Self-Directed Learning in the era of the COVID-19 pandemic Josef de Beer,Neal Petersen,Elsa Mentz,Robert J. Balfour,2023-03-01 The book is devoted to scholarship in the field of pre service teacher education with a specific focus on research into the enhancement of self directed learning and contributes to the discourse on creating a disposition towards self directed learning during the social and academic integration of first year students within higher education institutions Two chapters also deal with research on the development of self directed learning and nuanced understandings of the chosen professions of Law and Health Sciences students The target audience is scholars working in the fields of teacher education self directed learning engaging pedagogies problem based learning cooperative learning and gamification Whereas social constructivist learning theory served as an overarching theoretical framework for the virtual excursions the various chapters in the book also draw on other secondary theories such as self determination theory social interdependence theory gender theory and the with fitness model of Kounin 1970 Becoming a teacher Josef de Beer,2020-12-31 This book disseminates original research on learning in and from practice in pre service teacher education Authors such as Lederman and Lederman describe the student teaching practicum or work integrated learning WIL which is an essential component of pre service teacher education as the elephant in the room These authors note that the capstone experience in any teacher education programme is the student teaching practicum after all this is where the rubber hits the road However many teacher educators will agree that this WIL component is sometimes very insufficient in assisting the student teacher to develop their own footing and voice as a teacher This is the gap that this research book addresses Most of the chapters in the book report empirical data with the exception of two chapters that can be categorized as systematic reviews WIL is addressed from various angles in the chapters Chapter 6 focuses on research related to what makes Finnish teacher education so effective and in Chapter 4 researchers of the University of Johannesburg disseminate their findings on establishing a teaching school based on Finnish insights in Johannesburg Chapter 3 highlights the challenges faced in open and distance learning teacher education contexts Several of the chapters disseminate research findings on alternative interventions to classic WIL namely where safe spaces or laboratories are created for student teachers to learn and grow professionally These could either be simulations such as software programmes and avatars in the intervention described in Chapter 2 student excursions as the findings in chapters 5 7 and 10 portray or alternative approaches to WIL e g Chapters 11 and 12 The book is devoted to scholarship in the field of pre service teacher education The target audience is scholars working in the fields of pre service teacher education work integrated learning and self directed learning The book makes a unique contribution in terms of firstly its extensive use of Cultural Historical Activity Theory as a research lens and secondly in drawing on various theoretical frameworks Both quantitative and qualitative research informed the findings of the book A scholarly inquiry into disciplinary practices in educational institutions Connie B. Zulu,Izak J. Oosthuizen,Charl C. Wolhuter,Corene de Wet,Rika Joubert,Ansie E. Kitching,Michael L. Marumo,Zahraa McDonald,Nicholus T. Mollo,Louis J. Oosthuizen,Ferdinand J. Potgieter,Bianke van Rooyen,Marius H. Smit,Amos T. Thebenyane,Andre van der Bijl,Johannes (Hannes) L. van der Walt,2019-12-12 This book is a collection of chapters based on original research dealing with issues of discipline and disciplinary practices in educational institutions The aim of the book is to provide a scholarly and scientific perspective on the current state of discipline and disciplinary practices in schools and tertiary education settings The issue of discipline is investigated from diverse paradigmatic and methodological perspectives presenting empirical as well as also philosophical research The empirical perspective includes quantitative positivistic qualitative interpretive and mixed methods pragmatic designs and worldviews This book offers a ground breaking contribution to the field of learner and student discipline with insights into disciplinary practices and issues in educational institutions not hitherto researched such as Technical Vocational Education and Training colleges and universities Towards a holistic approach to support learners at risk of interrupted development Macalane J. Malindi, Johnnie Hay, Thabo Makhalemele, 2024-02-23 The COVID 19 pandemic and the restrictions that came with it led to unprecedented disruptions in learner development and put them at risk of poor developmental outcomes It is thus important that the extent of the disruption on their development and the support needs of learners be investigated Researching the impact of the disruption should focus on holistic development In this book the authors use multiple research approaches and methods of gathering data in their respective fields to examine the impact of the disruption and determine the support needs of learners Data gathered through the different methods are processed and findings are presented The findings have implications for both practice and future research in the fields of inclusive education learner support educational psychology movement education Life Orientation and curriculum development

