To Africa With A Dream:

Dreams in the African Church Nelson Osamu Hayashida, 2023-09-20 Currents of Encounter invites scholarly contributions that utilize interreligious intercultural comparative postcolonial and other contemporary critical interdisciplinary approaches from across all religious traditions to address topical questions on the challenges and opportunities arising from intercultural interreligious engagements or the intersections of cultures and religions Studies dealing explicitly with the dynamics of the intersection of religious and cultural traditions are increasing every year and scholars have become aware of the complexity and diversity of interreligious and intercultural relations Recent literature offers a broad panoply of theoretical approaches from theologies of religions to comparative theologies from discourse analysis to a postcolonial critique focusing on issues of power from feminist readings asking about the specific role of women in interreligious dialogue to interreligious hermeneutics exploring how meaning may travel across cultural and religious traditions Currents of Encounter welcomes this variety of works in these disciplines and from interdisciplinary perspectives aiming thus to contribute to a better understanding of the complexities of interreligious and intercultural themes The board welcomes both monographs and edited volumes Possible domains interreligious studies intercultural theology and philosophy comparative theology and philosophy theologies of religions To Africa With A Dream Olga Marlin, 2004-01-01 My African Dream Kurt K. Williams, 2007 Dreams of Africa in Alabama Sylviane A. Diouf, 2009-02-18 In the summer of 1860 more than fifty years after the United States legally abolished the international slave trade 110 men women and children from Benin and Nigeria were brought ashore in Alabama under cover of night They were the last recorded group of Africans deported to the United States as slaves Timothy Meaher an established Mobile businessman sent the slave ship the Clotilda to Africa on a bet that he could bring a shipful of niggers right into Mobile Bay under the officers noses He won the bet This book reconstructs the lives of the people in West Africa recounts their capture and passage in the slave pen in Ouidah and describes their experience of slavery alongside American born enslaved men and women After emancipation the group reunited from various plantations bought land and founded their own settlement known as African Town They ruled it according to customary African laws spoke their own regional language and when giving interviews insisted that writers use their African names so that their families would know that they were still alive The last survivor of the Clotilda died in 1935 but African Town is still home to a community of Clotilda descendants The publication of Dreams of Africa in Alabama marks the 200th anniversary of the abolition of the transatlantic slave trade Winner of the Wesley Logan Prize of the American Historical Association 2007 African Dream Suleman Chebe, 2011-08-01 A Ghanaian teacher in Glasgow attends a conference in Ethiopia where he stumbles across a vision for the future Convinced that what he has witnessed could have dramatic consequences for Africa he decides to leave everything behind in Scotland to carry the message to the people On his journey he has to tackle and overcome a mountain of obstacles This is a personal quest that examines the hopes and dreams of Africans from a diverse range of backgrounds from street level to academic to political to religious both practical and philosophical Through the voices of the people this unique take on the problems facing Africa forms an engaging witty and thought provoking narrative that aims to empower us all to take the future of Africa into our own hands The book gives a flavour of the joys and hardships faced everyday by a broad cross section of the African community both at home and abroad Above all a spirit of hope for the future and belief that Africa can transform herself permeates every page

From Dust to Snow: The African Dream? Lydia Ngwa, Wilfred Ngwa, 2006-12-01 In this international version of From Dust to Snow undertake the search for the African dream and discover that the true African Dream is far bigger and more complex than the dreams that have propelled millions of Africans from their beloved continent Journey with Fako Kilimanjaro an African Renaissance Ambassador through a panorama of more than forty unreserved testimonies from African students asylum seekers and the employed in Europe and the United States Contrast their stories with illuminating perspectives from non Africans Share their experiences from the moment the notion of travel abroad is embraced through hardships triumphs formal and comic moments to deportation voluntary return and re entry shock By the end of this book the nature and character of your own dream could be reborn Arise for the Re awakening of Mother Africa has begun and it is intricately woven into the future of her children humanity as a whole

