

Who is your hero essay

Who is your hero? Is such a simple question that is able to reveal so much about an individual as it is hard to put into words the importance of heroes. If one's hero is Tom Brady that person most likely values competition, entertainment, and awards. As Tom Brady, exemplifies uber-competitive nature, is one of the leading faces in American entertainment, and can go on and on about his astonishing list of awards and accomplishments. However, if one is to say their hero is world-renowned controversial artist Banksy, That person may value the arts, staying true to oneself no matter the pressure from others.

Unfortunately today the market for a hero has become extremely over saturated as people tend to toss around the term 'hero' too often. The term hero originates from ancient Greece, a hero in ancient Greece was a mortal being who was able to carry out acts that seem to be unfathomable for a human to do, leaving an everlasting memory of a said hero(Labarge 1). In "Heroism: Why Heroes are Important" by Scott LaBarge the argument being made is that everyone NEEDS a hero. LaBarge is able to effectively conduct his argument by appealing to both ones emotions by showing how heroes can increase what one believes he or she can achieve, while also appealing to the ethics of individual by explaining that the right hero can help guide one to live a life by set ideas and principles that one should live by (Labarge 1). Going beyond persuasive appeals, Labarge uses several rhetorical strategies such as when he uses exemplification to show how a hero has affected him.

Appealing to one's character one way in which authors attempt to convey an argument. Labarge is able to effectively demonstrate how the ethics and character of certain heroes are able to influence others for the good or the bad. Unfortunately, by definition, not all heros are good, one can become a hero by "[committing] unthinkable crimes" that were so awful history remembers that person forever(Labarge 1). The same way in which Mother Theresa may inspire one to a life caring for others, a gangster rapper can influence a kid to want to become a drug-dealing pimp (Labarge 2). Having an honorable hero that one looks up to constantly for guidance in life is able to help one without ever having personal interactions.

LaBarge proposes the question to the audience of "who our own heroes are and what they represent for us"(Labarge 1), and to be constantly asking yourself if you are living your life to the values your hero represents. Without a hero, one is not able to have any base for ethical principles one should adhere to. With an immoral hero, one looks up a person that can possibly influence one to start to commit immoral acts. All the negativity and hate that is constantly being spewed all over American media it is more important than ever for people to have a hero or heroes to look up too.

Labarge starts off his article by giving a personal example of
