Slam Walter Dean Myers Chapter Summary:

Slam! Walter Dean Myers, 1996 Sixteen year old Slam Harris is counting on his noteworthy basketball talents to get him out of the inner city and give him a chance to succeed in life but his coach sees things differently Literature Circles Harvey Daniels, 2003-10-10 What do we know about literature circles now that we didn't understand eight or ten years ago What new resources and procedures can help teachers organize their classroom book clubs better What are the most common pitfalls in implementing student led discussion groups And getting beyond the basics what do mature or advanced literature circles look like In this thoroughly revised and expanded guide you will find new strategies structures tools and stories that show you how to launch and manage literature circles effectively Advanced variations are explored and include alternatives to role sheets and flexible new guidelines for their use The second edition includes four different models for preparing students for literature circles using response logs sticky notes and newly designed role sheets dozens of variations on the basic version of student led bookclubs new models and procedures for primary intermediate and high school grades new materials for assessing and grading literature circles an inventory of common management problems and solutions new scheduling patterns for group meetings and reading time ideas for using literature circles with nonfiction texts across the curriculum research on literature circles including correlation with increased achievement on standardized tests an explanation of how literature circles match with the national standards for literacy education With detailed examples provided by twenty practicing teachers Harvey Daniels offers practical and concrete suggestions for each aspect of book club management and proven solutions for problems that arise Walter Dean Myers Amy Sickels, 2013-11 Young Adult Literature and Culture Harry Eiss, 2009-03-26 This book offers a multifaceted approach to the world of young adults everything from Ray Schrock's use of Walter Dean Myers sports stories to discuss race relations and cultural politics to Joyce Litton's analysis of the highly popular Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants Quartet The cover illustration is done by Joel Rudinger based on his experiences with the Inuit where he learned many of their legends and myths resulting in his own excellent work on Sedna the creation goddess a story filled with deep tragedy mystery and the world of the spirits This mythic world slides into the discussion of Harry Eiss one that focuses on The Isis Trilogy best known of Monica Hughes many works who writes Science fiction and fantasy in particular are valid carriers of myth for the 20th century and most especially for young people Margaret Best and Susann deVries also give us literature that uses science They begin The science fair project is the central metaphor and the reality in Paul Zindel's The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man in the Moon Marigolds 1970 Christopher Paul Curtis's Bucking the Sarge 2004 and Joyce Maynard's The Cloud Chamber 2005 After providing an overview science fiction Sally Sugarman offers a study of the entire genre For this study two hundred and thirty nine high school students from two schools in Vermont and Massachusetts were surveyed Alethea K Helbig provides an overview of her important activities promoting literature for the young She was a seminal scholar and educator when colleges and universities were just beginning to take the study of such literature seriously when English departments were initiating serious undergraduate and graduate classes in what previously had been seen as inferior literature Her life itself provides us with an entertaining and historically valuable autobiographical account of a person at the center of the change that has taken and continues to take place Jerry Loving expands the horizons of the entire collection of essays providing a firsthand account of how the young are educated in China including a detailed history It begins I have been traveling to mainland China at least 4 to 6 times a year as a teacher or education evaluator since 2002 As the visits and years passed I watched the education system of China slowly improve to the level my schools were like when I went to school in the 50 s and 60 s Critical

Reading Activities for the Works of Robert Cormier Donna Gilliland Shippen,2000 Walter Dean Myers Denise M. Jordan,2013-01-01 Walter Dean Myers tells it like it is in his award winning novels about urban teenagers with real problems With humor and a keen ear for dialogue Myers creates characters that speak directly to today s teens As a young reader Myers could not find books about African American boys like himself Drawing upon his own struggles and experiences he has filled that literary gap with fascinating novels filled with realistic stories that appeal to readers of all backgrounds and cultures Literature & the Learner Frances S. Goforth,1998 As a genre text not an anthology this text teaches students about literature forms and discusses ways of using literature in the classroom It is used to give students the background they need to evaluate select and use children s literature in their own teaching A database of current literature is provided with the text and will be updated annually Booktalks and More Lucy Schall,2003-06-30 Inspire teenagers to read quality literature and help them explore issues relevant to their lives This outstanding book offers motivational ready to use booktalks for more than 100 of the best new reads for teenagers guaranteed to pique teen interest Each booktalk comes with complete bibliographic information a detailed plot summary helpful presentation tips curriculum connections and suggestions for related books and media Grades 7 12 To help you keep the booktalk momentum going Lucy Schall provides engaging follow up discussion questions and activity ideas that will enhance every teen s reading writing and speaking skills With a focus on recently published fiction and nonfiction titles in a wide variety of genres and themes these dynamic booktalks center around issues problems and challenges that young adults are facing from family concerns expectations and leadership to prejudice good and evil and the future These lively booktalks and activities will motivate your teens to explore the complex world around them through unforgettable literary journeys Booktalks Plus Lucy Schall,2001-04-15 Obesity in a world where thin is endlessly in vogue pros and cons of tattoos and body piercing and family blending This guide leads you to quality literature that inspires students to read and discover more about these and many other issues they find relevant Booktalks for more than 100 titles are accompanied by motivational activities and lists of related works In addition pithy book summaries and bibliographic information are given Fiction and nonfiction titles most published since 1995 were selected with curriculum connections in mind and are arranged topically Kliatt Young Adult Paperback Book Guide ,2001

