Communities Douglas Morgan,Kent S. Robinson,Dennis Strachota,James A. Hough,2017-09-19 Budgeting for Local Governments and Communities is designed as the primary textbook for a quarter or semester long course in public budgeting and finance in an MPA programme Many currently available texts for this course suffer from a combination of defects that include a focus on federal and state budgeting a lack of a theoretical governance framework an omission of important topics and typically a lack of exercises and datasets for student use Budgeting for Local Governments and Communities solves all of these problems The book is exceptionally comprehensive and well written and represents the efforts of veteran authors with both teaching and real world experience Key Features Special Focus on Local Government Budgeting focuses exclusively on budgeting at the local levels of American government which are responsible for spending 40 percent of the taxes collected from citizens Integration of Theory and Practice teaching cases and chapters capture the lessons learned by professional practitioners who have extensive experience in making local public budgeting work on the ground Polity Approach to Local Budgeting presents an introduction to local budgeting as the central political activity that integrates the resources of the community into a unified whole Budgeting is presented as governance work rather than as a unique set of skills possessed by analysts and financial specialists Legal Historical Economic and Moral Foundations of Local Government Budgeting provides readers with an understanding of how the structures and processes of local budgeting systems are firmly tethered to the underlying core values legal principles and historical development of the larger American federal state and local political systems Electronic Datasets and Budgeting Exercises the text includes access to extensive electronic datasets and practice exercises that provide abundant opportunities for students to learn through doing Extensive Glossary and Bibliography covers terms on the history and practice of local public budgeting

Shadows in the Sun Gayathri Ramprasad, 2014-02-11
Presents a first of its kind cross cultural lens to mental illness through the inspiring story of Gayathri s thirty year battle with depression This literary memoir takes readers from her childhood in India where depression is thought to be a curse to life in America where she eventually finds the light within by drawing on both her rich Hindu heritage and Western medicine to spare As a young girl in Bangalore Gayathri was surrounded by the fragrance of jasmine and flickering oil lamps her family protected by Hindu gods and goddesses But as she grew older demons came forth from the dark corners of her idyllic kingdom with the scariest creatures lurking within her The daughter of a respected Brahmin family Gayathri began to feel different I can hardly eat sleep or think straight The only thing I can do is cry unending tears Her parents insisted it was all in her head Because traditional Indian culture had no concept of depression as an illness no doctor could diagnose and no medicine could heal her mysterious malady This memoir traces Gayathri s courageous battle with the depression that consumed her from adolescence through marriage and a move to the United States It was only after the birth of her first child when her husband discovered her in the backyard clawing the earth furiously with my bare hands intent on digging a grave so that I could bury myself alive that she finally found help After a stay in a psych ward she eventually found the light within an emotional and spiritual awakening from the darkness of her tortured mind Gayathri s inspiring story provides a first of its kind cross cultural view of mental illness how it is regarded in India and in America and how she drew on both her
