The Social Entrepreneur Making Communities Work:

The Social Entrepreneur Andrew Mawson, 2008 When Andrew Mawson arrived in Bromley by Bow in the east end of London in the 1980s it was in a state of social economic and material disrepair Living there getting to know the residents and institutions he soon realized that by unlocking its untapped potential the community could begin to turn itself around The result the Bromley by Bow Centre has encouraged literacy housing business health welfare and enterprise in the area to flourish Time and again using the same approach Mawson has succeeded where the government and others have failed His inspiring and timely book will demonstrate through his own experience how by seeking creative dynamic entrepreneurial ways of tackling seemingly intractable social problems we can all make real changes in our communities How to be a Social Entrepreneur Robert Ashton, 2011-01-05 In a time when making money has got itself a bad name when public distaste for fat cats and conglomerate brands is at an all time high becoming a social entrepreneur looks increasingly attractive This book can show you how to go about becoming one How to be a Social Entrepreneur Robert Ashton, 2011-03-23 Don't just make money make a difference As a social entrepreneur you can build a business that changes the world But you will face some unique challenges This book will prepare you for them Packed with advice inspiration and real life stories it will help you Define what you want to do and why you want to do it Find the right kind of funding Build a brand that makes you unique Find a team as motivated and inspired as you are Measure the impact you're having How to be a Social Entrepreneur is the only social enterprise start up guide you'll ever need This is the seminal book on social enterprise Martin Murphy Network 2012 An essential read for any aspiring or existing social entrepreneur Full of practical examples of real life social enterprise scenarios and written in Robert's usual uncomplicated format Marc Davies Wales Co operative Centre Limited walescoop.com Social enterprises need social entrepreneurs This book will help you decide if you've got what it takes to be one Peter Couchman Chief Executive Plunkett Foundation plunkett.co.uk This very practical book will guide you as to what it takes to be a social entrepreneur Enjoy it and then do it Lord Andrew Mawson OBE author of The Social Entrepreneur Making Communities Work amawsonpartnerships.com I was genuinely impressed by how comprehensive it is Peter Holbrook CEO Social Enterprise Coalition socialenterprise.org.uk A treasure trove filled with practical insight and knowledge that will give you the edge to start grow a sustainable and successful social enterprise Stephen Gyasi Kwaw CEO Founder Youth Enhancement Int Ghana I particularly enjoyed the section on sales which is a fundamental topic too often neglected Andy Brady 3rd Sector Futures Anglia Ruskin University anglia.ac.uk Robert Ashton is a leading small business troubleshooter entertaining small business speaker and the bestselling author of many business books including How to Start a Business for Entrepreneurs Instant Entrepreneur and The Entrepreneur's Book of Checklists The Social Entrepreneur Andrew Mawson, 2014-11-06 When Andrew Mawson arrived in Bromley by Bow in the east end of London in the 1980s it was in a state of social economic and material disrepair Living there getting to know the residents and institutions he soon realized that by unlocking its untapped potential the community could begin to turn itself around The result the Bromley by Bow Centre has encouraged literacy housing business health welfare and enterprise in the area to flourish Time and again using the same approach Mawson has succeeded where the government and others have failed His inspiring and timely book will demonstrate through his own experience how by seeking creative dynamic entrepreneurial ways of tackling seemingly intractable social problems we can all make real changes in our communities

Corporate Responsibility Michael Blowfield, Mick Blowfield, Alan Murray, 2014 This textbook examines the multiple dimensions to corporate responsibility creating a framework that presents a historical and interdisciplinary overview of the field a summary of different management approaches and a review of the key actors and trends worldwide

Entrepreneurial Imagination Bjorn Bjerke, Hans Ramo, 2011-01-01 Entrepreneurial Imagination innovatively focuses on entrepreneurial and economic action in time timing space and place Schedules and places of production working times and working places are no longer fixed due to the effects of the contemporary economy The authors expertly bring together a focused and themed book that deals wholly with the subjects of time and space in a phenomenological understanding of entrepreneurial ventures and related business action They discuss theories and thinking of human action space place timing and time in various entrepreneurial and business arenas including social entrepreneuring environmental and corporate social responsibility network forms of entrepreneuring urban governance and regional development Taking a phenomenological approach to enable readers to understand entrepreneurship and related economic action clearly will prove to be inspiring for students academics and practitioners interested in all areas of entrepreneurship and similar issues

