Venus in Furs Leopold Ritter von Sacher-Masoch, 2004 Leopold von Sacher Masoch was born in Lemberg Austrian Galicia on January 27 1836 He studied jurisprudence at Prague and Graz and in 1857 became a teacher at the latter university He published several historical works but soon gave up his academic career to devote himself wholly to literature For a number of years he edited the international review Auf der Höhe at Leipzig but later removed to Paris for he was always strongly Francophile His last years he spent at Lindheim in Hesse Germany where he died on March 9 1895 In 1873 he married Aurora von Rumelin who wrote a number of novels under the pseudonym of Wanda von Dunajew which it is interesting to note is the name of the heroine of Venus in Furs Her sensational memoirs which have been the cause of considerable controversy were published in 1906 During his career as writer an endless number of works poured from Sacher Masoch's pen Many of these were works of ephemeral journalism and some of them unfortunately pure sensationalism for economic necessity forced him to turn his pen to unworthy ends There is however a residue among his works which has a distinct literary and even greater psychological value His principal literary ambition was never completely fulfilled It was a somewhat programmatic plan to give a picture of contemporary life in all its various aspects and interrelations under the general title of the Heritage of Cain This idea was probably derived from Balzac's Comédie Humaine The whole was to be divided into six subdivisions with the general titles Love Property Money The State War and Death Each of these divisions in its turn consisted of six novels of which the last was intended to summarize the author's conclusions and to present his solution for the problems set in the others This extensive plan remained unachieved and only the first two parts Love_ and _Property were completed Of the other sections only fragments remain The present novel Venus in Furs forms the fifth in the series Love The best of Sacher Masoch's work is characterized by a swift narration and a graphic representation of character and scene and a rich humor The latter has made many of his shorter stories dealing with his native Galicia little masterpieces of local color
