Whose Cosmopolitanism Critical Perspectives Relationalities And Discontents:

Whose Cosmopolitanism? Nina Glick Schiller, Andrew Irving, 2017-05 The term cosmopolitan is increasingly used within different social cultural and political settings including academia popular media and national politics However those who invoke the cosmopolitan project rarely ask whose experience understanding or vision of cosmopolitanism is being described and for whose purposes In response this volume assembles contributors from different disciplines and theoretical backgrounds to examine cosmopolitanism s possibilities aspirations and applications as well as its tensions contradictions and discontents so as to offer a critical commentary on the vital but often neglected question whose cosmopolitanism The book investigates when where and how cosmopolitanism emerges as a contemporary social process global aspiration or emancipatory political project and asks whether it can serve as a political or methodological framework for action in a world of conflict and difference

Cosmopolitanism and the Enlightenment Joan-Pau Rubiés, Neil Safier, 2023-03-23 As we face new global challenges from climate change to the international political order the need to re examine the historical roots of cosmopolitanism and liberal principles on a global scale has become increasingly central to the political conversation Cosmopolitanism and the Enlightenment brings together leading scholars in cultural history the history of ideas and global politics in order to reassess the complexity of cosmopolitanism during the Enlightenment and its various interpretations over time Through a fresh and revisionist perspective the volume explores issues of universalism and cultural diversity the idea of civilization race gender empire colonialism global inequality national patriotism international and civil conflict and other forms of political discourse challenging the simple negative stereotype that the Enlightenment was inevitably hierarchical and Eurocentric This timely intervention into the debate about the legacy of the Enlightenment highlights both the plurality and the continuing relevance of Enlightened cosmopolitanism to contemporary global concerns

Searching for Japan Michele Monserrati, 2020 This book pursues the specific case of Italian travel narratives in the Far East through a focus on the experience of Japan in works by writers who visited the Land of the Rising Sun beginning in the Meiji period 1868 1912 and during the concomitant opening of Japan s relations with the West Drawing from the fields of Postcolonial and Transnational Studies analysis of these texts explores one central question what does it mean to imagine Japanese culture as contributing to Italian culture Each author shares in common an attempt to disrupt ideas about dichotomies and unbalanced power relationships between East and West Proposing the notion of relational Orientalism this book suggests that Italian travelogues to Japan in many cases pursued the goal of building imaginary transnational communities predicated on commonalities and integration by claiming what they perceived as Oriental as their own In contrast with a long history of Western representations of Japan as inferior and irrational Searching for Japan identifies a positive overarching attitude toward the Far East country in modern Italian culture Expanding the horizon of Italian transnational networks normally situated within the Southern European region this book reinstates the existence of an alternative Euro Asian axis operating across Italian history Cosmopolitan Aspirations in Contemporary Cinema María del Mar Azcona, Julia Echeverría, Pablo Gómez-Muñoz, 2024-12-16 This book presents cosmopolitanism as a useful methodological approach to understand the transnational synergies present in contemporary cinema In line with existing literature from the social sciences the volume aims to contribute to the cosmopolitan turn in cinema studies It considers cosmopolitanism as among others a personal and social aspiration of social justice world citizenship and celebration of difference a notion to be criticised as elitist Western often imperialist and homogenising and an actually existing social practice characterised by contradiction messiness and conflict The chapters in this volume offer insights into the variety of sometimes contradictory discourses that arise from a cosmopolitan interpretation of a wide variety of film texts Key topics explored in this book include borders im mobilities migration race class and film aesthetics This book will be particularly useful to film studies scholars and students looking at transnational global world and decolonial cinemas and focusing on topics like borders migration and multiculturalism in film This book will also appeal to academic communities studying media literature mobilities geopolitics sociology and the social sciences in general The Cambridge Companion to World Literature Ben Etherington, Jarad Zimble, 2018-11-22 This Companion presents lucid and exemplary critical essays introducing readers to the major ideas and practices of world literary studies The Routledge Companion to Ethics, Politics and Organizations Alison Pullen, Carl Rhodes, 2015-06-05 The Routledge Companion to Ethics Politics and Organizations synthesizes and extends existing research on ethics in organizations by explicitly focusing on ethico politics where ethics informs political action It draws connections between ethics and politics in and around organizations and the workplace examines cutting edge areas and sets the scene for future research Through a wealth of international and multidisciplinary contributions this volume considers the broad range of ways in which ethics and politics can be conceived and understood The chapters look at various ethical traditions as well as the discursive deployment of ethical terminology in organizational settings and they also examine large scale political structures and processes and how they relate to different forms of politics which affect behaviour in organizations These many possibilities are united by a focus on how ethics can be used to inform and justify the exercise of power in organizations This collection will be a valuable reference source for students and researchers across the disciplines of organizational studies ethics and politics Critical Approaches Toward a Cosmopolitan Education Sandra R. Schecter, Carl E. James, 2021-08-29 This book aims to reconceptualize teaching and learning in spaces with diverse populations of young people Chapters focus on the schooling experiences and social and cultural adaptation issues of individuals who through the meaning that they assign to their lived experiences ascribe to multiple identity qualifiers Contributors explore the impact of this cosmopolitan awareness on students educators and educational institutions presenting issues such as curricular concerns around civic engagement individual subjectivity versus social identity and the convergence of context specific policy and teaching environments on global dynamics in education reform An emphasis on this understanding promises to better equip educators and policy makers to plan instructional approaches and devise pedagogic resources that serve the needs and career aspirations of an expanding cohort of multifaceted learners In-Between Worlds Sukanya Chakrabarti, 2022-11-25