Dear Africa Andrew Wutawunashe, 2011-09-28 In his letter to Africa Andrew Wutawunashe carefully constructs a sustainable African Dream that nurses no hurts regrets or excuses but propels the reader gloriously upward from the painful and credible sighs of Africa s people to build a bold vibrant and competitive Africa whose boundless wealth and potential are open to her people Wutawunashe offers a wealth of examples from Africa s visionaries of the past and present by which he escalates his rallying call to action for self empowerment and actualization With engaging clarity Wutawunashe presents a challenge to the best of Africa s minds and to the most plundered of her people to own The African Dream love it live it and propel Africans everywhere to a new contented African ness and to greater heights of productivity and achievement that go toe to toe with the world s best in every field

Dear Africa is a must read for anyone Black or not who wants to benefit from the power of an eloquent and knowledgeable primary source The African Dream own it love it live it and transform your world The Africa I Dream To See Hammed Kayode Alabi,2019-12-02 This book was written to inspire people to take action and pursue their African dream It detailed my journey into leadership and how I found my African dream I lived and grew up in the slum I never thought I could dream but found my African dream in the worst of the worse places in the world My story inspired me to take action and how we can also do something to enhance the development of the African continent We should not be a bystander and watch things happen we need to do something to secure our planet and protect future generations The book explores the needs of why we have to put people first in designing development programs and outcomes It also represents how the future would look like and how we can be prepared for it as Africans

How Berlin Conference Clung on Africa Nkwazi N. Mhango,2024-10-02 The book How Berlin Conference Clung on Africa What Africans Must Do aims to expose the root causes of Africa s struggles including colonialism greed and artificial national divisions It examines the lasting impact of the Berlin Conference of 1884 85 where European powers divided Africa leading to dependence and underdevelopment The book also criticises the role of African leaders in perpetuating these divisions and hindering progress It argues that the artificial borders created at the Berlin Conference have been detrimental to Africa and calls for unity and a rejection of the colonial legacy to achieve true independence and prosperity

Africa Reunite or Perish Mhango, Nkwazi Nkuzi,2015-12-01 Africa Reunite or Perish is a daring and timely book that explores the essence and nefariousness of neocolonialism in a purportedly independent Africa The book shows how Africa spends billions of dollars in pseudo threats among African countries due to colonially entrenched fear and war mongering The book is emphatic on deconstruction and decolonisation as a categorical imperative for the reunification of Africa beyond the narrow confines of current nation states Mhango takes a diagnostic cum prognostic approach in discussing Africa s predicaments and in identifying and proposing solutions to problems confronting Africans The book ascertains Africa s untapped potentials by proving how Africa can live without the infamy of excruciating dependency and beggarliness It makes a compelling case for African unity beyond the tokenism of officialdom It prescribes a truly pan African driven reunification of Africa as the only means of reclaiming the glory she used to enjoy before she was savagely partitioned

Transfrontier Conservation in Africa Maano Ramutsindela,2007 Transfrontier conservation is a global concept which encompasses the protection of biodiversity spanning the borders of two or more countries in ways that support local economic development international relations and peace Nowhere is this more relevant but highly debatable than in Africa which is home to a third of the world s terrestrial biodiversity while at the same time hosting its poorest nations This is one of the first books to account for the emergence of transfrontier conservation in Africa against international experiences in bioregional planning The roles of the state and local populations are analysed as well as the ecological socio economic and political implications

unprecedented developments in the history of the scientific study of psychology in postcolonial Africa is the recent welcome inclusion of the study of African psychology within the psychology degree curriculum of some foreword thinking African universities In each of those universities such as the University of KwaZulu Natal in South Africa and Kenyatta University in Nairobi Kenya East Africa there now exists a gradual entrenchment of the African derived psychology in the curricular provisions of their psychology degree programmes With particular reference to the University of KwaZulu Natal in South Africa for instance a number of African psychology based modules have recently been developed approved and incorporated into the list of modules for psychology degree students at the undergraduate Honours and the Master s degree levels see University of KwaZulu Natal College of Humanities Handbook 2018

