Heart of Darkness Joseph Conrad, 2018-09-27 A newly edited and richly annotated version of Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness now considered a classic of early modernism

Jewish Writers of Latin America Darrell B. Lockhart, 2013-08-21 Jewish writing has only recently begun to be recognized as a major cultural phenomenon in Latin American literature. Nevertheless, the majority of students and even Latin American literary specialists remain uninformed about this significant body of writing. This Dictionary is the first comprehensive bibliographical and critical source book on Latin American Jewish literature. It represents the research efforts of 50 scholars from the United States, Latin America, and Israel who are dedicated to the advancement of Latin American Jewish studies. An introduction by the editor is followed by entries on 118 authors that provide both biographical information and a critical summary of works. Argentina, Brazil, and Mexico home to the largest Jewish communities in Latin America are the countries with the greatest representation, but there are essays on writers from Venezuela, Chile, Uruguay, Peru, Colombia, Costa Rica, and Cuba.

The French in the Heart of America John Finley, 1999-03-31 This tribute, passionate and earnest to France, outlines the impact of French colonization on American national consciousness. The New York Times: The French pioneers in America left a lasting impact on the vitality and democratic ideals of the present-day United States. Through this collection of chapters originally penned as lectures for French audiences, Finley hints that the French more than the English played an instrumental role in the development of the American national identity and industries. The narrative spans the sixteenth through the twentieth centuries and retraces French pioneers' journeys through the inner waterways of America from the St. Lawrence River Valley to the Gulf of Mexico. A tribute to the French, this work conveys a sense of heritage to those contemporary inhabitants of what was once New France. The first French pioneers, including Cartier, Champlain, Brebeuf, and La Salle, forged delicate relationships with the land, valleys, and rivers of the newly discovered North American continent. Though their nations' tie to America ended officially when France sold all of her holdings in 1803, the spirit of their labor lives on. French ideals survived in the political foundations of America. The first trade systems developed by the French blossomed into the industrial belt of the Mississippi Valley and the Great Lakes region. The equalities, freedoms, and fraternities of the frontier first settled by the French became the political priorities of the American nation      The Routledge Handbook of Literature and Space Robert Tally Jr.,2017-01-06 The spatial turn in literary studies is transforming the way we think of the field The Routledge Handbook of Literature and Space maps the key areas of spatiality within literary studies offering a comprehensive overview but also pointing towards new and exciting directions of study The interdisciplinary and global approach provides a thorough introduction and includes thirty two essays on topics such as Spatial theory and practice Critical methodologies Work sites Cities and the geography of urban experience Maps territories readings The contributors to this volume demonstrate how a variety of romantic realist modernist and postmodernist narratives represent the changing social spaces of their world and of our own world system today      Middle Eastern Television Drama Christa Salamandra,Nour Halabi,2023-06-21 This monograph explores and investigates key issues facing Middle Eastern societies including religion and sectarianism history and collective memory urban space and socioeconomic difference policing and securitization and gender relations In the Middle East television drama creators serve as public intellectuals who with uncanny prescience tell the world something As this volume demonstrates fictional television provides a crucial space for social and political debate in much of the region Writing from a range disciplines anthropology communication folklore gender studies history and law contributors include seasoned academics who have dedicated their careers to researching Middle Eastern media and emerging scholars who build on earlier work and introduce fresh perspectives Together they provide an invaluable overview of Middle Eastern serial television and their political impact drawing examples from Afghanistan Egypt Iran Syria and Turkey Bringing together a diverse range of academic perspectives this book will be of key interest to students and scholars in media and communication studies Middle Eastern Studies and popular culture studies      Passionate Fictions Marta Peixoto,1994 Passionate Fictions was first published in 1994 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Clarice Lispector is the premiere Latin American woman prose writer of this century Suzanne Ruta noted in the New York Times Book Review but because she is a woman and a Brazilian she has remained virtually unknown in the United States Passionate Fictions provides American readers with a critical introduction to this remarkable writer and offers those who already know Lispector's fiction a deeper understanding of its complex workings      Writing by Ear Marilia Librandi,2018-07-03 Writing by Ear examines the explicit articulation of listening in writing found in the work of Brazilian novelist Clarice Lispector The terms writing by ear the aural novel and echopoetics rethink fiction as a poetics of listening to the world      Feeling Strangely in Mid-Century Spanish and Latin American Women's Fiction Tess C. Rankin,2023-12-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library as part of the Opening the Future project with COPIM The early twentieth century was awash in revolutionary scientific discourse and its uptake in the public imaginary through popular scientific writings touched every area of human experience from politics and governance to social mores and culture Feeling Strangely argues that these shifting scientific understandings and their integration into Hispanic and Lusophone society reshaped the experience of gender The book analyzes gender as a felt experience and explores how that experience is shaped by popular scientific discourse by examining the strange femininity of young protagonists in four novels written by women in Spanish and Portuguese Rosa Chacel's Memorias de Leticia Valle published in Argentina in 1945 Norah Lange's Personas en la sala Argentina 1950 Carmen Laforet's Nada Spain 1945 and Clarice Lispector's Perto do cora o selvagem Brazil 1943 It pairs each novel with a broad scientific theme selected from those that captured the contemporary popular imagination to argue that the young female protagonists in these novels all put forth visions of young womanhood as an experience of strangeness Building on Carmen Martín Gaité's term chicas raras Rankin proposes this strangeness as constitutive of a gendered experience inextricable from affective and material engagements with the world