This book examines the performance of Bauls folk performers from Bengal in the context of a rapidly globalizing Indian economy and against the backdrop of extreme nationalistic discourses Recognizing their scope beyond the musical and cultural realm Sukanya Chakrabarti engages in discussing the subversive and transformational potency of Bauls and their performances In Between Worlds argues that the Bauls through their musical spiritual and cultural performances offer joy and spirituality thus making space for what Dr Ambedkar in his famous 1942 speech had identified as reclamation of human personality Chakrabarti destabilizes the category of folk as a fixed classification or an origin point and fractures homogeneous historical representations of the Baul as a folk performer and a wandering mendicant exposing the complex heterogeneity that characterizes this group Establishing folk ness as a performance category and folk festivals as sites of performing folk ness contributing to a heritage industry that thrives on imagined and recreated nostalgia Chakrabarti examines different sites that produce varied performative identities of Bauls probing the limits of such categories while simultaneously advocating for polyvocality and multifocality While this project has grounded itself firmly in performance studies it has borrowed extensively from fields of postcolonial studies and subaltern histories literature ethnography and ethnomusicology and cosmopolitan studies On the move Aitor Ibarrola-Armendariz, Jon Ortiz de Urbina

Arruabarrena, 2016-07-29 This volume brings together a selection of the papers and round tables delivered at the 39th AEDEAN Conference held at the University of Deusto in November 2015 The essays in On the Move Glancing Backwards to Build a Future in English Studies often begin with typically academic gestures such as retrieving a classic text and finding new ways of studying its genre or characterization or remarking how certain ungrammatical constructions have gone frequently unnoticed even in well known texts for various reasons or entangling oneself in contentions about the adequacy of dissecting a literary text or linguistic problem by using innovative analytical tools In all cases though there is the intention of putting forth certain views and notions that will help future scholars to deal in a better light with the dilemmas regularly encountered in literary linguistic and cultural studies The book opens with three essays by professors Bartholomae Pullum and R o who demonstrate not only their mastery in their respective subjects but also their ability to tailor their contents to multifarious audiences The next two sections represent the main body of the e book with nearly forty contributions on both literature and cultural studies Part II and language and linguistics Part III These short academic pieces are a representative showcase of the research being done lately in the different areas of expertise The last section of the volume gathers together the results of four research projects dealing with such engaging topics as postcolonial crime fiction or forgotten texts by Anglo writers about the Spanish Civil War It is hard to think of any potential reader schooled in English Studies who will not find something suitable to their interests and tastes in this volume Transnationalities of Migrant Moral Economies in a