Handbook of Academic Integrity Sarah Elaine Eaton, 2023-12-04 The book brings together diverse views from around the world and provides a comprehensive overview of academic integrity and how to create the ethical academy At the same time the Handbook does not shy away from some of the vigorous debates in the field such as the causes of academic integrity breaches There has been an explosion of interest in academic integrity in the last 20 30 years New technologies that have made it easier than ever for students to cut and paste coupled with global media scandals of high profile researchers behaving badly have resulted in the perception that plagiarism is on the rise This in combination with the massification and commercialisation of higher education has resulted in a burgeoning interest in the importance of academic integrity how to safeguard it and how to address breaches appropriately What may have seemed like a relatively easy topic to address students copying sources without attribution has in fact turned out to be a complex interdisciplinary field of research requiring contributions from linguists psychologists social scientists anthropologists teaching and learning specialists mathematicians accountants medical doctors lawyers and philosophers to name just a few Because of this broad interest and input this handbook serves as the single authoritative reference work which brings together the vast growing interdisciplinary and at times contradictory body of literature For both established researchers practitioners and those new to the field this Handbook provides a one stop shop as well as a launching pad for new explorations and discussions

Innovative curriculum design Neal Petersen, Adri du Toit, Elsa Mentz, Robert J. Balfour, 2023-09-29 The focus of this book is original research regarding the implementation of problem based learning and pedagogies of play as active approaches to foster self directed learning With the Fourth Industrial Revolution 4IR in mind educational institutions need to rethink teaching and learning for the future As such active engagement can be encouraged as evident in this book where problem based learning drives learning through real world problems while pedagogy of play focuses on innovative environments where the action of play and learning are integrated with the aim of developing SDL The following are addressed in the chapters an overview of problem based learning and pedagogy of play metaliteracy playful problem based learning tasks computational thinking in game based tasks and geometry solving puzzles applying LEGO using drama as the pedagogy of play and implementing educational robotics The empirical research findings disseminated in this book aim to inspire academics in the research focus area of self directed learning with active learning approaches in the school and tertiary classroom that hold affordances to enhance 21st century skills Active learning is an umbrella term for pedagogies that mainstream student engagement such as problem based learning cooperative learning gamification role play and drama This scholarly book highlights various engaging pedagogies Education leadership Leentjie van Jaarsveld, Charl C.

Wolhuter, C.P. van der Vyver, 2023-03-01 Leadership in education has been demonstrated to make a measurable and significant impact on the success of schools and the achievement levels of learners This book displays the scope and range of the emerging field of the scholarship of education leadership by means of chapters zooming in on various areas of research in the field The ensuing chapters focusing on various areas in the field of Education Leadership scholarship are ordered in the following categories chapters dealing with teacher leadership school leadership and mid level leadership The sections cover Collective Teacher efficacy in high performing high schools in South Africa leadership and leadership challenges of school principals of special schools entrepreneurial leadership perceptions of school staff and school governing bodies regarding the use and maintenance of ageing school facilities and continuous professional development of teachers in Namibia All the chapters employ a variety of research methods The research reported on in each of the chapters does not only give clear indications as to how and where to improve practice but also opens vistas for new and future research suggesting to scholars in the field promising ways to take the field forward with research critical to the continual advance and relevance of the field

Higher Education in the Face of a Global Pandemic ,2022-02-28 The book reflects on the extent to which the coronavirus COVID 19 pandemic influenced the education system in Africa notably South Africa The advent of the pandemic has brought a new context to the challenges of access deepening the precarious position of African higher education systems The pandemic underscored that African higher education systems are fragile and not uniformly resilient The book discusses the challenges created or further entrenched by COVID 19 and how the typology of inequality across the differentiated institutions impacted the management of education delivery during COVID 19 Per se lessons learned were documented to inform decision making and practice while drawing conclusions for future usage Even though the shift to emergency remote teaching was not foreseen and thus not coordinated the authors argue that students learning styles perceptions of online learning and digital pedagogy should be considered in the post COVID 19 curricula development processes Positive

