The discrepancies between the private diary and its use as a narrative device are explored through the writings of Frances Burney Elizabeth Gaskell Anne Bront Dinah Craik Wilkie Collins and Bram Stoker It also considers women as writers readers and subjects and demonstrates ways in which women could become performers of their own story through a narrative method which was authorized by their femininity and at the same time allowed them to challenge the myth of domestic womanhood This book will be of interest to those studying 19th century literature and women in literature A Match for Mary Bennet Eucharista Ward O.S.F., 2009-10-01 A unique and inspirational Pride and Prejudice sequel that will resonate with all readers who can relate to Mary Bennet's determination to live according to God s wishes Written by a Franciscan nun this is a sympathetic tale of the middle Bennet sister from Pride and Prejudice Pious Mary Bennet tries to do her duty in the world as she thinks God envisions it Initially believing mistakenly that her sister Elizabeth married well only in order to provide for her sisters Mary is happy to be relieved of the obligation to
