Crimes of Violence Donald J. Mulvihill, Melvin Marvin Tumin, 1970 Eliseo Subiela in Life and Cinema Nancy J. Membrez, 2022-03-11 Audiences never have a lukewarm opinion of a Subiela film They either love it passionately or hate it profoundly That Eliseo Subiela Buenos Aires 1944 2016 an original and sensitive thinker survived and indeed thrived in economically challenged Argentina while garnering more accolades abroad than in his own country is a tribute to his grit intelligence imagination and persistence of vision With an astounding list of prizes and honors he was a world class auteur Even when he was making a TV commercial his surreal style and poetic sensibility were unmistakable This book represents the culmination of 20 years of research and personal correspondence with Eliseo Subiela Through ten scholarly studies and five interviews it sheds light on his life esthetics obsessions struggles with madness and of course his films It addresses his earlier career in advertising lifelong artistic influences screenwriting techniques critical reactions to his films and what Subiela's example has to offer aspiring filmmakers especially those in Latin America Dangerous Alliances Lise Garon, 2003-06 This study of Magreb's highly erratic encounter with democratization illuminates the complex and diverse encounters between civil society and the authorities in Tunisia Algeria and Morocco As opposition has built up in each society those in power have confronted the pressures for democratization The author examines the role of the media in particular both within these countries and internationally as contested but often compliant terrain between governments and dissidents She uses a dynamic systems model incorporating the existence of fundamental conflict to show how democratic institutions can become institutionalized and the constant possibility of any democratic transition being reversed Breaking Images Brian Greer, David Kollosche, Ole Skovsmose, 2024-12-11 Mathematics is an activity something we do not just something inert that we study This rich collection begins from that premise to explore the various social influences institutional forces and lived realities that shape and mould the study and practice of mathematics and are moulded by it in turn These twenty one essays explore questions of mathematics as a topic of philosophy but also the nature and purpose of mathematics education and the role of mathematics in moulding citizens It challenges the biases and prejudices inherent within uninformed histories of mathematics including problems of white supremacy the denial of cultural difference and the global homogenization of teaching methods In particular the book contrasts the effectiveness of mathematics and science in modelling physical phenomena and solving technical problems with its ineffectiveness in modelling social phenomena and solving human problems and urges us to consider how mathematics might better meet the urgent crises of our age The book addresses anybody who is interested in reflecting on the role of mathematics in society from different perspectives It allows mathematicians to ponder about the cultural connections of mathematics and provides new perspectives for philosophical sociological and cultural studies of mathematics Because of the book's emphasis on education in mathematics it is especially interesting for mathematics teachers and teacher educators to challenge their understanding of the subject Naming and

The Protestant Bible Correctly Translated William Harwood, 2017-07-21 There has long been a need for a translation of the Judaeo-Christian Bible that did not deliberately mistranslate certain words and sentences for the purpose of concealing that the biblical authors' beliefs were quite different from those of modern Jews, Christians and Muslims. For example, 'The LORD' is a falsification of the proper name Yahweh, a god like Zeus or Jupiter. But the most blatant fraud has been the rendering of the Hebrew word allahiym as the male proper name God. Allahiym is neither a proper name nor singular nor unisexual. Al means a god. The suffix ah is a feminine singular inflection so that allah means goddess. The suffix iyim is a masculine plural inflection making allahiym a dual sex generic plural male and female gods or in the common gender gods. This translation corrects such falsifications. Chronicle of the Horse, 1978-04 Culture and Human Values Jacob Abram Loewen, 1975 Christian Intervention in Anthropological Perspective Culture and Human Values explores the intricate relationship between culture and the values that shape human behavior and beliefs. Drawing from real life encounters and ethnographic research, Jacob Loewen delves into the profound influence of culture on individuals and communities, examining how cultural values become the core of people's way of life. Through captivating anecdotes and insightful analysis, the book uncovers the significance of cultural universals in various societies. It highlights the crucial role of values as the hub around which cultures revolve, affecting every aspect of human existence. From the impact of money in missionaries' lives to the centrality of war for ancestral cultures, the Loewen demonstrates how values shape perceptions, actions, and even spirituality. Moreover, the book underscores the importance of cultural awareness for effective cross-cultural communication, particularly in the context of missionary work. It emphasizes the need for missionaries to comprehend and respect the values of the cultures they encounter, as well as the reciprocal learning that takes place in such interactions. By exploring these themes, Culture and Human Values offers valuable insights into the complexities of culture and its profound influence on human behavior, providing a compelling perspective on the intersection of culture, values, and communication.