Transforming World Vytis Čiubrinskas, Nina Glick Schiller, 2025-04-01 People who are on the move often occupy a state of betwixt and between in which moral and economic value is subject to change This enlightening and geographically wide ranging reassessment of migrant moral economies Transnationalities of Migrant Moral Economies in a Transforming World delineates migrants reciprocity responsibility and dignity as they respond to and contest unequal political and economic power In doing so this volume examines the transformative potential of transnational mobility to create social networks and to sustain reciprocity capable of resisting contemporary authoritarian efforts to sacralize borders and dehumanize migrants

Not the Troubles Karen Lane, 2025-07-01 Belfast is often analysed as a divided society anchored in ethno politico religious differences amid a long history of conflict However shifting the focus of academic attention reveals a range of alternative narratives of city life Using storytelling as a leitmotif this ethnographic account explores the epistemological validity of engaging with strangers in a range of settings such as street corners a hairdresser s and a storytelling evening It considers how creative writers represent life in Belfast The author employs a variety of methods including a dog as a research assistant and storytelling on location which demonstrates how people can re shape and re narrate life in Belfast

Migration, Urbanity and Cosmopolitanism in a Globalized World Catherine Lejeune, Delphine Pagès-El Karoui, Camille Schmoll, Hélène Thiollot, 2021-05-10 This open access book draws a theoretically productive triangle between urban studies theories of cosmopolitanism and migration studies in a global context It provides a unique encompassing and situated view on the various relations between cosmopolitanism and urbanity in the contemporary world Drawing on a variety of cities in Latin America Europe Asia Africa and North America it overcomes the Eurocentric bias that has marked debate on cosmopolitanism from its inception The contributions highlight the crucial role of migrants as actors of urban change and targets of urban policies thus reconciling empirical and normative approaches to cosmopolitanism By addressing issues such as cosmopolitanism and urban geographies of power locations and temporalities of subaltern cosmopolites political meanings and effects of cosmopolitan practices and discourses in urban contexts it revisits contemporary debates on superdiversity urban stratification and local incorporation and assess the role of migration and mobility in globalization and social change

The Cambridge Companion to British Fiction: 1980-2018 Peter Boxall, 2019-06-27 Gives a comprehensive critical picture of the development of British fiction from the election of Thatcher to the present Before Sunrise María del Mar Azcona, Celestino Deleyto, 2023-06-12 This book offers a fresh analysis of Before Sunrise that reframes its romance within the contexts of transnational culture and cinema The book highlights the symbolic value of the film s construction of transnational youth in the building of a trans European culture Engaging with the film s critical history this book focuses on its specific view of youth and young love Before Sunrise Young Love on the Move examines young love within the cultural context of the 1990s in the US and its links with Generation X and the slacker culture Within a wider scope it also looks at the history and theory of romantic comedy and its connections with independent cinema In considering the film a transnational text this analysis underlines the parallels between a narrative of young love at the end of the 20th century and the construction of a young or rejuvenated Europe Before Sunrise Young Love on the Move provides an invaluable insight into this beloved film for students and researchers in film studies transnational cinema and youth culture Conviviality at the Crossroads Oscar Hemer, Maja Povrzanović Frykman, Per-Markku Ristilampi, 2019-11-25 Conviviality has lately become a catchword not only in academia but also among political activists This open access book discusses conviviality in relation to the adjoining concepts cosmopolitanism and creolisation The urgency of today's global predicament is not only an argument for the revival of all three concepts but also a reason to bring them into dialogue Ivan Illich envisioned a post industrial convivial society of autonomous individuals and primary groups Illich 1973 which resembles present day manifestations of convivialism Paul Gilroy refashioned conviviality as a substitute for cosmopolitanism denoting an ability to be at ease in contexts of diversity Gilroy 2004 Rather than replacing one concept with the other the fourteen contributors to this book seek to explore the interconnections commonalities and differences between them suggesting that creolisation is a necessary complement to the already intertwined concepts of conviviality and cosmopolitanism Although this volume takes northern Europe as its focus the contributors take care to put each situation in historical and global contexts in the interests of moving beyond the binary thinking that prevails in terms of methodologies analytical concepts and political implementations The Matter of Evil Drew M. Dalton, 2023-10-15 A provocative and entirely new account of ethical reasoning that reconceives the traditional understanding of ethical action negatively In this radical reconsideration of ethical reasoning in contemporary European philosophy Drew M Dalton makes the case for an absolutely grounded account of ethical normativity developed from a scientifically informed and purely materialistic metaphysics Expanding on speculative realist arguments Dalton argues that the limits placed on the nature of ethical judgments by Kant's critique can be overcome through a moral evaluation of the laws of nature specifically the entropic principle that undergirds the laws of physics chemistry and biology In order to extract a moral meaning from this simple material fact Dalton scrutinizes the presumptions of classical accounts and traditional understandings of good and evil within the history of Western philosophy and ultimately asserts that ethical normativity can be reestablished absolutely without reverting to dogmatism By overturning our assumptions about the nature and value of reality The Matter of Evil From Speculative Realism to Ethical Pessimism presents a provocative new model of ethical responsibility that is both logically justifiable and scientifically sound Dalton argues for ethical pessimism a position previously marginalized in the West as a means to cultivate an account of ethical responsibility and political activism that takes seriously the unbecoming of being and the moral horror of existence Jews and Poles in the Holocaust Exhibitions of Kraków, 1980-2013 Janek Gryta, 2020-02-27 This book offers a unique approach to memory studies by focusing on local memory work conducted across the divide of the fall of Communism whereas other histories have consistently used 1989 as a watershed moment By examining the ways in which the Holocaust has been exhibited in Kraków

