romance novels and her nonfiction Octavia E. Butler Chi-ming Yang, 2024-12-04 An homage to the childhood genius of Black science fiction writer Octavia E Butler Bringing to view a selection of Butler's unpublished writings and drawings this book traces her fascination with human alien symbiosis to her early empathy with horses and other marginalized creatures The figure of the horse at once earthly and transcendent represented the contradictions of freedom and captivity that enabled young Octavia to develop her nuanced sense of voice and place Drawing on previously unknown archival research this volume illustrates how Butler's development as a writer was tied to her extraordinary resourcefulness and self awareness growing up as an awkward bookish Black girl in segregated Cold War Pasadena She persistently re visited and revised her early writings on teenage angst Martians Westerns and racial politics In one way or another her supernatural characters defied the constraints of gender race and class with equine inflected resilience In the spirit of Butler's passion for library research this book is comprised of twenty six short A Z chapters on vocabulary images and themes central to her authorial formation It is part childhood biography art and literary analysis and memoir It interweaves the author's personal recollections with scholarly musings on poetry film and literature inspired by Butler's encyclopedic reading habits and experiments with genre Just as cross species kinships are at the heart of her Afro futurist eco feminist storytelling Butler demonstrates that coming of age is an ongoing process and key to healing our damaged planet Patternmaster Octavia E. Butler, 2020-11-12 A book that shifted my life Epic game changing moving and brilliant VIOLA DAVIS on Wild Seed In the ongoing contest over which dystopian classic is most applicable to our time for sheer peculiar prescience Butler's novel may be unmatched NEW YORKER A PATTERNIST NOVEL BOOK FOUR The Patternmaster is all powerful His every thought can control heal or destroy The only threat to his command are the Clayarks a society of people born out of terrible disease who now live enslaved by the ruling Patternists or in the wild Coransee son of the Patternmaster wants the throne and will stop at nothing to succeed his father even if it means killing every one of his siblings But when one brother his rival and his equal takes refuge amongst the Clayarks a war ensues that will change the world forever Our Mothers, Our Powers, Our Texts Teresa N. Washington, 2015-12-23 Blazes a new trail in Africana literary criticism by providing an insight into the soul and spirit of Africana womanhood Anthonia Kalu The Ohio State University author of Women Literature and Development in Africa This is the revised and expanded edition of Teresa N Washington's groundbreaking book Our Mothers Our Powers Our Texts Manifestations of Aje in Africana Literature In Yoruba language and culture Aje signifies both a phenomenal spiritual power and the human beings who exercise that power Aje is the birthright of Africana women who are revered as the Gods of Society While Africana men can have Aje its owners and controllers are Africana women Because it is an African female power and due to its invisibility ubiquity and profundity Aje is often maligned as witchcraft However as Teresa N Washington reveals in Our Mothers Our Powers Our Texts Aje is central to the Yoruba ethos worldview and cosmology Not only is it essential to human creation and artistic creativity but as a force of justice and retribution Aje is vital to social harmony and balance Washington analyzes forms figures and forces of Aje in the Yoruba world in the Caribbean Islands in Latin America and in African America Washington's research reveals that with the exile and enslavement of millions of Africans Aje became a global force and an essential ally in organizing insurrections soothing shattered souls and reminding the dispossessed of their inherent divinity From her in depth exploration of Aje in Pan African history and orature Washington guides readers through rich analyses of the symbolic methodological and spiritual manifestations of Aje that are central to important works by Africana writers but are rarely elucidated by Western criticism Our Mothers Our Powers Our Texts includes innovative readings of works by many Africana writers including Zora Neale Hurston Toni Morrison Ben Okri Wole Soyinka Jamaica Kincaid and Ntozake Shange This revised and expanded edition of Our Mothers Our Powers Our Texts will appeal to scholars of Africana literature African religion and philosophy gender studies and comparative literature Devotees of Africana spiritual systems will find this book to be indispensable

The Funk Movement Reiland Rabaka, 2024-10-23 Rabaka explores funk as a distinct multiform of music aesthetics politics social vision and cultural rebellion that has been remixed and continues to influence contemporary Black popular music and Black popular culture especially rap music and the Hip Hop Movement The Funk Movement was a sub movement within the larger Black Power Movement and its artistic arm the Black Arts Movement Moreover the Funk Movement was also a sub movement within the Black Women's Liberation Movement between the late 1960s and late 1970s where women's funk especially Chaka Khan and Betty Davis's funk was understood to be a form of Black musical feminism that was as integral to the movement as the Black political feminism of Angela Davis or the Combahee River Collective and the Black literary feminism of Toni Morrison or Alice Walker This book also demonstrates that more than any other post war Black popular music genre the funk music of the 1960s and 1970s laid the foundation for the mercurial rise of rap music and the Hip Hop Movement in the 1980s and 1990s This book is primarily aimed at scholars and students working in popular music studies popular culture studies American studies African American studies cultural studies ethnic studies critical race studies women's studies gender studies and sexuality studies

