Paul Allen Miller

Wicked Siren 1 Monster Female Horror Erotica:

Terror Television John Kenneth Muir, 2013-02-25 Although horror shows on television are popular in the 1990s thanks to the success of Chris Carter's The X-Files such has not always been the case. Creators Rod Serling, Dan Curtis, William Castle, Quinn Martin, John Newland, George Romero, Stephen King, David Lynch, Wes Craven, Sam Raimi, Aaron Spelling and others have toiled to bring the horror genre to American living rooms for years. This large scale reference book documents an entire genre from the dawn of modern horror television with the watershed Serling anthology Night Gallery 1970 a show lensed in color and featuring more graphic makeup and violence than ever before seen on the tube through more than 30 programs including those of the 1998-1999 season. Complete histories, critical reception, episode guides, cast, crew and guest star information as well as series reviews are included along with footnotes, a lengthy bibliography and an in depth index. From Kolchak, The Night Stalker to Millennium from The Evil Touch to Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Twin Peaks Terror Television is a detailed reference guide to three decades of frightening television programs both memorable and obscure. Omnibus Films David Scott Diffrient, 2014-06-23 As the first book length exploration of internationally distributed multi director episode films Omnibus Films fills a considerable gap in the history of world cinema and aims to expand contemporary understandings of authorship, genre, narrative and tr. Diotima at the Barricades Paul Allen Miller, 2016 Diotima at the Barricades argues that the debates that emerged from the burgeoning of feminist intellectual life in post modern France involved complex structured and reciprocal exchanges on the interpretation and position of Plato and other ancient texts in the western philosophical and literary tradition. Paul Allen Miller shows how individual works of Anglo American figures such as Toril Moi, Judith Butler and Kaja Silverman as well as movements such as queer theory are rooted in feminist theoretical debates that began in the sixties in France and have continued right up to the present day. Miller demonstrates that French philosophy as represented by writers as diverse as Julia Kristeva, Helene Cixous, Sarah Kofman, Jacques Lacan, Jacques Derrida and Luce Irigaray have had a profound influence on literary theoretical and cultural studies in the Anglo American world. He reveals that in order to understand the intellectual substructure of much of later Anglo American critical theory it is crucial to examine the development of post modern French feminist thought in relation to its dialogue with antiquity. In modern feminism and post structuralism the ancient world and Plato in particular truly function as our theoretical unconscious. Cinefantastique, 1995 Horror and Science Fiction Films II (1972-1981) Donald C.
