Martinelli,2012-11-20 At the height of the Great Depression an eccentric man named George Daynor arrived in Vineland He was rumored to have amassed a fortune during the gold rush only to lose it in the crash of 1929 Daynor invested in a piece of barren land that nobody else wanted and believing that he was guided by angels built a palace from car parts trash bits of stone and anything else he could find The Palace Depression as it came to be known was one man s testament to surviving the hard times and hundreds of thousands flocked to its gates over the next two decades A misguided publicity stunt landed Daynor in jail and after his incarceration and death the palace deteriorated and was torn down in the 1960s Yet the memory lingered for some local residents who started a movement to rebuild Discover Vineland s mysterious story of Daynor and his palace Postcards from the End of America Linh Dinh,2017-02-21

Roaming the country by bus and train on a budget and without any institutional support Linh Dinh set out to document in words and pictures what life is like for people From Los Angeles Cheyenne Portland and New Orleans to Jackson and Wolf Point Linh walked miles and miles through unfamiliar neighborhoods talking to whoever would talk to him the homeless living in tent cities the peddlers the protestors the public preachers the prostitutes With the uncompromising eye of a Walker Evans or a Dorothea Lange and the indomitable forthright prose of a modern day Nelson Algren or James Agee Dinh documents the appalling and the absurd with warmth and honesty giving voice to America s often forgotten citizens and championing the awesome strength it takes to survive for those on the bottom Growing out of a photo and political writing blog Linh has maintained since 2009 Postcards from the End of America is an unflinching diary of what Linh sees as the accelerating collapse of America Tracking the economic political and social unraveling from the casinos to the abandoned factories and over all the sidewalks in between with a poet s incisive tongue Linh shows us the uncanny power of the people in the face of societal devastation Los Gatos Stephanie Ross

Diamond Di Lamont is sick of her life in Vineland a small town in Southern Ontario known for its nature pathways its horticulture and its wine One afternoon Di escapes from her desk job for a walk in the park and soon stumbles on an enchanting naked woman who seems to be bathing in a nearby creek Stunned by her discovery Di is soon surprised again when the woman appears to be trans When the woman runs away without exchanging a word Di is left with too many questions and unfulfilled desires In order to figure out her mystery woman Di explores Vineland in a way she never had before and along the way finds out that the small town is host to a lot more interesting and unique people like the local bookstore that s also a coven and numerous other trans women and queer people hiding in plain sight than she first thought Genevieve Holloway never wanted to move to Vineland Her girlfriend did and now in the wake of her death Gen continues to feel stuck Her job sucks Her apartment is filled with memories she doesn t want to have and getting caught naked in the local creek is the last straw As the October moon waxes and wanes Gen becomes determined to leave Vineland and never return all the while just missing out on Di s affection and attention as she desperately seeks her mystery woman Can a brief meeting during the first full moon of the month of October truly change these women s lives and lead them back to one another Or is there no more magic left in Vineland for either one of them