Contemporary American Fiction in the European Classroom Laurence W. Mazzeno, Sue Norton, 2022-04-06 This book offers insight into the ways students enrolled in European classrooms in higher education come to understand American experience through its literary fiction which for decades has been a key component of English department offerings and American Studies curricula across the continent and in Great Britain and Ireland The essays provide an understanding of how post World War II American writers some already elevated to canonical status and some not are represented in European university classrooms and why they have been chosen for inclusion in coursework The book will be of interest to scholars and teachers of American literature and American studies and to students in American literature and American studies courses The Science Fiction Handbook M. Keith Booker, Anne-Marie Thomas, 2009-03-30 The Science Fiction Handbook offers a comprehensive and accessible survey of one of the literary world's most fascinating genres Includes separate historical surveys of key subgenres including time travel narratives post apocalyptic and post disaster narratives and works of utopian and dystopian science fiction Each subgenre survey includes an extensive list of relevant critical readings recommended novels in the subgenre and recommended films relevant to the subgenre Features entries on a number of key science fiction authors and extensive discussion of major science fiction novels or sequences Writers and works include Isaac Asimov Margaret Atwood George Orwell Ursula K Le Guin The War of the Worlds 1898 Starship Troopers 1959 Mars Trilogy 1993 6 and many more A Science Fiction Glossary completes this indispensable Handbook

Octavia E. Butler Gerry Canavan, 2016-10-31 I began writing about power because I had so little Octavia E Butler once said Butler's life as an African American woman an alien in American society and among science fiction writers informed the powerful works that earned her an ardent readership and acclaim both inside and outside science fiction Gerry Canavan offers a critical and holistic consideration of Butler's career Drawing on Butler's personal papers Canavan tracks the false starts abandoned drafts tireless rewrites and real life obstacles that fed Butler's frustrations and launched her triumphs Canavan departs from other studies to approach Butler first and foremost as a science fiction writer working within responding to and reacting against the genre's particular canon The result is an illuminating study of how an essential SF figure shaped themes unconventional ideas and an unflagging creative urge into brilliant works of fiction Science Fiction After 1900 Brooks Landon, 2014-05-01 First published in 2003 Brooks Landon analyses science fiction not as a set of rules for writers but as a set of expectations for readers He presents science fiction as a social phenomenon that moves beyond literary experience through a sense of mission based on the belief that SF can be a tool to help you think He offers a broad overview of the genre and the stages through which it has developed in the twentieth century from the dime store novel through the New Wave of the 60s the cyberpunk 80s and soft agenda SF of the 90s The writers he examines range from E M Forster and John W Campbell to Philip K Dick and Ursula K Le Guin He also examines the large body of criticism now devoted to the genre and includes a bibliographic essay and a list of recommended titles Alien Constructions Patricia Melzer, 2010-01-01 An incisive critical work that looks at Octavia Butler's writing the movies of the Matrix and Alien series and more through a feminist lens Femspec Feminist thinkers and writers are increasingly recognizing science fiction's potential to shatter patriarchal and heterosexual norms while the creators of science fiction are bringing new depth and complexity to the genre by engaging with feminist theories and politics This book maps the intersection of feminism and science fiction through close readings of science fiction literature by Octavia E Butler Richard Calder and Melissa Scott and the movies The Matrix and the Alien series Patricia Melzer analyzes how these authors and films represent debates and concepts in three areas of feminist thought identity and difference feminist critiques of science and technology and the relationship among gender identity body and desire including the new gender politics of queer desires transgender and intersexed bodies and identities She demonstrates that key political elements shape these debates including global capitalism and exploitative class relations within a growing international system the impact of computer industrial and medical technologies on women's lives and reproductive rights and posthuman embodiment as expressed through biotechnologies the body machine interface and the commodification of desire Melzer's investigation makes it clear that feminist writings and readings of science fiction are part of a feminist critique of existing power relations and that the alien constructions cyborgs clones androids aliens and hybrids that populate postmodern science fiction are as potentially empowering as they are threatening

Contemporary African American Fiction Robert Butler, 1998 The book argues that from its very beginnings African American journey narratives are distinctively non teleological that is they typically resist being directed toward an end point in a particular place and instead exult in movement through indefinite space They view movement as intrinsically valuable a process of endless becoming rather than a carefully mapped journey resulting in a completed state of being rooted in a fixed place As such these journeys are a compelling metaphor of the American desire for the new life consisting of unlimited personal development The writers examined in this book offer a unique set of variations on this kind of open journey

Who's Who of Twentieth Century Novelists Tim Woods, 2008-02-21 Taking in novelists from all over the globe from the beginning of the century to the present day this is the most comprehensive survey of the leading lights of twentieth century fiction Superb breadth of coverage and over 800 entries by an international team of contributors ensures that this fascinating and wide ranging work of reference will be invaluable to anyone with an interest in modern fiction Authors included range from Joseph Conrad to Albert Camus and Franz Kafka to Chinua Achebe Who's Who of Twentieth Century Novelists gives a superb insight into the richness and diversity of the twentieth century novel

In the Black Fantastic Ekow Eshun, 2022-06-09 In the Black Fantastic assembles art and imagery from across the African diaspora that embraces ideas of the mythic and the speculative Neither Afrofuturism nor Magic Realism but inhabiting its own universe In the Black Fantastic brings to life a cultural movement that conjures otherworldly visions out of the everyday Black experience and beyond looking at how speculative fictions in Black art and culture are boldly reimagining perspectives on race gender identity and the body in the 21st century Transcending time space and genre to span art design fashion architecture film literature and popular culture from African myth to future fantasies and beyond this vital timely and compelling publication is an expressive exploration of Black popular culture at its most wildly imaginative artistically ambitious and politically urgent
