The Penguin Book Of First World War Stories:

The Penguin Book of First World War Stories Barbara Korte, Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2007-10-25 The First World War has had an incalculable effect on literature in the years generations that followed it The stories collected in this volume reflect a wide range of responses to that conflict from harrowing scenes of carnage at the Front espionage behind the scenes to the struggles of those at home The Short Story and the First World War Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2013-07-31 Covering a range of topics settings and styles the book offers the first comprehensive study of short fiction from the First World War

Landscapes and Voices of the Great War Angela K. Smith, Krista Cowman, 2017-02-03 This volume continues the recent trend towards expanding definitions of war experience through considering a range of different landscapes and voices Not all landscapes were comprised of trenches and barbed wire Voices supporting or dissenting were many and varied Collectively they combine to offer fresh insights into the multiplicity of war experience alternate spaces to the familiar tropes of mud and mayhem

Touch and Intimacy in First World War Literature Santanu Das, 2006-04-06 The First World War ravaged the male body on an unprecedented scale yet fostered moments of physical intimacy and tenderness among the soldiers in the trenches Touch the most elusive and private of the senses became central to war experience War writing is haunted by experiences of physical contact from the muddy realities of the front to the emotional intensity of trench life to the traumatic obsession with the wounded body in nurses memoirs Through extensive archival and historical research analysing previously unknown letters and diaries alongside literary writings by figures such as Owen and Brittain Santanu Das recovers the sensuous world of the First World War trenches and hospitals This original and evocative study alters our understanding of the period as well as of the body at war and illuminates the perilous intimacy between sense experience emotion and language as we try to make meaning in times of crisis Literature and the Great War 1914-1918 Randall

Stevenson, 2013-05-02 Literature and the Great War offers a fresh challenging interpretation of the literature of the period reappraising the settled assumptions through which war writing has come to be read in recent years The Epistolary

Renaissance Maria Löschnigg, Rebekka Schuh, 2018-09-10 Since the late twentieth century letters in literature have seen a remarkable renaissance The prominence of letters in recent fiction is due in part to the rediscovery by contemporary writers of letters as an effective tool for rendering aspects of historicity liminality marginalization and the expression of subjectivity vis vis an other it is also due however to the artistically challenging inclusion of the new electronic media of communication into fiction While studies of epistolary fiction have so far concentrated on the eighteenth century and on thematic concerns this volume charts the epistolary renaissance in recent literature entering new territory by also focusing on the aesthetic implications of the epistolary mode In particular the essays in this volume illuminate the potential of the epistolary including digital forms for rendering contemporary sensitivities The volume thus offers a comprehensive assessment of letter narratives in contemporary literature Through its focus on the aesthetic and structural aspects of new epistolary fiction the inclusion of various narrative forms and the consideration of both conventional letters and their new digital kindred The Epistolary Renaissance offers novel insight into a multi faceted re new ed genre World War One Short Stories Bob Blaisdell,2013-09-19 This original anthology features tales written mostly by former soldiers and others with firsthand experience of World War I s devastation Contents include Introduction to the Trenches by Richard Aldington The Blind Ones by Isaak Babel and tales by Ernest Hemingway Ford Madox Ford John Galsworthy Rudyard Kipling Katherine Mansfield and others The Penguin Book of First World War Prose Jon Glover,Jon Silkin,1989 The Cambridge Companion to the English Short Story Ann-Marie Einhaus,2016-06-06 This Companion provides an accessible overview of the contexts periods and subgenres of English language short fiction outside of North America The Lost Art of Silence Sarah Anderson,2023-12-05 A unique celebration of silence in art literature nature and spirituality and an exploration of its ability to bring inner peace widen our perspectives and inspire the human spirit in spite of the noise of contemporary life Silence is habitually overlooked after all throughout our lives it has to compete with the cacophony of the outside world and our near constant interior dialogue that judges analyzes compares and questions But if we can get past this barrage there lies a quiet place that s well worth discovering The Lost Art of Silence encourages us to embrace this pursuit and allow the warm light of silence to glow Invoking the wisdom of many of the greatest writers thinkers contemplatives historians musicians and artists Sarah Anderson reveals the sublime nature of quiet that s all too often undervalued Throughout she shares her own penetrating insights into the potential for silence to transform us This celebration of silence invites us to widen our perspective and shows its power to inspire the human spirit in spite of the distracting noise of contemporary life Texas South Plains War Stories Larry A. Williams,Katherine McLamore,2021-07-30 Every veteran has a story to tell often ones they have not told their own families But as one vet in this collection of original interviews succinctly said of his combat experiences Some things are better left unsaid Documenting recollections from survivors of World War II Korea Vietnam and other conflicts all residents of the Texas Panhandle this book presents narratives from men and women whose young lives for good or ill were defined by their participation in warfare in service to their country Play Among Books Miro Roman,Alice_ch3n81,2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science The British and Irish Short Story Handbook David Malcolm,2012-01-12 The British and Irish Short Story Handbook guides readers through the development of the short story and the unique critical issues involved in discussions of short fiction It includes a wide ranging analysis of non canonical and non realist

