Modernism and Totalitarianism Richard Shorten, 2012-11-15 What is totalitarianism In what ways was it modern Modernism and Totalitarianism argues that conventional theories of totalitarianism are too focused on the state and fail to take note of its ideological trajectory The book analyses this trajectory shared by Nazism and Stalinism the two instances of totalitarianism in its classical form The ideological trajectory was formed in the interaction of three currents of modernist thought utopianism scientism and revolutionary violence Developing first of all in the nineteenth century and in reaction to the Enlightenment mainstream each of these three currents contributed to the idea of the totalitarian New Man The book considers a broad range of theoretical positions including those associated with Cold War liberalism critical theory and recent anti totalitarian thought in France in order to develop these arguments AP European History Premium Seth A.

Jaffe, 2024-07-18 Religious Satire in the Era of New Atheism presents a contemporary account of religious satire as evidenced by the modern art of stand up comedy Focused on the context of the post 9 11 American culture phenomenon sometimes referred to as the New Atheism as embodied by public intellectuals such as Christopher Hitchens Sam Harris and Richard Dawkins it documents the rise of comedic satire in relation to evangelical beliefs and religious dogma Drawing on the author's own experience of stand up performance it examines the comedy of figures such as Mark Maron Bill Maher and Ricky Gervais and presents material from interviews with comedians including Lewis Black John Fugelsang and Leigh Ann Lord to provide unique insights into some of the issues and definitions surrounding satire With attention to the demonstrable rise in religious satire following the events of September 11 2001 the author considers the clear link between this increase and the New Atheist movement exploring shared themes and presence at specific events such that stand up comedy represents the Avant Garde of the New Atheists Hearts and Minds Oliver Letwin, 2017-10-02

An important new book by one of Britain's great liberal thinkers Hearts and Minds is part memoir part political history and part history of ideas In it former Cabinet minister Oliver Letwin explains how the central ideas and policies of the modern Conservative party came into being how they have played out over the period from Mrs Thatcher to Mrs May and what needs to happen next in order to make the country a better place to live Far from being a sugar coated version of events Letwin tells a story that he hopes will persuade readers that politicians are capable of recognising their mistakes and learning from them and will show that social and economic liberalism if correctly conceived are capable of addressing the issues that confront us today The book also describes Letwin's own journey from a remarkable childhood with American academic parents via Margaret Thatcher's policy unit into the very centre of first the Conservative Liberal Democrat coalition and then the Cameron government where as Minister for Government Policy and then Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster every piece of government policy crossed his desk It includes Letwin's personal reflections on two devastating electoral events the EU referendum and the general election of June 2017

The Devil in History Vladimir Tismaneanu, 2014-03-14

The Devil in History is a provocative analysis of the relationship between communism and fascism Reflecting the author's personal experiences within communist totalitarianism this is a book about political passions radicalism utopian ideals and their catastrophic consequences in the twentieth century's experiments in social engineering Vladimir Tismaneanu brilliantly compares communism and fascism as competing sometimes overlapping and occasionally strikingly similar systems of political totalitarianism He examines the inherent ideological appeal of these radical revolutionary political movements the visions of salvation and revolution they pursued the value and types of charisma of leaders within these political movements the place of violence within these systems and their legacies in contemporary politics The author discusses thinkers who have shaped contemporary understanding of totalitarian movements people such as Hannah Arendt Raymond Aron Isaiah Berlin Albert Camus Francois Furet Tony Judt Ian Kershaw Leszek Kolakowski Richard Pipes and Robert C Tucker As much a theoretical analysis of the practical philosophies of Marxism Leninism and Fascism as it is a political biography of particular figures this book deals with the incarnation of diabolically nihilistic principles of human subjugation and conditioning in the name of presumably pure and purifying goals Ultimately the author claims that no ideological commitment no matter how absorbing should ever prevail over the sanctity of human life He comes to the conclusion that no party movement or leader holds the right to dictate to the followers to renounce their critical faculties and to embrace a pseudo miraculous a mystically self centered delusional vision of mandatory happiness