it investigates the impact local memory work has had on Polish collective memory and problematizes the importance of the fall of Communism for memory work Using the Polish case study it contributes to international debates on the nature of urban memory It brings to the fore the role of mid ranking governmental and municipal activists for local remembrance investigates the relationship between the form and the content of the exhibitions and highlights the importance of authenticity and emotional evocations for Holocaust remembrance In particular it focuses on the emergence of cosmopolitan memory of the Holocaust a process with local Krak w sources Stories from a migrant city Ben Rogaly,2020-03-24 Taking a biographical approach the book explores the causes and consequences of moving or staying put in the context of class inequality and racisms and looks for commonalities between people often seen as irredeemably divided Student Mobilities and International Education in Asia Ravinder K. Sidhu,Ho Kong Chong,Brenda S. A. Yeoh,2019-09-21 This book investigates why students choose to study in key Asian cities and how this trend relates to the strategic intent of states and universities to build knowledge economies and world class profiles Drawing on substantial theoretical and empirical research the authors examine the emotional geographies of East Asian international education and offer new analytical insights into the relations between emotions nation and subjectivity The book challenges Eurocentric views of Asia as a space of volatile nationalist rivalries By offering richly textured portraits of mobile students it questions contemporary memes about the utility maximising Asian learner This is a thought provoking text that will appeal to university researchers academics and students interested in the changing architectures of international education Tenement Nation Christa Ballard Tooley,2023-06-06 Around the world blue collar politics have become associated with resistance to the multicultural While this may also be true in Edinburgh Scotland a closer look reveals the growth of liberal democratic ideals in the working class population which has a much different goal How can this European city keep the entrepreneurial forces of globalization from commodifying what is distinctly theirs In Tenement Nation Christa Ballard Tooley explores the battle for a neighborhood called the Canongate in Edinburgh s Old Town Tooley s insightful study of the working class Canongate community as they negotiate gentrification plans offers a complex view of class and nation The threat of the Canongate s redevelopment motivated many throughout Edinburgh to lend their support to the residents campaign Against such development projects alliances formed between upper class heritage supporters and working class urban residents all of whom turned to institutions such as the European Union and UNESCO for support in restricting commercial development Tenement Nation explores these negotiations between socioeconomic classes and even nationalities to show what Tooley calls a working class cosmopolitanism in pursuit of social economic and political inclusion
