Who is God? A. B. Leaver, 2019-05-22 Who is God It is a question that has been asked throughout the expanse of human history and has been answered in a myriad of ways Answers have ranged from the worship of inanimate objects nature's wonders and fictitious characters to the worship of the true and everlasting God as revealed in the Bible However even using the Bible as a common reference there have been a multitude of different interpretations of who God is what His character is what His desire is for us and how we relate to Him This book draws from the biblical record a view of God that is supported by Scripture rather than from conjecture and outside sources Where there seem to be inconsistent perspectives present in the Scripture I have tried to identify them but conclude with the predominate perspective as the most tenable It makes sense that God in communicating to people would help us by making the correct view predominate In drawing from the Bible I have found that God is a loving Father in heaven that all people are His children that He loves His children and desires that all be saved that He has provided a means by which all may be saved through His Son Jesus Christ that in our day God reveals himself through the Holy Ghost among other ways and that the Father Son and Holy Ghost comprise one God You will find that the bulk of this work is a quotation of scripture organized by topic in relation to the identity of God Commentary has been added in an attempt to summarize the concepts I believe are conveyed in the scriptures however the commentary comprises a lessor portion of the work The work may almost be thought of as a topical concordance concerning the identity of God with limited commentary At any rate the reader is invited to review the cited scriptural references in addition to all others contained in the Scriptures and draw his or her own conclusion based on the content and on the witness of the Holy Ghost The scriptures declare that the Holy Ghost is the testator of all truth and that when we sincerely seek the truth we shall find it I have found the references cited in this work helpful in aiding my own search for the answer to the question who is God I am confident that they will do the same for you Who Is God and Where Does He Come from Joel Kerr,2010-05 God has created the heavens and the earth he has outlined the path required for human happiness The Alpha and the Omega is everywhere and immutable He has provided us with all the answers but do we ask the right questions For more than twenty years author Joel Kerr has been striving to find the answers set before him Despite his best intentions fear insecurity and doubt overwhelmed him preventing him from accepting the message he desperately craved After a debilitating back injury he finally got the message Who Is God and Where Does He Come From provides a fresh perspective on the relationships between God Jesus Satan and humanity Kerr examines critical questions about where God comes from his intentions for mankind and how each human being can purge Satan s treachery from our minds and souls Who Is God? Henry Loyd Copeland,2008-02-04 About Who Is God Who is god is written for all humankind It contains a most powerful message about two way communications between the reader and God Getting to know God requires communication In other words the prerequisite to getting to know is two way communications between the reader and God The reader actually becomes interactive with God A fundamental communications model is presented illustrating some of the simplicities and some of the complexities associated with communicating However the book proceeds to make two way communicating quite simple between the reader and God This simplicity is achieved by identifying defining and elaborating on terms relevant to good communications The reader asks Who am I and an answer is provided This is followed by an introduction to God followed by an introduction to Jesus Christ The Holy Spirit The Holy Trinity and love With this background the reader communicates with God and God communicates with the reader Who is god informs the reader as to how God communicates with the reader how the reader communicates with God some of Gods messages to the reader some of the reader s messages to God and finally the reader s conclusions after knowing himself or herself and God better The profound impacts of Who is god on the reader are 1 recognition of the true God God of the Holy Bible 2 realization that God has established the ultimate communication model and 3 realization that this type of relationship with God is both a the source of peace and joy and b the solution to terrorism crime addiction prejudice and deprivation Who Is God? Barbara Ann Kay,2011 Who is God What is He really like Does He truly care when we are hurting Why does He allow bad things to happen to people who are serving Him How can we feel His loving comforting arms around us when we re lonely sad or discouraged Have you ever grieved over the loss of your father tragically killed in an airplane crash Have you longed for friendship felt lonely or emotionally empty Have you asked Can God be trusted Is God fair Why doesn t God answer my prayer Does God even care The author of this book has If you have struggled with understanding God from a human perspective then this book is for you Barbara has taken a serious look at God s character both from scripture and personal experience You will get glimpses of what God is really like as Barbara Ann Kay shares stories allegories and vivid word pictures depicting our compassionate Heavenly Father Filled with encouraging Bible passages and stories this book is excellent for morning devotions or any time you need to hear an encouraging word from a Father who is eager to spend quality time with you Who Is God Cheryl Sadlier,2020-02-25 Who is God Sometimes we find it difficult to explain to children who God is but this book with it s colorful and fun pictures uses easy to understand explanations so that children can learn who God really is and how much He loves them What a great way to begin your child s relationship with God Book would make a great communion gift or stuffed inside a Easter basket
