Proliferation of Weapons- and Dual-Use Technologies Margaret E. Kosal,2021-07-26 This book explores and analyzes the rapid pace of technological evolution in diplomatic information military and economic sectors which has contributed to a dynamic international policy environment Global political stability is greatly influenced by innovations originating from numerous sources including university labs the technology sector and military research Collectively these innovations guide the movement of people ideas and technology that in turn affect the international balance of power The objective of this volume is to develop new insights into how the proliferation of innovative ideas low cost weapons and dual use technologies impact the changing global security landscape Innovative and dual use technologies can be used for beneficial purposes or defensive purposes Alternatively they may be appropriated or employed for nefarious purposes by hostile military powers and non state actors alike Such actions can threaten global security and stability As the complexity of technological innovations continues to increase existing control mechanisms such as international regulations and security arrangements may be insufficient to stem the tide of proliferation over time As such this works seeks to assess and present policy solutions to curtail the threat to global stability posed by the proliferation of weapons and dual use technology Cultivating Futures Thinking in Museums Kristin Alford,2024-10-21 Cultivating Futures Thinking in Museums provides examples of the active and diverse roles that museums are taking to expand futures thinking in communities including developing capabilities to envision and enact more prosperous equitable and sustainable futures Presenting 21 examples that demonstrate how museums are cultivating futures capabilities in diverse global contexts the volume acknowledges innovative practice builds a foundation for growing futures work in the museum sector and inspires others in the field to adopt futures frameworks in their practices This realm of thinking including components of anticipating futures by exploring drivers of change imagining immersive experiences of futures creating tools and methods to enable futures capability and participatory futures informing museum design practice provides important responses to the multitude of complex contemporary problems like climate change technological development and social inequity The book prompts museums to think about their role in shaping alternative and novel narratives for our future Cultivating Futures Thinking in Museums will primarily appeal to museum professionals inspiring and informing them to adopt practices to further futures literacies It will also appeal to academics researchers and students with an interest in museums futures design contemporary art curating and cultural studies Inferentialism J. Peregrin,2014-09-26 In this study two strands of inferentialism are brought together the philosophical doctrine of Brandom according to which meanings are generally inferential roles and the logical doctrine prioritizing proof theory over model theory and approaching meaning in logical especially proof theoretical terms Imagined Theatres Daniel Sack,2017-04-07 Imagined Theatres collects theoretical dramas written by some of the leading scholars and artists of the contemporary stage These dialogues prose poems and microfictions describe imaginary performance events that explore what might be possible and impossible in the theatre Each scenario is mirrored by a brief accompanying reflection asking what they might mean for our thinking about the theatre These many possible worlds circle around questions that include In what way is writing itself a performance How do we understand the relationship between real performances that engender imaginary reflections and imaginary conceptions that form the basis for real theatrical productions Are we not always imagining theatres when we read or even when we sit in the theatre watching whatever event we imagine we are seeing Zoonoses and Communicable Diseases Common to Man and Animals Pedro N. Acha,Boris Szyfres,2003-09-15 Also available as part of the complete 3 vol set ISBN 9275119910 The Administrator ,1998 The Christian Union ,1885 The Literary World ,1902 Introducing Morphology Rochelle Lieber,2010 A lively introduction to the study of how words are put together Figuring Animals

M. Pollock, C. Rainwater, 2016-10-03 This is a collection of fifteen essays which expose weaknesses in western epistemological frames of reference that for centuries have limited our views and thus our experiences of animal being including our own The volume contributes to current discussions of new ways of seeing the other inhabitants of this world and more effective ways of sharing the world with them The contributors draw on and complement the growing field of ecocriticism but because the contributors draw on an array of disciplinary and cultural perspectives it will appeal to a wide audience ranging from literary scholars philosophers art historians anthropologists and cultural historians including graduate and undergraduate students in all these disciplines to laypersons interested in nature writing and environmental issues
