Over the weekend, my family and I went to the beach. It was a bright sunny day, and it was so hot I thought I was going to pass out. Luckily, we had good air-conditioning in the car, and once we arrived knew I would be able to jump into the refreshing and cold water. My mother says the "water is always cold at Victorian beaches", but that was okay on this occasion. In fact, it was welcome. Once we got to the beach, I hopped out of the car and grabbed my boogie board. my feet were burning, waking over the hot sand towards the water.

Whilst I was crossing the sand, I saw a few blue bottles. Bluebottles are a type of jellyfish that wash up on shore. I was careful not to step on them, as they have a painful sting. They distracted me from my friend who was yelling out to me. I turned my head to see my friend waving his arms at me. I said "hi" and we ran into the water. Just before we were about to catch a wave on our boards, we saw a large, dark figure lurking, swimming around about fifty meters away from us. We were curious as to what it was, and it was only until we got closer that we realized it was a shark.

First person / past tense

I was amazed at first. I had never seen a shark in real life before, but I quickly realized that I was possibly in great danger. My friend and I got on our boards and quickly but quietly swam away as to not provoke the shark. Once we were out of harm's way, we caught a wave back into shore and rushed to tell our parents about what we had seen.

"Mum, Mum, you will never believe what we just saw!"

"What is it?" said my mum confused.

"We saw a shark! We were really close to it and we could have got bitten!"

My mum didn't take me seriously.

"Of course you did darling!"

"No, I'm serious we saw one for real!"

"Well if you are telling the truth, you had better go let the lifeguards know so that they can get everyone out of the water as fast as possible!"

"Good idea!"

We dashed to the lifeguard tower to tell them that we had seen a shark. They immediately let the lifeguards near the water know about the shark and they urged everyone to get out of the water.

"There goes our beach day," I said to my friend.

"It's okay, we can come back tomorrow."

I said goodbye to my friend and hopped back into my car; he was right, we can come back tomorrow but I was disappointed that we didn't get to stay longer. The trip back home was boring and quiet, everyone was still a bit upset because of what happened, but mum said that we could go back tomorrow. Hopefully tomorrow there will be no sharks.