Social Entrepreneurship Björn Bjerke, Mathias Karlsson, 2013-01-01 A timely contribution to social entrepreneurship research from a Scandinavian view Taking entrepreneurship as creative action in society as a whole the authors counter widely held perceptions of social entrepreneurship it is not an elite phenomenon but a form of action that we all engage in from time to time it is not about system changing disruptions but generally about small but real improvements in everyday life it is not about autonomous action but about realizing freedom potential in societies where knowledge and learning have become essential for civic action Rafael Ziegler University of Greifswald Germany This book offers an innovative theory driven account of social entrepreneurship that is located in new thinking around the constructs of community and public entrepreneurship Bjerke and Karlsson draw on a wide range of sources to offer useful new insights and analyses of this emerging sector and contribute a variety of useful and challenging new models of the relationship between society innovation and politics All in all this represents a valuable addition to the growing theoretical literature on social innovation and entrepreneurship Alex Nicholls University of Oxford UK This informative book examines some social entrepreneurs in practice in several countries whilst concentrating on entrepreneurs in the third sector The authors call them citizen entrepreneurs Such people are not only becoming more common but also more necessary in the world of today Entrepreneurs are seen as people who aim to act as if and make a difference that is who act out of the ordinary and come up with noticeable solutions to various problems without being restricted by existing resources or possibilities This book applies these criteria to citizen entrepreneurs focusing on public entrepreneurs operating in public places The authors conduct in depth case studies to examine these public entrepreneurs thoroughly and offer some theoretical reflections on social entrepreneurship Students and researchers studying social entrepreneurship will find this book of great interest Social entrepreneurs and practitioners would also benefit considerably from this enriching resource

Learning about Social Entrepreneurship and Management in Times of Social Transformation Luise Li Langergaard, Katia Dupret, Jennifer Eschweiler, 2024-01-01 The book brings together perspectives on entrepreneurship research education and practice to understand social entrepreneurship in its wider societal political and economic context Its unique contribution comes from its interdisciplinary approach that spans from the societal to the organizational level with specific focus social innovation and management It views management of social entrepreneurship and social enterprise in light of its societal context and employs social innovation to critically assess social entrepreneurship as driver of change The emergence of social entrepreneurship as an academic field is linked to several societal trends such as public austerity financial crises new social challenges and a growing counter movement to globalised capitalism Generally seen as organisations serving both social and economic objectives social enterprises social innovation and social entrepreneurship have their roots in civil society civic activism or the solidarity economy but also manifest themselves as for profit companies with new organisational forms emerging and old ones changing The contributions in this book elucidate these developments and the role of social entrepreneurs and social enterprises Furthermore the book offers great insight into the specific ways of managing leading and creating innovation in social enterprises as well as perspectives on how to understand their social impact or value creation

Kelly, 2016-03-03 With business seemingly everywhere on television from the risks of the retail and restaurant trade to pitching for investment or competing to become the next apprentice The Television Entrepreneurs draws upon popular business oriented shows such as The Apprentice and Dragons Den to explore the relationship between television and business Based on extensive interviews with key industry and business figures and drawing on new empirical research into audience perceptions of business this book examines our changing relationship with entrepreneurship and the role played by television in shaping our understanding of the world of business The book identifies the key structural shifts in both the television industry and the wider economy that account for these changing representations whilst examining the extent to which television s developing interest in business and entrepreneurial issues is simply a response to wider social and economic change in society Does a more commercial and competitive television marketplace for instance mean that the medium itself through a particular focus on drama entertainment and performance now plays a key role in re defining how society frames its engagements with business finance entrepreneurship risk and wealth creation Mapping the narratives of entrepreneurship constructed by television and analysing the context that produces them The Television Entrepreneurs investigates how the television audience engages with such programmes and the possible impact these may have on public understanding of the nature of business

Social entrepreneurship and social innovation in the Nordic countries Nordic Council of Ministers, 2015-09-23 The Nordic countries are currently facing major challenges with regard to maintaining and further developing social welfare Against this background the Nordic Council of Ministers decided in autumn 2013 to appoint a working group to map initiatives to support social entrepreneurship and social innovation in the Nordic countries The main purpose of this mapping is to increase knowledge of initiatives to support social entrepreneurship and social innovation in the Nordic Region in the work to include disadvantaged groups in employment and society This report presents the results from the mapping and the working group s recommendations for further follow up

Civil Society, the Third Sector and Social Enterprise Jean-Louis Laville, Dennis R. Young, Philippe Eynaud, 2015-04-24 If the twentieth century was only focused on the complementarity and the opposition of market and state the twenty first century has now to deal with the prominence of the third sector the emergence of social enterprises and other solidarity hybrid forms The concept of civil society organisations CSOs spans this diversity and addresses this new complexity The first part of the book highlights the organizational dimensions of CSOs and analyses the growing role of management models and their limits Too often the study of CSO governance has been centered on the role of the board and has not sufficiently taken into account the different types of accountability environments Thus the conversation about CSO governance rises to the level of networks rather than simple organizations per se and the role of these networks in setting the agenda in a democratic society In this perspective the second part emphasizes the institutional dimensions of CSO governance by opening new avenues on democracy First the work of Ostrom about governing the commons provides us new insights to think community self governance Second the work of Habermas and Fraser opens the question of deliberative governance and the role of public sphere to enlarge our vision of CSO governance Third the concepts of substantive rationality and economy proposed respectively by Ramos and Polanyi reframe the context in which the question can be addressed Lastly this book argues for a stronger intercultural approach useful for the renewal of paradigms in CSOs research This book has for objective to present a unique collective work in bringing together 33 authors coming from 11 countries to share perspectives on civil society governance and will be of interest to an international audience of researchers and policy makers