writers as well as the major authors and their works providing a comprehensive and much needed appraisal of this area Guides readers through the development of the short story and critical issues involved in discussions of short fiction Offers a detailed discussion of the range of genres in the British and Irish short story Includes extensive analysis of non canonical writers such as Hubert Crackanthorpe Ella D Arcy T F Powys A E Coppard Julian Maclaren Ross Mollie Panter Downes Denton Welch and Sylvia Townsend Warner Provide a wide ranging discussion of non realist and experimental short stories Includes a large section on the British short story in the Second World War Romantic Wars Philip Shaw,2017-07-05 Romantic Wars is a collection of eight specially commissioned essays focusing on the relations between British Romantic culture poetry fiction painting and non fictional prose and the Revolutionary and Napoleonic wars Whilst in recent years much attention has been paid to the influence of the French Revolution on British Romanticism comparatively little has been written about the effects of war This book takes as its central thesis the idea that Romanticism is facilitated and conditioned by a culture of hostility Whether this is manifested in Blakean visions of mental warfare or in socio historical reflections on the links between conflict and nationhood the essays in this volume seek to correct a prevailing assumption that the culture of this period is unaffected by discourses of violence Through a combination of individual case studies detailed readings of warfare in Coleridge Byron Charlotte Smith and Austen and wider ranging survey discussions including essays on the representation of the British sailor and war poetry by women the book provides a timely reflection on the texts and contexts of the first Great War The book is aimed at literary specialists and historians working in the areas of Romanticism and European history It will also appeal to general readers with an interest in early nineteenth century writing and British culture

Inter- and Transcultural Learning in the Context of Canadian Young Adult Fiction Grit Alter,2015 Within the past few years transcultural learning has become one of the key terms in TEFL theory Central concerns in current research include differentiating between inter and transcultural learning navigating processes of understanding otherness and assessing cultural competences Using these aspects this study investigates texts recommended for cultural learning and key components of implementing literature in ELT The results call for a more holistic perception of alterity and argue in favour of transcultural literature as a basis for transcultural learning All of this dissertation is in English Subjects Literary Criticism Education Series Fremdsprachendidaktik in globaler Perspektive Vol 5 Handbook of British Literature and Culture of the First World War Ralf Schneider,Jane Potter,2021-09-20 The First World War has given rise to a multifaceted cultural production like no other historical event This handbook surveys British literature and film about the war from 1914 until today The continuing interest in World War I highlights the interdependence of war experience the imaginative re creation of that experience in writing and individual as well as collective memory In the first part of the handbook the major genres of war writing and film are addressed including of course poetry and the novel but also the short story furthermore it is shown how our conception of the Great War is broadened when looked at from the perspective of gender studies and post colonial criticism The chapters in the second part present close readings of important contributions to the literary and filmic representation of World War I in Great Britain All in all the contributions demonstrate how the opposing forces of focusing and canon formation on the one hand and broadening and revision of the canon on the other have characterised British literature and culture of the First World War Borders and Border Crossings in the Contemporary British Short Story Barbara Korte, Laura Ma Lojo-Rodríguez, 2020-01-02 This book represents a contribution to both border studies and short story studies In today's world there is ample evidence of the return of borders worldwide as material reality as a concept and as a way of thinking This collection of critical essays focuses on the ways in which the contemporary British short story mirrors questions and engages with border issues in national and individual life At the same time the concept of the border as well as neighbouring notions of liminality and intersectionality is used to illuminate the short story's unique aesthetic potential The first section Geopolitics and Grievable Lives includes chapters that address the various ways in which contemporary stories engage with our newly bordered world and borders within contemporary Britain The second section examines how British short stories engage with Ethnicity and Liminal Identities while the third Animal Encounters and Metamorphic Bodies focuses on stories concerned with epistemological borders and borderlands of existence and identity Taken together the chapters in this volume demonstrate the varied and complex ways in which British short stories in the twenty-first century engage with the concept of the border The Penguin Classics Book Henry Eliot, 2019-02-21 Shortlisted for Waterstones Book of the Year The Penguin Classics Book is a reader's companion to the largest library of classic literature in the world Spanning 4 000 years from the legends of Ancient Mesopotamia to the poetry of the First World War with Greek tragedies Icelandic sagas Japanese epics and much more in between it encompasses 500 authors and 1 200 books bringing these to life with lively descriptions literary connections and beautiful cover designs Reader's Guide to Military History Charles Messenger, 2013-10-31 This book contains some 600 entries on a range of topics from ancient Chinese warfare to late 20th century intervention operations Designed for a wide variety of users it encompasses general reviews of aspects of military organization and science as well as specific wars and conflicts The book examines naval and air warfare as well as significant individuals including commanders theorists and war leaders Each entry includes a listing of additional publications on the topic accompanied by an article discussing these publications with reference to their particular emphases strengths and limitations The Oxford Handbook of Victorian Literary Culture Juliet John, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Victorian Literary Culture is a major contribution to the dynamic field of Victorian studies This collection of 37 original chapters by leading international Victorian scholars offers new approaches to familiar themes including science religion and gender and gives space to newer and emerging topics including old age fair play and economics Structured around three broad sections on Ways of Being Identity and Ideology Ways of Understanding Knowledge and Belief and Ways of Communicating Print and Other Cultures the volume is sub divided into nine sub sections each with its own lead essay on subjectivity politics gender and sexuality place and race religion science material and mass culture aesthetics and visual culture and theatrical culture The collection like today's Victorian studies is thoroughly interdisciplinary and yet its substantial Introduction explores a concern which is evident both implicitly and explicitly in the volume's essays that is the nature and status of literary culture and the literary from the Victorian period to the present The diverse and wide ranging essays present original scholarship framed accessibly for a mixed readership of advanced undergraduates graduate students and established scholars