Which Way America? Lyman Bryson, 1939

Fascism and Paganism Craig Read, 2006

Fascism is not a modern era phenomenon nor is it unique It has been the de facto organizing principle of mankind for most of history Paganism is a form of pre modern fascism Most religious orthodoxies are of course premised on pagan cults Modern fascism uses the guise of spirituality in the form of paganism to spiritually justify its assault on civilization When the two are fused spiritual paganism with modern fascism you have a violent and hate filled philosophy that finds its expression in Hitlerism Communism and Islam This book compares these three modern forms of an age old evil that has been the main obstacle to human progress This book was written after extensive research travel interviews and help from others more knowledgeable on certain topics I don't pretend to be an expert in all the areas of historical political and economic development Nor am I posing as the expert investigator on any of the chosen themes that populate the work Thousands of more competent analysts exist in each area I wrote this book to objectively narrate a common thread and threat in human history namely that of Fascism and its orientalist genetic composition It is important in life to impartially record reality to see the world for what it is and to defend our civilization against utopia's fantasies and evil. In this regard we need more literature and expositions which make the link between the various ideologies which are in essence pagan cults, their commonality throughout history and their threat to civilization. It is the threat posed to civilization by immoderate Islam, another type of pagan cult that prompted the creation of this summary work. Let me explain as well what this book is not. It is not a diatribe against individual Muslims; it is not a declaration of hate against any non-Western people, lands or empires; it is not intended to be the most detailed study of any of the fascist cults past or present and it is not intended to supplant any of the existing literature on Nazism, Stalinism or Islam. The book does intend, however, to show a common framework amongst the pagan ideologies that have tried to end mankind's development and extinguish liberty. To keep the book short and concise I have chosen to focus on three primary cults, namely Hitler's Germany, Lenin-Stalinism in Russia and Islam. I could have discussed other cults and movements but the essential points I want to make can be given by examining these three ideological fascisms. The conclusions formed by such a comparison can be extended to various other criminal ideologies and regimes throughout mankind's history. I hope the book clarifies some ideals, opens some minds and gives some food for thought. You can read the book in its entirety or skip to a chapter that is of more interest. I have tried to keep all the footnotes down to a minimum though I do source all ideas that are not my own. If you have any questions on sources, content or where my ideas come from then please ask. As for people who constantly harp that criticism is akin to hate speech, do some reading, live in a fascist state and understand what freedom really means. My website is www.craigread.com. Craig Read, Toronto, Canada. Happy home of a corrupt paternalistic over-governed Socialist State. Other works include 2 books on Churchill and USA vs Europe, Power and Conflict; many articles and opinions exist at www.craigread.com. Communism Versus Fascism William Z. Foster, 1941. Popular Opinion in Totalitarian Regimes Paul Corner, 2009-10. A team of internationally acknowledged experts examines the question of popular opinion in totalitarian regimes, looking at the ways in which ordinary people experienced everyday life in the Soviet Union, Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy, with consideration also of Poland and East Germany between 1945 and 1989. Democracy is Different, 1941. Europe's Century of Discontent Shlomo Avineri, Zeev Sternhell, 2003. With the demise of the Soviet Union and the collapse of Communism in Eastern Europe, a number of questions regarding the conventional understanding of totalitarianism could now be viewed in the new light. The classical studies of totalitarianism were undertaken when Nazism and Fascism had been vanquished while the Soviet system still existed; this created an asymmetry which could now be overcome. The ideological Cold War, which sometimes accompanied debates about totalitarianism, was similarly blunted. The impetus which these developments could give to new angles of research and historical perspective was the focus of the conference 'Reflections on Europe's Century of Discontent' held at the Institute for European Studies at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. More than a dozen participants from eight countries, political scientists, historians, lawyers as well as political activists, took part in what was an exciting exercise in reevaluation and re assessments The results are presented in this volume Fascism and Communism François Furet, Ernst Nolte, 2001-01-01 In his major work on communism the international bestseller The Passing of an Illusion the eminent French historian François Furet devoted a lengthy footnote to German historian Ernst Nolte's interpretation of fascism Nolte responded a correspondence ensued and the result was the remarkable exchange presented in this volume Fascism and Communism offers readers the rare opportunity to witness and learn from a confrontation between two of the world's most distinguished historians over one of the most serious subjects of our time Each from a different perspective Furet and Nolte offer compelling arguments for the common genealogy of these two ideologies as well as reasons for the intellectual community's rejection of this explosive thesis throughout the twentieth century This discussion leads to a deeper understanding of the nature of totalitarianism as well as the trajectory and interpretation of modern European history

Fascism Hugh Purcell, 1977 Nazism, Fascism and the Working Class Timothy W. Mason, 1995-03-09 This collection of essays four of which are published in English for the first time represents the life's work of the historian Tim Mason one of the most original and perceptive scholars of National Socialism who pioneered its social and labour history His provocative articles and essays written between 1964 and 1990 exhibit a combination of empirical rigour and theoretical astuteness which made them landmarks in the definition and elaboration of major debates in the historiography of National Socialism These ten essays collect together Mason's most significant writings including discussions of the domestic origins of the Second World War the role of Hitler and the character of working class resistance as well as his pathbreaking study of women under National Socialism and examples of comparative work on fascism and Nazism A complete bibliography of his publications is also appended Stalinism and Nazism Henry Rousso, Richard Joseph Golsan, 2004-01-01 In this volume Europe's leading modern historians offer new insights into two totalitarian regimes of the twentieth century that have profoundly affected world history Nazi Germany and the Stalinist Soviet Union Until now historians have paid more attention to the similarities between these two regimes than to their differences Stalinism and Nazism explores the difficult relationship between the history and memory of the traumas inflicted by Nazi and Soviet occupation in several Eastern European countries in the twentieth century The first part of the volume explores the origins nature and organization of Hitler's and Stalin's dictatorial power the manipulation of violence by the state systems and the comparative power of the dictator's personal will and the encompassing totalitarian system The second part examines the legacies of the Nazi and Stalinist regimes in Eastern European countries that experienced both Stalinism and Nazism features the latest critical perspectives on two of the most influential and deadly political regimes in modern history Beating the Fascists? Eve Rosenhaft, 2008-11-06 In this book Eve Rosenhaft examines the involvement of Communists in political violence during the years of Hitler's rise to power in Germany 1929-33 Specifically she aims to account for their participation in street fighting or gang fighting with National Socialist storm troopers The origins of this conflict are examined at two levels First Dr Rosenhaft analyses the official policy of the Communist Party towards fascism and Nazism and the special anti fascist and self defence organizations which it developed Among the aspects of Communist policy that are explored are the relation between the international confrontation between Communists and Social Democrats as claimants to lead the left and the implications of this dispute in German politics the ideological difficulties in the implementation of Communist policy in a period of economic dislocation and the organizational problems posed by the fight against fascism Dr Rosenhaft then explores the attitudes and experience of the Communist rank and file engaged in the struggle against fascism concentrating on the city of Berlin where a fierce contest for control of the streets was waged
