Slave Of The Dungeon:

In the Dungeons of the Slave Lords Lawrence Schick, 1981 Sex Slave in Cinema Aga Skrodzka, 2025-03-31 This book examines the visual politics of the cinematic figure of the sex slave from its origins in silent film to its iterations in blaxploitation cinema European art cinema Nollywood and in its most concentrated form the Hollywood blockbuster thriller Through close analysis of several film texts that is informed by feminist theory visual studies critical race studies and the political economy of sex work this book argues that the sex slave has long functioned as a disciplinary spectacle that simultaneously commodifies and punishes female flesh The sex slave is used to sell a libidinal fantasy of rescue not of the trafficked woman or child but of the very economic and social order that exploits them Anti-slavery Monthly Reporter Zachary Macaulay, 1833 British Churches Enslaved and Murdered Black Atlantic Slaves: Contextualization and De-Contextualization of British Slave Trade: 17Th-19Th Century: a Critical Socio-Theological Study DR. R. A. Milwood PhD D.Min., 2014-03-05 British Churches Enslaved and Murdered Black Atlantic Slaves Contextualization De contextualization Marginalization of the Transatlantic Chattel Slave Trade DR Milwood has written this thesis on Contextualization as a companion to his other two books on African Humanity Shaking Foundations A Sociological Theological Psychological Study and Western European and British Barbarity Savagery and Brutality in the Transatlantic Chattel Slave Trade Homologated By The Churches and Intellectuals in the Seventeenth Nineteenth Century These should be read says DR Milwood synoptically in order to fully understand the tremendous impact and significance of the heinous and nefarious slave trade in African bodies The transatlantic chattel slave trade has shaped the world The transatlantic chattel slave trade is the singular system institution that has literally shaped the world economically industrially politically technologically and theologically On this foundation contextualization is supremely significant to the study of the transatlantic chattel slave trade social history systematic theology philosophy of religion historical history and theology The slave trade was not a congenial institution executed by the Royals Churches ie the ministers of religion bishops Archbishops Intellectuals theologians philosophers of religion Quakers Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign parts intellectuals historians and scientists It was rather the most egregious holocaust genocide in mans chronological history The slave trade was motivated by profound cultural racism expressed in psychic distance psychologically by Britain It was a nefarious and nefarious brutal system that defied imagination and rationality DR Milwood has unearthed the historical facts of historical distortions intellectual suppression and historical falsification of facts practiced by Britain who was the pre eminent protagonist in the brutal and profligate enslaved and murdered Black Atlantic slave trade Using the study and tools of social history systematic theology and historical history DR Milwood now recognized how Britain consciously used de contextualization and marginalization techniques to make recondite the profligate ness of the horrendous transatlantic chattel slave trade in African bodies What DR Milwood finds most sardonic is that Britain used semantic cultural Christianity and messed up the biblical and theological concepts of Africans and African descendants On top of this moral crime Britain refused consistently to make Reparations to Africa and the Caribbean for crimes against humanity according to International Laws and Moral Christianity DR Milwood therefore has laid the foundation with historical veritable that the crimes committed by Britain demands an un equivocal apology to black people and full Reparations for the nefarious racial avaricious and brutal crimes committed in the name of a white God and the apparition of a Caucasian Jesus Christ as Redeemer of the World without any historical evidence invented by Britain For DR Milwood contextualization is the hermeneutic cadence force and challenge to Britains de contextualization and marginalization of the greatest holocaust genocide crimes committed against Almighty God and humanity according to International Laws Full Reparation from Britain is the only redemption and means for reconciliation and justice

