VAT Treatment of 'Imported Services' Mervyn Dendy,2012-09-25 Section 11 2 k of the Value Added Tax Act 89 of 1991 provides for the zero rating of a supply of services where the services are physically rendered outside the Republic In this monograph the author analyses that provision and other relevant sections of the VAT Act with a view to determining whether it is possible to zero rate imported services falling within the ambit of section 7 1 c of the Act where work is performed outside the Republic but the product of that work for example a computer program is supplied to a South African consumer for use within the Republic otherwise than in the making of taxable supplies The meaning of the word rendered in section 11 2 k is determined in the light of the governing rules of statutory interpretation after which the controversial decisions in ITC 1812 and Metropolitan Life Ltd v Commissioner for South African Revenue Service are subjected to detailed and penetrating analysis in order to assess whether section 11 2 as a whole can contrary to those decisions apply to imported services
