Nursing Reflections For Meetings:

Reflections on Community Psychiatric Nursing Tony Gillam, 2003-09-02 Reflections on Community Psychiatric Nursing provides new insights into many aspects of the CPN's work. Written by a practising CPN, this is a lively and easy to read introduction to the key debates in community mental health covering issues including professional identity, the community and the role of the nurse, teaching, assessment and clinical supervision, good practice and the concept of risk, mental health promotion, user involvement, treatment from medication to psychosocial interventions. This text is essential reading for students and those undertaking further training as CPN's. In addition, practising nurses and other professionals will find it useful in developing their own reflective practice as well as offering a useful overview of an increasingly important area of nursing.

Reflective Practice in Nursing Chris Bulman, Sue Schutz, 2013-05-06 Reflective Practice is increasingly recognised as an important topic that has the potential to help nurses to develop and learn from their practice. This practical and accessible guide uses the latest research and evidence to support the development of skills in reflective practice and provides help and advice on how to get started, how to write reflectively and how to continue to use reflective practice in everyday situations. This fourth edition of Reflective Practice in Nursing contains new material on mentoring and supervision and on group reflection and includes a new chapter on teaching reflective practice. Reflective Practice in Nursing is an indispensable guide for students and practitioners alike who wish to learn more about reflective practice as well as containing essential information for teachers and lecturers.

Skill and Education: Reflection and Experience Bo Göransson, Magnus Florin, 2012-12-06 This book has an important starting point in the conference held in Stockholm in May/June 1988 on Culture, Language and Artificial Intelligence. It assembled more than 300 researchers and practitioners in the fields of technology, philosophy, history of ideas, literature, linguistics, social science etc. The conference was an initiative from the Swedish Center for Working Life based on the project AI Based Systems and the Future of Language Knowledge and Responsibility in Professions within the COST 13 programme of the European Commission Participants in the conference and researchers related to its aims were chosen to contribute to this book It is preceded by Knowledge Skill and Artificial Intelligence ed B G ranzon and I Josefson Springer Verlag 1988 Artificial Intelligence Culture and Language ed B G ranzon and M Florin Springer Verlag 1990 and Dialogue and Technology Art and Knowledge ed B G ranzon and M Florin Springer Verlag 1991 The two latter books have the same conference connection as this one and their aim is to present the contours of a research field with a multitude of issues that demands thorough investigation The contributors thinking in this field varies greatly so do their styles of writing For example contributors have varied in their choice of he or she for the third person No distinction is intended but chapters have been left with the original usage to avoid extensive changes Similarly individual contributors preference as to notes or reference lists have been followed
