Arab Spring I. William Zartman,2015-08-15 Beginning in January 2011 the Arab world exploded in a vibrant demand for dignity liberty and achievable purpose in life rising up against an image and tradition of arrogant corrupt unresponsive authoritarian rule These previously unpublished countryspecific case studies of the uprisings and their still unfolding political aftermaths identify patterns and courses of negotiation and explain why and how they occur The contributors argue that in uprisings like the Arab Spring negotiation is not just a nice practice or a diplomatic exercise Rather it is a dynamically multilevel process involving individuals groups and states with continually shifting priorities and with the prospect of violence always near From that perspective the essaysits analyze a range of issues and events including civil disobedience and strikes mass demonstrations and nonviolent protest and peaceful negotiation and armed rebellion and contextualize their findings within previous struggles both within and outside the Middle East The Arab countries discussed include Algeria Bahrain Egypt Libya Morocco Syria Tunisia and Yemen The Arab Spring uprisings are discussed in the context of rebellions in countries like South Africa and Serbia while the Libyan uprising is also viewed in terms of the negotiations it provoked within NATO Collectively the essays analyze the challenges of uprisers and emerging governments in building a new state on the ruins of a liberated state the negotiations that lead either to sustainable democracy or sectarian violence and coalition building between former political and military adversaries Contributors Samir Aita Monde Diplomatique Alice Alunni Durham University Marc Anstey Nelson Mandela University Abdelwahab ben Hafaiedh MERC Maarten Danckaert European Bahraini Organization for Human Rights Heba Ezzat Cairo University Amy Hamblin SAIS Abdullah Hamidaddin King s College Fen Hampson Carleton University Roel Meijer Clingendael Karim Mezran Atlantic Council Bessma Momani Waterloo University Samiraital Pres Cercle des Economistes Arabes Aly el Raggal Cairo University Hugh Roberts ICG Tufts University Johannes Theiss Coll ge d Europe Sinisa Vukovic Leiden University I William Zartman SAIS JHU Indicates group members of the Processes of International Negotiation PIN Program at Clingendael Netherlands Revolutionary Spring Christopher Clark,2024-06-11 New York Times Book Review Editors Choice From the bestselling author of The Sleepwalkers comes an epic history of the 1848 revolutions that swept Europe and the charismatic figures who propelled them forward Refreshingly original Familiar characters are given vibrancy and previously unknown players emerge from the shadows The Times UK A BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR New Yorker The Economist Financial Times As history the uprisings of 1848 have long been overshadowed by the French Revolution of 1789 and the Russian revolutions of the early twentieth century And yet in 1848 nearly all of Europe was aflame with conflict Parallel political tumults spread like brush fire across the entire continent leading to significant changes that continue to shape our world today These battles for the future were fought with one eye kept squarely on the past The men and women of 1848 saw the urgent challenges of their world as shaped profoundly by the past and saw themselves as inheritors of a revolutionary tradition Celebrated Cambridge historian Christopher Clark describes 1848 as the particle collision chamber at the center of the European nineteenth century a moment when political movements and ideas from socialism and democratic radicalism to liberalism nationalism corporatism and conservatism were tested and transformed The insurgents asked questions that sound modern to our ears What happens when demands for political or economic liberty conflict with demands for social rights How do we reconcile representative and direct forms of democracy How is capitalism connected to social inequality The revolutions of 1848 were short lived but their impact on public life and political thought throughout Europe and beyond has been profound Meticulously researched elegantly written and filled with a cast of charismatic figures including the social theorist Alexis de Tocqueville the writer George Sand and the troubled priest F licit de Lamennais who struggled to reconcile his faith with politics Revolutionary Spring offers a new understanding of 1848 that suggests chilling parallels to our present moment Looking back at the revolutions from the end of the first quarter of the twenty first century it is impossible not to be struck by the resonances Clark writes If a revolution is coming for us it may look something like 1848 The Wilhelmina Spring (saline Chalybeate) at Haarlem C.E.
