Spot on Economic and Management Sciences ,2013 Thorstein Veblen Erik S. Reinert,Francesca L.

Viano,2014-10-01 After his death Thorstein Veblen was hailed as America s Darwin and Marx and is normally portrayed as the perennial iconoclast He severely criticised traditional economics and attempted to create an alternative approach based on a much more complex view of human beings He is one of the most celebrated economists of our age and has been the inspiration for many books the predatory version of capitalism we now again experience the phenomenon of studying cultures of consumption and the darker sides of gilded ages can be traced back to Veblen A conference in Veblen s ancestral Norway marked the 150th anniversary of his birth The aim of the conference was to consolidate Veblen scholarship and evaluate his relevance for the problems of today This collection offers the results of that endeavour it is a milestone of Vebleniana which assesses all the most salient aspects of his life and influence Many of its contributors also push into uncharted territory examining the man and his work from new and necessary perspectives hitherto ignored by scholarship

Reorienting Economics Tony Lawson,2003 This eagerly anticipated new book from Tony Lawson contends that economics can profit from a more explicit concern with ontology enquiry into the nature of existence than has been its custom By admitting that economics is not exactly a picture of health at the moment Lawson hopes that we can move away from the bafflingly intransigent belief that economics is at its core reliant upon mathematical modelling This maths envy is the reason why economics is in a state of such disarray Far from being a polemic against the mainstream this excellent new book is concerned that if economics is to be saved from itself then there must be a realistic dialogue between the classical heterodox fields Of interest to philosophers sociologists and social scientists as well as economists this comprehensive logical book is a vital contribution to an important debate

Office of Education,1963 Federal Register ,2002-11 The Soul's Economy Jeffrey Sklansky,2003-10-16 Tracing a seismic shift in American social thought Jeffrey Sklansky offers a new synthesis of the intellectual transformation entailed in the rise of industrial capitalism For a century after Independence the dominant American understanding of selfhood and society came from the tradition of political economy which defined freedom and equality in terms of ownership of the means of self employment However the gradual demise of the household economy rendered proprietary independence an increasingly embattled ideal Large landowners and industrialists claimed the right to rule as a privilege of their growing monopoly over productive resources while dispossessed farmers and workers charged that a propertyless populace was incompatible with true liberty and democracy Amid the widening class divide nineteenth century social theorists devised a new science of American society that came to be called social psychology The change Sklansky charts begins among Romantic writers such as Ralph Waldo Emerson and Margaret Fuller continues through the polemics of political economists such as Henry George and William Graham Sumner and culminates with the pioneers of modern American psychology and sociology such as William James and Charles Horton Cooley Together these writers reconceived freedom in terms of psychic self expression instead of economic self interest and they redefined democracy in terms of cultural kinship rather than social compact Underground Economics William M. Dugger,1992 Comprises a collection of essays on institutional economics from the point of view of a dissenting institutional economist Traces the development of institutional economics examines its relation to mainstream neoclassical economics and describes the theoretical foundations and methodology Explores the increasing power of the corporation in the economy and society and investigates approaches to economic planning which turn away from corporatism and toward greater economic democracy

The Year-book of the Scientific and Learned Societies of Great Britain and Ireland ,1895 Course Offerings, Enrollments, and Curriculum Practices in Public Secondary School, 1972-73 Logan Osterndorf,Paul J. Subcommittee on Children, Family, Drugs and Alcoholism,1992 A Man's Place John Tosh,2008-10-01 divDomesticity is generally treated as an aspect of women s history In this fascinating study of the nineteenth century middle class John Tosh shows how profoundly men s lives were conditioned by the Victorian ideal and how they negotiated its many contradictions Tosh begins by looking at the experience of boyhood married life sex and fatherhood in the early decades of the nineteenth century illustrated by case studies representing a variety of backgrounds and then contrasts this with the lives of the late Victorian generation He finds that the first group of men placed a new value on the home as a reaction to the disorienting experience of urbanization and as a response to the teachings of Evangelical Christianity Domesticity still proved problematic in practice however because most men were likely to be absent from home for most of the day and the role of father began to acquire its modern indeterminacy By the 1870s men were becoming less enchanted with the pleasures of home Once the rights of wives were extended by law and society marriage seemed less attractive and the bachelor world of clubland flourished as never before The Victorians declared that to be fully human and fully masculine men must be active participants in domestic life In exposing the contradictions in this ideal they defined the climate for gender politics in the next century DIV Summary of Offerings and Enrollments in Public Secondary Schools, 1972-73 Logan Osterndorf,1975 Women, Work, and Place Audrey Lynn Kobayashi,1994 Comprises nine essays on the impact of age ethnic origin social class cultural and other experiential factors on the role of women as social agents in the late 19th and 20th century Official Year-book of the Scientific and Learned Societies of Great Britain and Ireland ,1934 Political Economy, Political Science and Sociology Richard Theodore Ely,1899
