To whom it may concern,

It is with great pleasure that I write this letter of recommendation for Mr. Craig Wilton. Craig has served as musical director for our spring musicals on two occasions, and I hope to continue to hire him for as many productions as I can in the future. His talent, enthusiasm, positive attitude, and amazing support with cast members and pit orchestra members alike make him an ideal candidate for musical director. Craig is punctual and hard-working and always comes to rehearsals with a smile on his face. His energy is absolutely contagious, and inspires my cast members to work with harder than they might otherwise. Each time he works with a group of students, he instills confidence, models work ethic, and motivates excellence in musicianship in each and every life he touches. The quality of performance Mr. Wilton elicits from cast members and members of our pit orchestra is beyond expectations, and I have been so proud of the work they have created together.

Craig's talent as a musician is unparalleled- it is an absolute inspiration to watch and hear him play. His passion for his craft and the joy he feels creating music comes through with undiluted emotion in each note played, and his vocal performances are equally as lovely and a blessing for all to hear. I have worked with several musical directors over the years, and working with Craig has been the best overall experience. He is responsible and communicative and accomplishes the tasks and responsibilities with professionalism. I have felt a weight lifted with him sharing direction to our musicals, and have enjoyed working with him immensely- he is a great colleague and a good man. My student cast members and our student musicians have only the best compliments to say about him- he is well liked and well respected, and has given the students a positive and professional experience. I am honored to work with Craig.

I highly recommend Craig Wilton. His talent is beyond compare, and he is a man of character who will prove to be a valuable member of any organization.

Sincerely,