Pilgrimage Tourism of Diaspora Africans to Ghana Ann Reed, 2014-08-27 Processes of globalization have led to diasporic groups longing for their homelands One such group includes descendants from African ancestors displaced by the trans Atlantic slave trade who may be uncertain about their families exact origins Traveling home often means visiting African sites associated with the slave trade journeys full of expectations The remembrance of the slave trade and pilgrimages to these heritage sites bear resemblance to other diasporic travels that center on trauma identification and redemption Based on over two years of ethnographic fieldwork with both diaspora Africans and Ghanaians this book explores why and how Ghana has been cast as a pilgrimage destination for people of African descent especially African Americans Grounding her research in Ghana s Central Region where slavery heritage tourism and political ideas promoting incorporation into one African family are prominent Reed also discusses the perspectives of ordinary Ghanaians tourism stakeholders and diasporan repatriates Providing ethnographic insight into the transnational networks of people and ideas entangled in Ghana s pilgrimage tourism this book also contributes to better understanding the broader global phenomenon of diasporic travel to homeland centers

Routes of Remembrance Bayo Holsey, 2008-06 Over the past fifteen years visitors from the African diaspora have flocked to Cape Coast and Elmina two towns in Ghana whose chief tourist attractions are the castles and dungeons where slaves were imprisoned before embarking for the New World This desire to commemorate the Middle Passage contrasts sharply with the silence that normally cloaks the subject within Ghana Why do Ghanaians suppress the history of enslavement And why is this history expressed so differently on the other side of the Atlantic Routes of Remembrance tackles these questions by analyzing the slave trade s absence from public versions of coastal Ghanaian family and community histories its troubled presentation in the country s classrooms and nationalist narratives and its elaboration by the transnational tourism industry Bayo Holsey discovers that in the past African involvement in the slave trade was used by Europeans to denigrate local residents and this stigma continues to shape the way Ghanaians imagine their historical past Today however due to international attention and the curiosity of young Ghanaians the slave trade has at last entered the public sphere transforming it from a stigmatizing history to one that holds the potential to contest global inequalities Holsey's study will be crucial to anyone involved in the global debate over how the slave trade endures in history and in memory

Ebony Mask / Ebony Gold Wallace Collins, 2003-03-23 Years ago I met a friend in London I had not seen in many years He posed a very interesting question to me He wanted me to give him a statement on Jomo Kenyatta who was then incarcerated as the leader of the Mau Mau uprising in Kenya Though I did not have an answer for my friend I kept his question in my mind Then years later my wife and I decided to visit Kenya on Safari with friends which I recount here vividly in this book They were like two birds set free hoop the coop flew away from their prison abode caged for decades until February 1990 on that sunny day in Capetown when I saw Nelson Mandela live on CNN Television with his wife Winnie Mandela They strolled through the gates of Robben Island Prison away from 37 years of incarceration by the Apartheid Regime That experience intrigued me enough that my wife and I decided with a group of friends to visit South Africa and see what would happen to us as a group of African Americans it was while there that I touched yellow Ebony Gold as detailed in my book Anti-slavery Songs, 1849 In Winter's Eye Wallace Collins, 2001-03-07 My endeavor here is to validate and document In Winter's Eye what causes me to reflect and try to recapture in retrospect my experiences events propelled then by my pervasive apprehension of frost This symbolic cold weather chills me to the bone In Winter's Eye which has now resurfaced in this brooding but stark and detail reality Yet though the metaphorical winter weather doesn't bother me that much anymore but when I accidentally get onto that slippery patch of racial black ice that camouflages the asphalt Thruway as passable then it would hit on my wheels and send me careening into a chaotic irrational verbal spin My meeting with that icy patch on life's roadway to somewhere or nowhere for that matter freewheels my sense of direction as it throws me off my intended course of normal human progress after which I would struggle to maintain control of myself and the vehicle of my life I am driving down the road if not to somewhere in the future but to obliterate the past where my wheels would swerve and skid helter skelter luckily into the shoulder of the Thruway for my ultimate survival It became a necessity for me then after meeting head on the pronounced differences intoned by the assonant and dissonant sounds that racial preference plays out with acrimony compared with the personal autonomy of my parent culture and the restrictions based on race in another's My endeavor to be accepted by my peers saw me struggle to adapt and to assimilate the new culture I enter of which I wrote about In Winter's Eye or simply to remain not just as an entity but preferably that of a functional individual as in the following It is in such an ethnic arena that one jazz dances to the subtle tempo from the racial nuances as one tries to keep time to that unique racial beat sufficient to make one assess one's common experiences with others keeping in mind meanwhile how it was in the countries I lived and traveled over the years In the fall of 1967 it was not a dream I had awakened from and found myself living a life akin to that of a spectator perched on a ledge in the balcony gawking at the happenings taking place below in the arena My consciousness held sway as I ogled at the vibrant milieu of racial politics happening then in my New York I was not dreaming either when I found myself living in an apartment in Corona Queens as it was my natural evolvment within the trajectory of my migratory path to the Big Apple Neither was I having an out of body experience that spirited me from Jamaica to London then whisked me off to Toronto on a tidal wave and finally being carried aloft by a big silver bird that landed me in the New York slab dab in the middle of the Civil Rights struggle It was a vast struggle then and remains so today though on a higher level as still a living breathing a phenomenon that in the 1960 s had elicited a mad rush of water to ooze from fire hoses manned by assiduous if not sadistic law and order protagonists that swept their fellow American brethren off their feet and tossed them several yards from the offending fray

