Getting a university education will help create so many paths and give a better life. Various kind of people go to university for different goals, ambitions and reasons. As for me, a university education is important to improve my chance of getting my dream job. I personally see university education as a good and solid investment, primarily because I will use all skills I get from the university for the rest of my life and according to Collegeboard, "The typical bachelor's degree holder can expect to earn about 73 percent more over a 40-year working life than the typical high school graduate earns over the same time period ".

There are many other important benefits of university education, such as it will definitely help one to improve oneself and become a more prepared and marketable person for stepping out into this world. A university education will teach self-discipline, improve one's ability to develop thinking skills and expand the ability to work with other people from different backgrounds and cultures. Moreover, university education helps people to solve problems in an amicable and easy way. One also learn how to avoid obvious disagreements with people. As a result, they are able to lead a trouble free life.

Secondary, a university education gives opportunities to have less financial problems. A university education is absolutely necessary to me because it is the golden key to success. Better education gives me the qualification to get better jobs and it increases my self-confidence. Our parent and teachers care about the quality of our education, and they patiently explain the importance of education. I feel, since I'm still young and have a lot of time, I really need to focus on my education so that I will have bright and shining future.

Finally, people have dreams of having a good career but only a few manage to achieve it. There are few things that make this happen. They tend to forget that they need a good education or they simply do not have enough motivation. I have dreams like everybody else. I want to be a manager at some major international companies and I believe business degrees can help me to secure this position that I cannot get only with a high school diploma. I also believe university education will also help me to build a circle of people who will eventually help me to achieve my dream job.

This year I start doing an online college for the first time in my life and I will do my best to graduate from Ashworth College with good score and gain as many experiences as I can.
