization and desecuritization as concepts that bear explanatory fruit when applied across a wide range of security issues actors and audiences It also reveals the deficiencies in restricting securitization research to an overly narrow set of issues actors and mechanisms This volume will be of great interest to scholars of critical security studies international security and International Relations Chapter 6 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Violence against Women in and beyond Conflict Julia Carolin Sachseder, 2022-09-16 Violence against Women in and beyond Conflict explores the processes and structures that underlie and contribute to sexual violence and internal displacement in armed conflict utilizing extensive ethnographic research to provide cutting edge insights The author argues that the key to understanding violence against women lies at the intersection of transnational capital race and gender that not only contribute to its production but also to its persistence The book uses the Colombian armed conflict as the primary case study but develops a broader framework for theorizing the relationship between the global political economy the history of coloniality and intersectional constructions of gender and race with regard to conflict and violence It offers an understanding of violence against women as not isolated from but part and a symptom of a larger system of political social and economic inequality that is rooted in colonialism and exploited and exacerbated by transnational capital relations The author also shows how the state and non state actors most prominently paramilitaries are involved in this relationship of violence The book highlights implications for meaningful and sustainable peace in post conflict contexts This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of international relations gender studies and conflict studies as well as policymakers non governmental organizations and practitioners interested in conflict and security

Difficult Life in a Refugee Camp Ulrike Krause, 2021-07-22 Offering nuanced insights into violence humanitarian protection gender relations and coping of refugees in a Ugandan refugee camp this book shows how risks prevail for refugees despite and partly due to their settlement in the camp and the system established to protect them and hones in on the strategies used by people to protect themselves

Intimate Partner Violence, Risk and Security Kate Fitz-Gibbon, Sandra Walklate, Jude McCulloch, Jane Maree Maher, 2018-06-14 This edited collection addresses intimate partner violence risk and security as global issues Although intimate partner violence risk and security are intimately connected they are rarely considered in tandem in the context of global security Yet intimate partner violence causes widespread physical sexual and or psychological harm It is the most common type of violence against women internationally and is estimated to affect 30 per cent of women worldwide Intimate partner violence has received significant attention in recent years animating political debate policy and law reform as well as scholarly attention In bringing together a range of international experts this edited collection challenges status quo understandings of risk and questions how we can reposition the risk of IPV and particularly the risk of IPH as a critical site of global and national security It brings together contributions from a range of disciplines and international jurisdictions including from Australia and New Zealand United Kingdom Europe United States North America Brazil and South Africa The contributions here urge us to think about perpetrators in more nuanced and sophisticated ways with chapters pointing to the structural and social factors that facilitate and sustain violence against women and IPV Contributors point out that states not only exacerbate the structural conditions producing the risks of violence but directly coerce and control women as both citizens and non citizens States too should be understood as collaborators and facilitators of intimate partner violence Effective action against intimate partner violence requires sustained responses at the global state and local levels to end gender inequality Critical to this end are environmental issues poverty and the divisions often along race and ethnic lines underpinning other dimensions of social and economic inequality

Interdisciplinary Handbook of Trauma and Culture
 Yochai Ataria, David Gurevitz, Haviva Pedaya, Yuval Neria, 2016-09-15 This lofty volume analyzes a circular cultural relationship not only how trauma is reflected in cultural processes and products but also how trauma itself acts as a critical shaper of literature the visual and performing arts architecture and religion and mythmaking The political power of trauma is seen through US Israeli and Japanese art forms as they reflect varied roles of perpetrator victim and witness Traumatic complexities are traced from spirituality to movement philosophy to trauma theory And essays on authors such as Kafka Plath and Cormac McCarthy examine how narrative can blur the boundaries of personal and collective experience Among the topics covered Television a traumatic culture From Hiroshima to Fukushima comics and animation as subversive agents of memory in Japan The death of the witness in the era of testimony Primo Levi and Georges Perec Sigmund Freud's Moses and Monotheism and the possibility of writing a traumatic history of religion Placing collective trauma within its social context the case of the 9 11 attacks Killing the killer rampage and gun rights as a syndrome This volume appeals to multiple readerships including researchers and clinicians sociologists anthropologists historians and media researchers

Human Rights, Security Politics and Embodiment Aneira J. Edmunds, 2023-12-05 Virtuous institutions such as human rights ones have been neglected by securitization theory's focus on the national state apparatus as the key driver of security politics This book challenges this assumption showing the ways institutional human rights deemed the most progressive of rights have been complicit in rendering the body vulnerable While the book principally focuses on the treatment of the veiled woman it also considers wider cases involving torture the ultimate removal of control over one's body and biggest transgression of human rights supposed foundational commitment to bodily integrity

Migration, Recognition and Critical Theory Gottfried Schweiger, 2021-07-07 This book brings together philosophical social theoretical and empirically oriented contributions on the philosophical and socio theoretical debate on migration and integration using the instruments of recognition as a normative and social scientific category Furthermore the theoretical and practical implications of recognition theory are reflected through the case of migration Migration movements refugees and the associated tensions are phenomena that have become the focus of scientific political and public debate in recent years Migrants in particular refugees face many injustices and are especially vulnerable but the right wing political discourse presents them as threats to social order and stability This book shows what a critical theory of recognition can contribute to the debate The book is suitable for researchers in philosophy social theory and migration research A profound examination of how states and societies struggle to recognize migrants as fellow human beings in all their fullness The contributions are exceptional for combining astute philosophy and social theory with a discussion of actual politics and real lives Dr Hugo Slim Senior Research Fellow at the Blavatnik School of Government University of Oxford and formerly Head of Policy at the International Committee of the Red Cross This impressive and timely volume offers an innovative way of understanding the issues of migration and integration by using a critical theory of recognition Recognition theory has rich potential for effectively responding to the issues of autonomy identity integration and empowerment that are at the core of the current public debates on mass migration displacement and the refugee crisis By examining the normative and policy implications of recognition as they apply to migration the book offers a pathbreaking look at the human dimension of the debate Dr Helle Porsdam Professor of Law and Humanities and UNESCO Chair in Cultural Rights University of Copenhagen

Women as Wartime Rapists Laura Sjoberg, 2016-11-22 Women as Wartime Rapists reveals the stories of female perpetrators of sexual violence and their place in wartime conflict legal policy and the punishment of sexual violence Very few women are wartime rapists Very few women issue commands to commit sexual violence Very few women play a role in making war plans that feature the intentional sexual violation of other women This book is about those very few women More broadly Laura Sjoberg asks what do the actions and perceptions of female perpetrators of sexual violence reveal about our broader conceptions of war violence sexual assault and gender This book explores specific historical case studies such as Nazi Germany Serbia the contemporary case of ISIS and others to understand how and why women participate in rape during war and conflict Sjoberg examines the contrast between the visibility of female victims and the invisibility of female perpetrators as well as the distinction between rape and genocidal rape which is used as a weapon against a particular ethnic or national group Further she explores women's engagement with genocidal rape and how some orchestrated the ethnic cleansing of entire regions A provocative approach to a sensationalized topic Women as Wartime Rapists offers important insights into not only the topic of female perpetrators of wartime sexual violence but to larger notions of gender and violence with crucial cultural legal and political implications
