The legends of the Panjâb Richard Carnac Temple,1884-01-01     The Atlantic Monthly ,1871     Encyclopedia of Korean Folk Literature The National Folk Museum of Korea (South Korea),2014-11-27 CONTENTS MYTHOLOGY LEGENDS FOLK TALES REFERENCES INDEX     Time and Times and Half a Time Ida Fröhlich,1996-01-01 The aims of this significant study are to present pictures of the past as it manifested itself in Jewish literary works written in the Persian and Hellenistic periods and to reveal the origin of materials and methods used in them in order to construct historical traditions The works investigated are literary works of three types pseudohistorical narratives i e historical legends visions and their interpretations and rewritten Bibles i e works retelling the historical tradition of the Bible with alterations in order to create a new structure of history     Oarses-Zygia William Smith,1880     Baseball's Creation Myth Brian Martin,2013-06-12 The story about baseball s being invented in Cooperstown New York in 1839 by Abner Doubleday served to prove that the U S national pastime was an American game not derived from the English children s game of rounders as had been believed The tale embraced by Americans has long been proven false but to this day Cooperstown is celebrated as the birthplace of baseball The story has captured the hearts of millions But who spun that tale and why This book provides a surprising answer about the origins of America s most durable myth It seems that Abner Graves who espoused Cooperstown as the birthplace of the game likely was inspired by another story about an early game of baseball The stories were remarkably similar as were the men who told them For the first time this book links the stories and lives of Graves a mining engineer and Adam Ford a medical doctor both residents of Denver Colorado While the actual origins of the game of baseball remain subject to debate and study new light is shed on the source of baseball's durable creation myth Inari Sámi Folklore August V.