World Heritage, Tourism and Identity

Laurent Bourdeau, Maria Gravari-Barbas, 2016-03-09 The remarkable success of the 1972 UNESCO Convention Concerning the Protection of World Cultural and Natural Heritage is borne out by the fact that nearly 1 000 properties have now been designated as possessing Outstanding Universal Value and recognition given to the imperative for their protection However the remarkable success of the Convention is not without its challenges and a key issue for many Sites relates to the touristic legacies of inscription For many sites inscription on the World Heritage List acts as a promotional device and the management challenge is one of protection conservation and dealing with increased numbers of tourists For other sites designation has not brought anticipated expansion in tourist numbers and associated investments What is clear is that tourism is now a central concern to the wide array of stakeholders involved with World Heritage Sites

The Spirit of Our Work Cynthia B. Dillard, 2021-11-16 An exploration of how engaging identity and cultural heritage can transform teaching and learning for Black women educators in the name of justice and freedom in the classroom In The Spirit of Our Work Dr Cynthia Dillard centers the spiritual lives of Black women educators and their students arguing that spirituality has guided Black people throughout the diaspora She demonstrates how Black women teachers and teacher educators can heal resist and re member their identities in ways that are empowering for them and their students Dillard emphasizes that any discussion of Black teachers lives and work cannot be limited to truncated identities as enslaved persons in the Americas The Spirit of Our Work addresses questions that remain largely invisible in what is known about teaching and teacher education According to Dillard this invisibility renders the powerful approaches to Black education that are imbodyed and marshaled by Black women teachers unknown and largely unavailable to inform policy practice and theory in education The Spirit of Our Work highlights how the intersectional identities of Black women teachers matter in teaching and learning and how educational settings might more carefully and conscientiously curate structures of support that pay explicit and necessary attention to spirituality as a crucial consideration

Slavery Illustrated in Its Effects Upon Woman and Domestic Society

George Bourne,1837 Policing Freedom Martine Jean,2023-08-17 Policing Freedom uses the case study of Brazil's first penitentiary the Casa de Correio to explore how the Brazilian government used incarceration and enforced labor to control the prison population during the foundational period of Brazilian state formation and postcolonial nation building Placing this penitentiary within the global debates about the disciplinary benefits of confinement and the evolution of free labor ideology Martine Jean illustrates how Brazil's political elites envisioned the penitentiary as a way to discipline the free working class While participating in the debates about the inhumanity of the slave trade philanthropists and lawmakers both conservative and liberal articulated a nation building discourse that focused on reforming Brazil's vagrants into workers in anticipation of slavery's eventual demise laying the racialized foundations for policing and incarceration in the post emancipation period

