To Preach the Truth Schubert M. Ogden, 2015-01-09 But will it preach The only good answer to this question often asked about a Christian theology is to preach it which is to say to preach according to it to what it indicates reflectively and critically valid Christian preaching ought to be This volume of selected sermons and homilies documents a career long attempt to do exactly that Concerned at once to be faithful to the Christian witness and to speak intelligibly and credibly to women and men here and now it represents the way of preaching and so directly calling for a Christian commitment that is of a piece with the distinctive way of doing Christian theology set forth and argued for in Schubert Ogden's other books and articles This is why each sermon or homily seeks so to interpret its scriptural text as to bring out its existential meaning for understanding ourselves and leading our lives as human beings today It is also why each of them in its way directly puts the question of decision raised by Christian faith Thus together with its companion volume To Teach the Truth this book offers a model for bearing witness to the truth as Christians understand it

Every Believer a Disciple! David E. Bjork, 2015-06-14 The growth of Christianity in recent decades has been remarkable but has it been growth with depth Are our communities of faith our churches creating and nurturing deeply committed followers of Jesus This book was born out of the realization that churches throughout the world despite their numerous evangelization and spiritual development activities are struggling to produce true disciples of Jesus How can we explain why so many of us in our churches are so unlike Jesus in the way we think and act What can we change in our understanding and practices to facilitate life transformation and spiritual multiplication And as Christians what are we called to do In answering these questions the author proposes an alternative ecclesial and missional paradigm that will enable us to better equip and mobilize believers in the mission that Christ gave to his disciples and gives to us all to make disciples