The Cambridge History of Africa J. D. Fage, Roland Anthony Oliver, Michael Crowder, 1975 The eighth and final volume of The Cambridge History of Africa covers the period 1940-75 It begins with a discussion of the role of the Second World War in the political decolonisation of Africa Its terminal date of 1975 coincides with the retreat of Portugal the last European colonial power in Africa from its possessions and their accession to independence The fifteen chapters which make up this volume examine on both a continental and regional scale the extent to which formal transfer of political power by the European colonial rulers also involved economic social and cultural decolonisation A major theme of the volume is the way the African successors to the colonial rulers dealt with their inheritance and how far they benefited particular economic groups and disadvantaged others The contributors to this volume represent different disciplinary traditions and do not share a single theoretical perspective on the recent history of the continent a subject that is still the occasion for passionate debate

China's Footprint in East Africa Bob Wekesa, 2023-09-20 Based on an extensive literature review in depth interviews fieldwork and anecdotal evidence this text examines China's engagement with East Africa notably Rwanda Burundi Kenya Tanzania and Uganda and considers these relationships through the lens of history diplomacy education trade media cultural exchanges and infrastructure It probes the sentiments of pessimism optimism and pragmatism to explore perceptions about China in East Africa Africa China's ancient connection to the East African coast as well as other incidents of contact in the past are analyzed from the viewpoint of the deployment of Chinese soft power capital in current times The book notably examines the significant role China is playing in the construction of new infrastructure and housing throughout East Africa and addresses China's involvement in the natural resources sector and the political debate surrounding the construction of gas and oil pipelines its investment in the tourism sector in the news media and information and communication technology sectors as well as in educational and cultural programs

Dreaming in the World's Religions Kelly Bulkeley, 2008-07-19 From Biblical stories of Joseph interpreting Pharaoh's dreams in Egypt to prayers against bad dreams in the Hindu Rig Veda cultures all over the world have seen their dreams first and foremost as religiously meaningful experiences In this widely shared view dreams are a powerful medium of transpersonal guidance offering the opportunity to communicate with sacred beings gain valuable wisdom and power heal suffering and explore new realms of existence Conversely the world s religious and spiritual traditions provide the best source of historical information about the broad patterns of human dream life Dreaming in the World s Religions provides an authoritative and engaging one volume resource for the study of dreaming and religion It tells the story of how dreaming has shaped the religious history of humankind from the Upanishads of Hinduism to the Qur an of Islam from the conception dream of Buddhas mother to the sexually tempting nightmares of St Augustine from the Ojibwa vision quest to Australian Aboriginal journeys in the Dreamtime Bringing his background in psychology to bear Kelly Bulkeley incorporates an accessible consideration of cognitive neuroscience and evolutionary psychology into this fascinating overview Dreaming in the World s Religions offers a carefully researched accessibly written portrait of dreaming as a powerful unpredictable often iconoclastic force in human religious life

The Political Economy of China's Belt and Road Initiative in East Africa

Simon Züfle,2023-03-25 This book examines the implementation of the Belt and Road Initiative BRI in East Africa The BRI is considered China s central geopolitical and geo economic project in the era of President Xi Jinping Through this work the author aims to contribute to filling some research gaps such as the lack of depth in studies of individual BRI projects and the underconsideration of processing narratives in participating countries The guiding question is the extent to which the BRI is a political or hegemonic project of the CCP directed state civil society complex in East Africa To answer these questions databases of international organizations and policy documents are analyzed In addition the author conducts a qualitative content analysis of newspaper articles from local media houses in the countries of Ethiopia Kenya and Tanzania to examine three infrastructure projects The work illustrates that the BRI contributes to increasing connectivity in East Africa At the same time the compression of economic relations and the implementation of infrastructure projects in East Africa lead to numerous consequences and contour a hegemonic project

Visions of the Night Kelly Bulkeley,1999-09-16 This wide ranging exploration of the spiritual and scientific dimensions of dreaming offers new connections between the ancient wisdom of the world s religious traditions which have always taught that dreams reveal divine truths and the recent findings of modern psychological research Drawing upon philosophy anthropology sociology neurology literature and film criticism the book offers a better understanding of the mysterious complexity and startling creative powers of human dreaming experience For those interested in gaining new perspectives on dreaming the powers of the imagination and the newest frontiers in the dialogue between religion and science Visions of the Night promises to be a welcome resource
