Reinventions of the Novel Karen-Margrethe Simonsen,Marianne Ping Huang,Mads Rosendahl Thomsen,2004 The history of the novel is a story of perpetual change so that its identity still remains open to question The sixteen articles in this book investigate connections differences and similarities in the novel around the world for the past three hundred years Rather than searching for the essence of the genre they look for the formal and thematic patterns on which the novel thrives considering such matters as tradition and modernity realism rhetoric and identity tableau and spatiality and wondering whether epic and avant garde are not quite contradictory terms Close readings combined with historical overviews and theoretical discussions open up new constellations in the history of the novel Untraditional cross readings are made between Rabelais and Jens Peter Jacobsen and between Balzac and Nicholson Baker Transformations of traditional modes of epic biography and Bildung are traced as far as Georges Perec and Gunter Grass      The Complete Letters of Henry James, 1876-1878 Henry James,2012-01-01 Volume 2 This volume contains letters written from December 21 1877 to September 29 1878 when having settled comfortably into London life James finished preparing the foundation for the career that would define his reputation as a critic and fiction writer During this time James published Daisy Miller and The Europeans as well as other fiction reviews and cultural criticism      Autograph Letters Signed from William Gorman Wills, London, to Augustin Daly ,1878      A Study of Authorial Illustration Maxime Leroy,2018-10-25 This book analyses the practice of illustrating one s own works of literature The first part discusses theoretical aspects of authorial illustration and suggests some critical approaches to it In particular it considers the use of systemics as an actionable framework for its study The second part consists of commentaries on specific illustrations The book adopts a conversational style providing academics and students in literature and the fine arts with an enjoyable scholarly introduction to this thriving field of research      The Century Cyclopedia of Names Benjamin Eli Smith,1895      The Eighteen-Seventies Harley Granville-Barker,2013-01-03 This 1929 book is comprised of papers concerning themselves with various aspects of life and literature during the 1870s      The Athenaeum ,1898      Books with Manuscript Robin Alston,British Library,1994 Marginal annotations to printed books are a little studied aspect of the history of books and the transmission of ideas providing a commentary on published texts which is conventionally anonymous critical and economical While many annotations are no more than individual comments on or disagreements with what an author has written in a significant number of cases marginal notes have been found to be authorial often adding an important new dimension to the original text      Christopher Marlowe, Theatrical Commerce, and the Book Trade Kirk Melnikoff,Roslyn L. Knutson,2018-10-18 Presenting the first exploration of Christopher Marlowe s complex place in the canon this collection reads Marlowe's work against an extensive backdrop of repertory publication transmission and reception Wide ranging and thoughtful chapters consider Marlowe's deliberate engagements with the stage and print culture the agents and methods involved in the transmission of his work and his cultural reception in the light of repertory and print evidence With contributions from major international scholars the volume considers all of Marlowe's oeuvre offering illuminating approaches to his extended animation in theatre and print from the putative theatrical debut of Tamburlaine in 1587 to the most current editions of his work Bulletin of the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library,1878

Translation and Rewriting in the Age of Post-Translation Studies Edwin Gentzler,2016-11-03 In Translation and Rewriting in the Age of Post Translation Studies Edwin Gentzler argues that rewritings of literary works have taken translation to a new level literary texts no longer simply originate but rather circulate moving internationally and intersemiotically into new media and forms Drawing on traditional translations post translation rewritings and other forms of creative adaptation he examines the different translational cultures from which literary works emerge and the translational elements within them In this revealing study four concise chapters give detailed analyses of the following classic works and their rewritings A Midsummer Night's Dream in Germany Postcolonial Faust Proust for Everyday Readers Hamlet in China With examples from a variety of genres including music film ballet comics and video games this book will be of special interest for all students and scholars of translation studies and contemporary literature Selected Letters of William Michael Rossetti Roger W. Peattie,2010-11-01 Mark Twain's Letters, Volume 5 Mark Twain,1988 The 309 letters in this volume more than half never before published capture the events in Mark Twain's life in 1872 and 1873 with detailed intimacy Thoroughly annotated and indexed they include genealogical charts transcription of journals book contracts photographs and of course all known letters written between 1865 and 1871 This volume is fifth in a series about the renowned author humorist 80 illus The New Ireland Review ,1895 The Heroic Life of George Gissing, Part I Pierre Coustillas,2015-09-30 This ambitious three volume biography on Gissing examines both his life and writing chronologically and in close detail Part I covers Gissing's early life up until his establishment as a writer of moderate critical success Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum.