Educational Approaches to Teaching Effectiveness and Student Well-being Hans Henrik Knoop, Mirna Nel, Sufen Chen, Rebecca Shankland, Llewellyn Ellardus Van Zyl, Matthew Cole, 2022-11-08 ICT Education Wai Sze Leung, Marijke Coetzee, Duncan Coulter, Deon Cotterrell, 2022-01-19 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 50th Annual Conference of the Southern African Computer Lecturers Association on ICT Education SACLA 2021 held in Johannesburg South Africa in July 2021 The 9 revised full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from the 23 submissions

One invited paper was also included in this volume The papers are organized in following topical sections past present and future teaching innovation teaching methods and strategies The human dilemma of displacement Alfred R.

Brunsdon,2020-12-31 In this book social responsive theological research converges to provide practical theological and ecclesiological perspectives on the growing human dilemma of displacement The book presents the research of practical theologians a missiologist and a religious practitioner whose work pertains first and foremost to the South African context The different fields of expertise of the contributors within the broader field of practical theology worked towards a unique compilation of themes each relevant to the issue at stake The majority of chapters are theoretically orientated except where authors refer to empirical work conducted during previous research The main contribution of this collaborative work is to be sought in the practical theological and ecclesiological perspectives it provides It engages the critical questions of what kind of church we need and what kind of care we should provide in the face of the growing predicament of human displacement The theological and theoretical principles uncovered in the different chapters will be of use to theologians from all theological subdisciplines as well as to religious practitioners and leaders of faith communities that are challenged with the growing realities of strangers on their doorsteps and in their pews Scaffolding work-integrated learning excursions Adri

Du Toit,Neal Petersen,Iman C. Chahine,2025-02-28 In South Africa work integrated learning WIL excursions are crucial in preparing university students for the world of work As higher education institutions HEIs evolve to promote equity and inclusivity these excursions are continuously refined to enhance student learning outcomes This scholarly book explores how WIL excursions support self directed learning SDL and foster skills essential for the 21st century such as active learning intercultural sensitivity and epistemological access A key focus is on the 2023 WIL excursions at North West University NWU which align with South Africa s National Development Plan 2030 and the University Capacity Development Grant s UCDG goal of equipping graduates to address contemporary societal challenges The book examines first year excursions across three faculties Education Health Sciences and Law using both virtual and in person experiences to develop intercultural citizenship communication and a sense of belonging Through research based insights the chapters highlight how these excursions were designed and implemented to help students recognise personal biases deepen cultural awareness and take responsibility for their own learning Additionally the book underscores how students were encouraged to identify their learning needs and access resources that promote ongoing self directed growth By linking WIL to SDL the book provides novel perspectives on fostering inclusivity and preparing students for their academic journeys professional careers and contributions to a more socially just world Language and Institutional Identity in the Post-Apartheid South African Higher Education Leketi Makalela,2022-03-21 This book examines the intersections between education identity formation and language in post apartheid South Africa with specific attention to higher education It does so against the backdrop of the core argument that the sector plays a critical role in shaping re producing and perpetuating sectoral class sub national and national identities which in turn in the peculiar South African setting are almost invariably analogous with the historical fault lines determined and dictated by language as a marker of ethnic and racial identity The chapters in the book grapple with the nuances related to these intersections in the understanding that higher education language policies overt and or covert largely structure institutional cultures or what has been described as curriculum in higher education institutions Together the chapters examine the roles played by higher education by language policies and by the intersections of these policies and ethnolinguistic identities in either constructing and perpetuating or deconstructing ethnolinguistic identities upon which the sector was founded The introductory chapter lays out the background to the entire book with an emphasis on the policy and practice perspectives on the intersections The middle chapters describe the so called White Universities Black Universities and Middle Man Minorities Universities The final chapter maps out future directions of the discourses on language and identity formation in South Africa s higher education

Teaching At Nwu 2016: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Teaching At Nwu 2016 : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Teaching At Nwu 2016 : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
