Wild Meat And The Bully Burgers Lois Ann Yamanaka:

Wild Meat and the Bully Burgers Lois-Ann Yamanaka, 1996 Consumption and Identity in Asian American Coming-of-Age Novels Jennifer Ho, 2013-09-13 This interdisciplinary study examines the theme of consumption in Asian American literature connection representations of cooking and eating with ethnic identity formation Using four discrete modes of identification historic pride consumerism mourning and fusion Jennifer Ho examines how Asian American adolescents challenge and revise their cultural legacies and experiment with alternative ethnic affiliations through their relationships to food Ethnicity and the American Short Story Julie Brown, 2013-05-13 How do different ethnic groups approach the short story form Do different groups develop culture related themes Do oral traditions within a particular culture shape the way in which written stories are told Why does the community loom so large in ethnic stories How do such traditional forms as African American slave narratives or the Chinese talk story shape the modern short story Which writers of color should be added to the canon Why have some minority writers been ignored for such a long time How does a person of color write for white publishers editors and readers Each essay in this collection of original studies addresses these questions and other related concerns It is common knowledge that most scholarly work on the short story has been on white writers This collection is the first work to specifically focus on short story practice by ethnic minorities in America ranging from African Americans to Native Americans Chinese Americans to Hispanic Americans The number of women writers discussed will be of particular interest to women studies and genre studies researchers and the collections will be of vital interest to scholars working in American literature narrative theory and multicultural studies Maxine Hong Kingston Helena Grice, 2013-07-19 Since the publication of The Woman Warrior in 1976 Maxine Hong Kingston has gained a reputation as one of the most popular and controversial writers in the Asian American literary tradition In this volume Grice traces Kingston's development as a writer and cultural activist through both ethnic and feminist discourses investigating her novels occasional writings and her two book life writing project The publication of The Woman Warrior not only propelled Kingston into the mainstream literary limelight but also precipitated a vicious and ongoing controversy in Asian American letters over the authenticity or fakery of her cultural references Grice traces the debates through the appearance of China Men 1981 as well as the novels Tripmaster Monkey 1989 and her most recent work The Fifth Book of Peace Maxine Hong Kingston will be of value to students and academics researching in the areas of diaspora writing contemporary American and Asian American fiction as well as feminist and postcolonial literature Asian American Short Story Writers Guiyou Huang, 2003-06-30 Asian America has produced numerous short story writers in the 20th century Some emerged after World War II yet most of these writers have flourished since 1980 The first reference of its kind this volume includes alphabetically arranged entries for 49 nationally and internationally acclaimed Asian American writers of short fiction Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a survey of the writer's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Writers include Frank Chin Sui Sin Far Shirely Geok lin Lim Toshio Mori and Bharati Mukherjee An introductory essay provides a close examination of the Asian American short story and the volume closes with a list of works for further reading A. Magazine ,1996-02

The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945 Guiyou Huang,2006-08-08 The Americas of Asian American Literature Rachel C. Lee,1999-10-04 Drawing on a wide array of literary historical and theoretical sources Rachel Lee addresses current debates on the relationship among Asian American ethnic identity national belonging globalization and gender Lee argues that scholars have traditionally placed undue emphasis on ethnic based political commitments whether these are construed as national or global in their readings of Asian American texts This has constrained the intelligibility of stories that are focused less on ethnicity than on kinship family dynamics eroticism and gender roles In response Lee makes a case for a reconceptualized Asian American criticism that centrally features gender and sexuality Through a critical analysis of select literary texts novels by Carlos Bulosan Gish Jen Jessica Hagedorn and Karen Yamashita Lee probes the specific ways in which some Asian American authors have steered around ethnic themes with alternative tales circulating around gender and sexual identity Lee makes it clear that what has been missing from current debates has been an analysis of the complex ways in which gender mediates questions of both national belonging and international migration From anti miscegenation legislation in the early twentieth century to poststructuralist theories of language to Third World feminist theory to critical studies of global cultural and economic flows The Americas of Asian American Literature takes up pressing cultural and literary questions and points to a new direction in literary criticism

Minor Re/Visions Morris Young,2004-03-12 Through a blend of personal narrative cultural and literary analysis and discussions about teaching Minor Re Visions Asian American Literacy Narratives as a Rhetoric of Citizenship shows how people of color use reading and writing to develop and articulate notions of citizenship Morris Young begins with a narration of his own literacy experiences to illustrate the complicated relationship among literacy race and citizenship and to reveal the tensions that exist between competing beliefs and uses of literacy among those who are part of dominant American culture and those who are positioned as minorities Influenced by the literacy narratives of other writers of color Young theorizes an Asian American rhetoric by examining the rhetorical construction of American citizenship in works such as Richard Rodriguez s Hunger for Memory Victor Villanueva s Bootstraps From an American Academic of Color Carlos Bulosan s America Is in the Heart and Maxine Hong Kingston s Song for a Barbarian Reed Pipe from Woman Warrior These narratives Young shows tell stories of transformation through education the acquisition of literacy and cultural assimilation and resistance They also offer an important revision to the American story by inserting the minor and creating a tension amid dominant discourses about literacy race and citizenship Through a consideration of the literacy narratives of Hawai i Young also provides a context for reading literacy narratives as responses to racism linguistic discrimination and attempts at othering in a particular region As we are faced with dominant discourses that construct race and citizenship in problematic ways and as official institutions become even more powerful and prevalent in silencing minor voices Minor Re Visions reveals the critical need for revising minority and dominant discourses Young s observations and conclusions have important implications for the ways rhetoricians and compositionists read teach and assign literacy narratives Atlas of Hawai'i University of Hawaii at Hilo.
