The Spanish Baroque and Latin American Literary Modernity Crystal Anne Chemris, 2021 This book aims to develop a broader view of the trajectory of Hispanic modernity tracing a motif of recurring impasse first seen in peninsular Baroque texts and continuing into Latin American colonial and modern literature Inspired by Walter Benjamin s notion of constellation this book draws on theories of Latin American modernity to investigate the Spanish literary Baroque and its repetitions as a historical cultural predicament in Latin American colonial and modern texts Inca Garcilaso Borges Carpentier Rulfo Dar o and a range of Latin American Post Symbolist poets Agustini Pizarnik Sosa Lienlaf and Huinao are juxtaposed with the Lazarillo the Quijote Fuenteovejuna and G ngora s Soledades to produce original readings on topics of violence rape frustrated pilgrimage and the truncated ambitions of colonized peoples and confessional minorities In turn Benjamin is juxtaposed with Mallarmé to recast the aesthetic dynamics of modernity in political terms in order to understand the Baroque within a more broadly historicized concept of the avant garde Generous in scope this book addresses the community of Spanish and Latin American criticism as well as emerging and pressing theoretical concerns within the field of comparative literature

The Real Thing Georg M. Gugelberger, 1996 Presented as the authentic testimony of the disenfranchised the colonized and the oppressed testimonio has in the last two decades emerged as one of the most significant genres of Latin America's post boom literature In the political battles that have taken place around the formation of the canon the testimonio holds a special place no other single genre of literature has taken up such a large part of current debate Initially hailed in the 1970s as a genuine form of resistance literature testimonio has since undergone a significant change in its critical reception The essays in The Real Thing analyze the testimonio its history and its place in contemporary consciousness Although the literature of testimony arose on the margins of institutional power and its ends were in large part political change the canonization of testimonio by the academic Left has moved it from margin to center ironically bringing about the institutionalization of its transgressive and counter hegemonic qualities Discussing Latin American works ranging from Salvadorian writer Roque Dalton's Miguel Marmol to I Rigoberta Menchu a work that earned its author a Nobel Prize this collection explores how critical writing about testimonio has turned into discourse about the institution of academia the canon postmodernism and postcolonialism and the status of Latin American studies generally Contributors John Beverley Santiago Col's Georg M Gugelberger Barbara Harlow Fredric Jameson Alberto Moreiras Margaret Randall Javier Sanjines Elzbieta Sklodowska Doris Sommer Gareth Williams George Y dice Marc Zimmerman

Writing as Poaching Robert A. Folger, 2011-09-20 Colonial Spanish bureaucracy produced masses of autobiographical texts relaciones de m ritos and servicios which forced invited individuals to present themselves as perfect subjects of the King in order to be rewarded Bureaucracy produced the officials of the colonial regime and at the same time it provided individuals with the possibility of exploring the literary potential of writing one's curriculum vitae This book helps contextualize a body of often used yet understudied historic sources it indicates that the fabric of early modern society was held together by a pervasive economy of mercedes rewards and it shows that the tension between state induced production of autobiographical documents and the individual's endeavor to outsmart this system is at the origin of modern forms of literature

Spain Beyond Spain Bradley S. Epps, Luis Fernández Cifuentes, 2005 Spain Beyond Spain Modernity, Literary History and National Identity is a collection of essays in modern Spanish literary and cultural studies by sixteen specialists from Spain, the United States and Great Britain. The essays have a common point of origin: a major conference entitled España fuera de España Los espacios de la historia literaria held in the spring of 2001 at Harvard University. The essays also have a common focus: the fate of literary history in the wake of theory and its attendant programs of inquiry, most notably cultural studies, postcolonial studies, new historicism, women's studies and transatlantic studies. Their points of arrival, however, vary significantly. What constitutes Spain and what counts as Spanish are primary concerns subtending related questions of history, literature, nationality and cultural production. Brad Epps is Professor of Romance Languages and Literatures and of the Committee on Degrees in Women's Gender and Sexuality Studies at Harvard University. Luis Fernández Cifuentes is Robert S. and Ilse Friend Professor of Romance Languages and Literatures at Harvard University.

Defining and Defying Borders Vanessa Marie Fernández, 2024-01-31 Tracing heated exchanges between Spanish and Latin American intellectuals that took place in journals, magazines and newspapers in the early twentieth century, Defining and Defying Borders details how borders and boundaries were contested within a medium that simultaneously crossed borders and defined boundaries. Vanessa Marie Fernández demonstrates that print media is an invaluable resource for scholars because it offers a nuanced perspective of the complex postcolonial relationship between Spain and Latin America that shaped aesthetic production within and beyond national boundaries. Presenting inclusive paradigms that are at once able to transcend borders, acknowledge national boundaries and account for empire, Defining and Defying Borders illustrates that investigating journals, magazines and newspapers is crucial to better understanding postcolonial literary and cultural production.
