

TO MY TEACHING ASSISTANT

The school year is almost done
And I just want you to know
You are an awesome teacher
I'll be sad when I have to go!

Thank you for your patience
For being so kind and caring
And for teaching me the importance of kind words and of sharing.

Don't change the way you teach
You made our lessons so much fun
That I didn't even realise
I was learning a ton!

I'll take your lessons with me
Wherever I go from here
So thank you a million times over
For my best ever school year!

A History of Western Appreciation of English-translated Tang Poetry Lan Jiang,2018-03-08 This book examines the development of English translated Tang poetry and its propagation to the Western world It consists of two parts the first of which addresses the initial stage of English translated Tang poetry s propagation and the second exploring its further development By analyzing the historical background and characteristics of these two stages the book traces the trend back to its roots discusses some well known early sinologists and their contributions and familiarizes readers with the general course of Tang poetry s development In addition it presents the translated versions of many Tang poems The dissemination of Tang poetry to the Western world is a significant event in the history of cross cultural communication From the simple imitation of poetic techniques to the acceptance and identification of key poetic concepts the Tang poetry translators gradually constructed a classic Chinese style in modern American poetry Hence the traditional Chinese culture represented by Tang poetry spread more widely in the English speaking world producing a more lasting impact on societies and cultures outside China and demonstrating the poetry s ability to transcend the boundaries of time region nationality and culture Due to different cultural backgrounds the Tang poets or poems admired most by Western readers may not necessarily receive high acclaim in China Sometimes language barriers and cultural differences make it impossible to represent certain allusions or cultural and ethnic concepts correctly during the translation process However in recent decades the translation of Tang poetry has evolved considerably in both quantity and quality As culture is manifested in language and language is part of culture the translation of Tang poetry has allowed Western scholars to gain an unprecedented understanding of China and Chinese culture

face unknown tests and challenges at times in our lives from the Thorns of the Heart These fated times happen to all of us whether we are young old rich or poor Yes it is through these severe heavy downpours of pain and suffering in our own lives that we meet up with the Grim Reaper eye to eye and face off with The Thorns of the Heart However as my brother W R Sharp and I wrote in our novel life is finite and just like a burning candle it has a beginning and an ending in its own time Yes this is true unless the waxed lit flame is blown out at an unexpected moment before one is ready to say goodbye to their loved ones or to leave their earthly life behind on this earth At these specific times and many other times in our lives we suffer from the Thorns of the Heart Yet we must continue to live our lives to the fullest having infinite hope and forge ahead for not only our children but for all our loved ones The sense of our survival allows not only continuity but the preservation of our family legacies in generations to come Human stamina we as the authors believe is the secret to one's life as described in the words of the poem A Candle Burns A Candle Burns by S L Sharp A candle burns in all our hearts flamed with passion lies and secrets A candle burns in all our hearts scorched in old romances friends and acquaintances A candle burns in all our hearts smoked with bittersweet sadness and sorrow A candle burns in all our hearts melted down with memories regrets and moments A candle burns in all our hearts burnt out in love laughter and yesterdays Yes we must encounter each new day of our life through our powers of love strength faith and by not believing in never ending dreams Only through positive thoughts a belief system intestinal fortitude and physical stamina can we provide mental body armor against the Thorns of the Heart

This will allow the sun to shine once again within our souls clearing the pathway for all of us to a new life changing awakening day only if we keep HANGIN ON W R Sharp and S L Sharp