The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 This guide highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Hungarian Korean to Turkish For some works e.g. Virgil's Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available

Transpoetic Exchange Marília Librandi, Marília Librandi Rocha, Jamille Pinheiro Dias, Tom Winterbottom, 2020-06-12 Transpoetic Exchange illuminates the poetic interactions between Octavio Paz 1914 1998 and Haroldo de Campos 1929 2003 from three perspectives comparative theoretical and performative The poem Blanco by Octavio Paz written when he was Ambassador to India in 1966 and Haroldo de Campos' translation or what he calls a transcreation of that poem published as Transblanco in 1986 as well as Campos' Galxias written from 1963 to 1976 are the main axes around which the book is organized Paz and Campos one from Mexico and the other from Brazil were central figures in the literary history of the second half of the 20th century in Latin America and beyond Both poets signal the direction of poetry as that of translation understood as the embodiment of otherness and of a poetic tradition that every new poem brings back as a Babel re-enacted This volume is a print corollary to and expansion of an international colloquium and poetic performance held at Stanford University in January 2010 and it offers a discussion of the role of poetry and translation from a global perspective The collection holds great value for those interested in all aspects of literary translation and it enriches the ongoing debates on language modernity translation and the nature of the poetic object

The Pushing-Hands of Translation and its Theory Douglas Robinson, 2016-05-12 This book presents an East West dialogue of leading translation scholars responding to and developing Martha Cheung's pushing hands method of translation studies Pushing hands was an idea Martha began exploring in the last four years of her life and only had time to publish at article length in 2012 The concept of pushing hands suggests a promising line of inquiry into the problem of conflict in translation Pushing hands opens a new vista for translation scholars to understand and explain how to develop an awareness of non confrontational alternative ways to handle translation problems or problems related to translation activities that are likely to give rise to tension and conflict The book is a timely contribution to celebrate Martha s work and also to move the conversation forward Despite being somewhat tentative and experimental it probes into how to enable and develop dynamic interaction between and reciprocal determinism of different hands involved in the process of translation Clarice Lispector and the 'thing' Joao Camillo Penna,1993 British Books ,1906 The French in the Heart of America John H. Finley,2019-12-19 In The French in the Heart of America by John H Finley the reader is transported to the early days of French exploration and colonization in North America Finley s meticulous research and eloquent prose paint a vivid picture of the interactions between the French settlers and the Native American tribes shedding light on the cultural exchanges and conflicts that shaped the region The book is a blend of history and storytelling offering a comprehensive look at this pivotal period in American history Finley s narrative style captures the imagination of the reader making the past come alive on the pages This book is a must read for those interested in the French influence on early America and the complexities of cultural encounters in the New World John H Finley a renowned historian and expert in colonial American history brings his expertise to The French in the Heart of America His background in academia and research allows him to provide insightful analysis and bring a fresh perspective to a well known topic Finley s passion for the subject shines through in his writing making this book a valuable contribution to the field For anyone seeking a deeper understanding of the French presence in early America and the impact it had on Native American communities The French in the Heart of America is a captivating and informative read Finley s scholarly approach and engaging narrative make this book a standout in the genre making it a valuable addition to any history lover s library
