Third Grade Boom Town Test:

Boom Town Marjorie Rosen, 2009-10 Investigating the personal stories behind the headquarters of the Wal Mart empire this examination focuses on the growth of Bentonville Arkansas a microcosm of America s social political and cultural shift Numerous personalities are interviewed including a multimillionaire Palestinian refugee who arrived penniless and is now dedicated to building a synagogue a Mexican mother of three who was fired after injuring herself on the job a black executive hired to diversify Wal Mart whose arrival coincided with a KKK rally and a Hindu father concerned about interracial dating In documenting these citizens stories this account reveals the challenges and issues facing those who compose this and other boom towns where demographics the economy and immigration and migration patterns are continually in flux In shedding light on these important and timely anecdotes of America s changing rural and suburban landscape this exploration provides an entertaining and intimate chronicle of the different ethnicities races and religions as well as their ongoing struggles to adapt Emerging as subtle sociology combined with drama and humanity this overview illustrates the imperceptible and occasionally unpredictable movements that affect the nonmetropolitan environment of the United States