Cullinan and Galda's Literature and the Child Lee Galda, Bernice E. Cullinan, 2002 CD ROM contains Link to dynamic database driven Website Classroom Notes Plus ,2002 Reading and Relevance, Reimagined Katie Scieurba, 2024

What do we mean when we say that a text is relevant to a young person or to a group of young people And how might a reimagining of relevance shaped through the voices of young men of color enhance literacy teaching and learning Based on case studies of six young Black Latino and South Asian men and their reading experiences this book reconceptualizes the term relevance as it applies to and is applied within literacy education middle school through college The author reveals how four dimensions of relevance Identity Spatiality Temporality and Ideology can guide educators in supporting the reading and meaning making experiences of students in ways that honor the complexities of their lives and enhance their criticality Scieurba frames relevance from a student centered perspective as conditions that are practically socially and or conceptually applicable to one s life Readers can use this book to disrupt problematic enactments of relevance in literacy spaces that are rooted in assumptions about who young people are culturally or otherwise as well as how they think and maneuver through their complex worlds Book Features Provides a nuanced understanding of relevance in literacy education in order to successfully enact culturally relevant pedagogy Draws on scholarly literature from a broad range of fields including sociology cultural studies literary studies and physical science studies Showcases what a nondeficit approach to working with Black Latino South Asian and other young people of color can look like in educational contexts Examines data from longitudinal qualitative studies with six students and young men of color that took place across 10 years beginning in a New York City middle school Integrating Literature in the Content Areas Sharon Kane, 2017-05-12 This practical accessible resource will help future and practicing teachers integrate literature into their middle school or high school classrooms while also addressing content area standards and improving the literacy skills of their students Two introductory chapters are followed by five chapters that each cover a different genre Chapter 3 Informational Books Chapter 4 Fiction Chapter 5 Biography Autobiography and Memoir Chapter 6 Poetry and Chapter 7 How to and Hands on Books Each genre chapter consists of four parts Part 1 Discusses the genre and how content area teachers can use books within that genre to further content learning and enhance literacy skills Part 2 Offers hands on instructional strategies and activities using literature with activities for use in a variety of disciplines Part 3 Presents individual author studies three or four per chapter with bibliographies and guidelines for using the authors books in content area courses Part 4 Features an annotated bibliography of specially selected children and young adult literature for that genre organized by content area The annotations provide information about the book which can be used to prepare booktalks and teaching ideas for using in a specific content area Altogether these sections contain more than 600 annotated entries tabbed by subject area including art English language arts languages and culture math and technology music PE health science and social studies history Selecting and Using Good Books for Struggling Readers Nancy S. Williams, 2002-10-09 Finding the best books for young readers with special needs is easier with the help of this authoritative guide Recommended titles include picture books chapter books short novels and poetry for children and young adults each with a description reading level and learning activities It is the ideal book for anyone seeking help in the selection and use of good books to foster literacy development and to promote enthusiasm for and a love of reading

Dust Off the Gold Medal Sara L. Schwebel, Jocelyn Van Tuyl, 2021-08-23 The oldest and most prestigious children's literature award the Newbery Medal has since 1922 been granted annually by the American Library Association to the children's book it deems most distinguished Medal books enjoy an outsized influence on American children's literature figuring perennially on publishers lists on library and bookstore shelves and in school curricula As such they offer a compelling window into the history of US children's literature and publishing as well as into changing societal attitudes about which books are best for America's schoolchildren Yet literary scholars have disproportionately ignored the Medal winners in their research This volume provides a critically and historically grounded scholarly analysis of representative but understudied Newbery Medal books from the 1920s through the 2010s interrogating the disjunction between the books omnipresence and influence on the one hand and the critical silence surrounding them on the other Dust Off the Gold Medal makes a case for closing these scholarly gaps by revealing neglected texts insights into the politics of children's literature prizing and by demonstrating how neglected titles illuminate critical debates currently central to the field of children's literature In particular the essays shed light on the hidden elements of diversity apparent in the neglected Newbery canon while illustrating how the books respond sometimes in quite subtle ways to contemporaneous concerns around race class gender disability nationalism and globalism

Children's Writer's & Illustrator's Market, 1998 Children's Writer's and Illustrator's Market '98 Alice P. Buening, 1998-01-15 It's history with the nasty bits left in Want to know how to be very rude without anybody knowing some murky Medieval jokes what to say if someone calls you mundungus hackum or Jabbernowl Get your revenge with some really wicked words even English teachers will be speechless

The Horn Book Guide to Children's and Young Adult Books, 1997 Through the Eyes of a Child Donna E. Norton, Sandra E. Norton, Amy A. McClure, 2003 In its seventh edition Through the Eyes of a Child An Introduction to Children's Literature continues to be a visually stunning theoretically sound comprehensive overview of children's literature It focuses squarely on selecting and evaluating quality literature to share with children and guiding them to appreciate and respond to that literature This edition features multicultural literature and young adult literature in every chapter expanded coverage of biographies and informational books and over 100 new children's titles referenced throughout A children's literature CD ROM accompanies the book and contains bibliographic information for thousands of titles making it even easier to share quality literature with children and adolescents
