Love, Desire and Transcendence in French Literature Paul Gifford,2016-12-05 European literature and theory of the twentieth century have been intensely preoccupied with questions of Desire whereas love has increasingly represented a fractured and strange if not actually suspect proposal this is a prime symptom of an age of deep cultural mutation and uncertainty Paul Gifford s book allows this considerable contemporary phenomenon to be observed steadily and whole with strategic understanding of its origins nature and meaning Gifford paints a clear and coherent picture of the evolution of erotic ideas and their imaginary and formal expressions in modern French writing He first retraces the formative matrix of French tradition by engaging with five classic sources Plato s Symposium the Song of Songs the myth of Genesis the tension between Greek Eros and Christian Agape and the repercussions of Nietzsche s declaration of the death of God Modern variations on these perennial problematics are then pursued in ten chapters devoted to Proust Val ry Claudel Breton Bataille Duras Barthes Irigaray Emmanuel Kristeva Literary and theoretical perspectives are perfectly blended in his study of these attempts at deciphering Eros The book will appeal not only to students of French literature but to all those interested in the cultural upheavals of the twentieth century

States of Desire Vicki Mahaffey,1998 States of Desire argues that what people desire is fundamentally connected to how they write and read Not only do language and narrative shape desire and vice versa but because these processes are socially conditioned some political circumstances such as those present in Ireland at the turn of the century foster experimental desire more successfully than others Mahaffey s contribution to the critical discourse on literary modernism is to assign a political motive to the art of modernist wordplay in doing so she offers a more compelling and socially driven version of the oft told tale of literary modernism From C to C Dr. Richard Kimball,2015-01-31 This book is an overall memoir about the life of Dr Richard Kimball It mainly covers his ten years in Africa from 1961 to 2011 but also includes the time in his life from 1939 to the present Dr Kimball has traveled all over the world to 103 countries and has worked in many of them Horror Darryl Jones,2021 Fear is one of the most primal emotions and one of the hardest to reason with and dispel So why do we scare ourselves Delving into the darkest corners of horror literature films and plays Darryl Jones explores its monsters and its psychological chills discussing why horror stories disturb us and how they reflect society s taboos Dialectic of Enlightenment Max Horkheimer,Theodor Adorno,2016-09-06 Theodor Adorno and Max Horkheimer