The Secret Weapon of Africa Yao Foli Modey,2014-08-13 It was in the middle of the harmattan season and the weather was hot and humid The scorching rays of the sun had sucked the moisture out of every plant in the land and had turned the green leaves into dark yellow in color Many of the leaves had fallen to the ground and had begun to decompose into dark loamy soil rich fertile land innocent and untouched And that was the way it was in ancient times That was the way it was until the Oburoni slave traders arrived on the continent and changed everything imposing their greed and guns on the inhabitants The dry humid air left many people panting for breath and sweating profusely The women complained bitterly the children suppressed their discomfort but the men simply ignored the weather because they had bigger problems on their minds They had been thinking about the death and the devastation that the Oburoni intruders these uninvited aliens had unleashed on the land Pushing to the Front Orison Swett Marden,1896 Pushing to the Front, Or, Success Under Difficulties

Orison Swett Marden,1896 Liturgical-Missional Neal D. The Popes, the Catholic Church and the Transatlantic Enslavement of Black Africans 1418-1839 Pius Onyemechi Adiele,2017-09-01 Mehr als 400 Jahre lang erlitten schwarzafrikanische Männer Frauen und Kinder während des transatlantischen Sklavenhandels schlimmste Formen der Versklavung und Erniedrigung durch Katholiken und das westliche Christentum Damals wie heute glaubte niemand an die tiefe Verwicklung der Kirche und des Papsttums in den schwarzafrikanischen Holocaust Trotz jüngster Behauptungen des päpstlichen Officiums in Rom wonach die Päpste jegliche

Form von Sklaverei verurteilten so auch im Falle der Versklavung von Schwarzafrikanern verweisen neuere Studien innerhalb dieses Forschungsfeldes auf das Gegenteil Die Kirche und die Ppste nahmen vielmehr zentrale Rollen in diesem schlimmsten Verbrechen gegen die Schwarzafrikaner seit Beginn der schriftlichen Dokumentation ein Mithilfe zahlreicher papstlicher Bullen aus den Geheimarchiven des Vatikans und einer Vielzahl an k niglichen Dokumenten aus dem portugiesischen Nationalarchiv in Lissabon strebt der vorliegende Band eine kritische und analytische Untersuchung dieses Aspekts des transatlantischen Sklavenhandels an der ber so viele Jahre von den westlichen Historikern und Gelehrten verschleiert wurde For over 400 years Black African men women and children suffered the worst type of enslavement and humiliation from the hands of Catholics and other Western Christians during the transatlantic slave trade Before now no one could ever believe that the Popes of the Church were deeply involved in this Holocaust against Black African people Despite the claims made by the hallowed papal office in Rome in recent years that the Popes condemned the enslavement of peoples wherever it existed including that of Black Africans recent researches in these fields of study have proved the contrary to be true The Church and her Popes were rather among the major role players in this worst crime against Black Africans in recorded history With the help of a considerable number of papal Bulls from the Vatican Secret Archives and a great amount of Royal documents from the Portuguese National Archives in Lisbon the present book is aiming to undertake a critical and analytical inquiry of this aspect of the transatlantic slavery that has been kept in the dark for so many years by the Western historians and scholars The results of this studious but fruitful academic inquiry are laid bare in this notable work of the 21st century Pius Onyemechi Adiele is a Catholic priest of Ahiara Diocese Mbaise and an alumnus of Seat of Wisdom Seminary Owerri and Bigard Memorial Seminary Enugu in Nigeria He obtained his licentiate in Theology from the famous University of M nster and his doctoral degree in Church History from the renowned University of T bingen in Germany At present he is a research fellow in the areas of African Church History and Enslavement of peoples as well as the pastor in charge of the merged parishes of Lauchheim Westhausen Lippach R ttingen and H len in Germany
