French Enlightenment Anna Maria Marchini, 2022-07-28 This volume deals with philosophical scientific and ideological images of women during the French Enlightenment examining their emergence in the reflections of the philosophes in Catholic morality in biological and medical knowledge in novels in periodicals and in the law Alongside the appeals for social and intellectual emancipation advanced by the femmes savantes typical of the eighteenth century salons a new conception pertaining to women's social role related to the affirmation of the bourgeoisie and of its model of the family took place Codified in a more complex and organized way within the Rousseauian philosophy this new conception spread in various cultural debates gaining a real hegemony women were meant to be excluded from any public space devoid of cultural aspirations and only devoted to satisfying the needs of the family The book adopts a multidisciplinary interdisciplinary and synthetic approach and at the same time highlights the roots of some fundamental ways of considering women that are still active in present day society It also addresses researchers in the history of philosophy sociology literature and gender studies and readers with an interest in women's issues

Japan's Frames of Meaning Michael F. Marra, 2010-10-31 In Japan's Frames of Meaning Michael Marra identifies interpretative concepts central to discussions of hermeneutical practices in Japan and presents English translations of works on basic hermeneutics by major Japanese thinkers Discussions of Japanese thought tend to be centered on key Western terms in light of which Japanese texts are examined alternatively a few Buddhist concepts are presented as counterparts of these Western terms Marra concentrates on Japanese philosophers and thinkers who have mediated these two extremes bringing their knowledge of Western thought to bear on philosophical reinterpretations of Buddhist terms that are thus presented in secularized form Marra focuses on categories relevant to the development of a history of Japanese hermeneutics calling attention to concepts whose discussion sheds light on how Japanese thinkers have proceeded in making sense of their own culture. The terms are organized under three headings. The first deals with koto which in Japanese means both things and words. Koto is the center of a series of interesting compounds such as kotodama the spirit of words and makoto truth that have shaped Japanese discourses on philosophy ethics aesthetics and religion. Writings on koto by twentieth century philosophers Watsuji Tetsuro 1889 1960 and Omori Shozo 1921 1997 and Edo period scholar Fujitani Mitsue 1768 1823 are included. The second heading is dedicated to two well known aesthetic categories yugen and sabi which point to notions of depth in physical space as well as in the space of interiority. The University of Kyoto aesthete Ueda Juzo 1886 1973 guides the reader through a history of these concepts. In the third part of the book notions of time in the form of ku emptiness and guzen contingency are examined through the work of Ueda's colleagues at Kyoto Nishitani Keiji 1900 1990 and Kuki Shuzo 1888 1941. Perceptive and erudite Japan's Frames of Meaning will become a landmark resource in particular for the insights and provocations it offers to contemporary cross cultural philosophical dialogue for anyone interested in traditional and modern Japanese thought. Good People Bad Marriages Revised Estuary Publishing, 2008-07 How to be German in 50 easy steps Adam Fletcher, 2023-11-02 With his first book Adam Fletcher helped more than a hundred thousand locals and little Aussies navigate the quirks of this charismatic land. Now he's back with fifty new and advanced integration steps that explain the sticky friendship glue of Kaffee and Kuchen the educational superiority of wood and the rituals of the German Weihnachtsmarkt. You'll learn how to blame the weather for most of your ailments how to survive a visit to your local Baumarkt why Germans take their kitchen when they move and why you keep losing to them at table football. Adam Fletcher's book is the ultimate irreverent love letter to a nation that has got so under his skin. Dandyism and Transcultural Modernity Hsiao-yen Peng, 2015-01-28 This book views the Neo Sensation mode of writing as a traveling genre or style that originated in France moved on to Japan and then to China. The author contends that modernity is possible only on the transcultural site transcultural in the sense of breaking the divide between past and present elite and popular national and regional male and female literary and non literary inside and outside. To illustrate the concept of transcultural modernity three icons are highlighted on the transcultural site the dandy the flaneur and the translator. Mere flaneurs and flaneuses simply float with the tide of heterogeneous information on the transcultural site whereas the dandy flaneur and the cultural translator propellers of modernity manage to bring about transformative creation. Their performance marks the essence of transcultural modernity the self consciousness of working on the threshold always testing the limits of boundaries and tempted to go beyond them. To develop the concept of dandyism the quintessence of transcultural modernity the Neo Sensation gender triad formed by the dandy the modern girl and the modern boy is laid out. Writers discussed include Liu Naou a Shanghai dandy par excellence from Taiwan Paul Morand who looked upon Coco Chanel the female dandy as his perfect other self and Yokomitsu Riichi who developed the theory of Neo Sensation from Kant's the thing in itself Award Today's
