Miller, 2014-03-28 We live these days in a virtual nation of cities and celebrities dreaming a small town America rendered ever stranger by purveyors of nostalgia and dark visionaries from Sherwood Anderson to David Lynch And yet it is the small town that world of local character and neighborhood lore that dreamed the America we know today and the small town boy like those whose stories this book tells who made it real In these life stories beginning in 1890 with frontier historian Frederick Jackson Turner and moving up to the present with global shopkeeper Sam Walton a history of middle America unfolds as entrepreneurs and teachers like Henry Ford George Washington Carver and Walt Disney artists and entertainers like Thomas Hart Benton Grant Wood Carl Sandburg and Johnny Carson political figures like William McKinley William Jennings Bryan and Ronald Reagan and athletes like Bob Feller and John Wooden by turns engender and illustrate the extraordinary cultural shifts that have transformed the Midwest and through the Midwest the nation and the world Many of these men are familiar icons even Ford and Reagan certainly Ernie Pyle Sinclair Lewis James Dean and Lawrence Welk and others like artists Oscar Micheaux and John Steuart Curry economist Alvin Hansen and composer Meredith Willson less so

But in their stories as John E Miller tells them all appear in a new light unique in their backgrounds and accomplishments united only in the way their lives reveal the persisting shaping power of place and particularly the Midwest on the cultural imagination and national consciousness In a thoroughly engaging style Miller introduces us to the small town Midwestern boys who became these all American characters privileging us with insights that pierce the public images of politicians and businessmen thinkers and entertainers alike From the smell of the farm the sounds and silences of hamlets and county seats the schoolyard athletics and classroom instruction and theatrical performance we follow these men to their moments of inspiration innovation and fame observing the workings of the small town past in their very different relationships with the larger world Their stories reveal in an intimate way how profoundly childhood experiences shape personal identity and how deeply place figures in the mapping of thought belief ambition and life s course Peterson's Annual Guides to Graduate Study Peterson's Guides, Inc,1981 History of Androscoggin County, Maine ... Georgia Drew Merrill,1891 Putting the Local in Global Education Neal W. Sobania,2023-07-03 The position taken in this volume is that domestic off campus study can be just as powerful a transformative learning experience as study overseas and that domestic programs can equally expand students horizons their knowledge of global issues and processes their familiarity and experience with cultural diversity their intercultural skills and sense of citizenship This book presents both the rationale for and examples of study away an inclusive concept that embraces study abroad while advocating for a wide variety of domestic study programs including community based education programs that employ academic service learning and internships With the growing diversification regionally demographically culturally and socio economically of developed economies such as the US the local is potentially a doorstep to the planet and presents opportunities for global learning Moreover study away programs can address many of the problematic issues associated with study abroad such as access finance participation health and safety and faculty support Between lower costs the potential to increase the participation of student cohorts typically under represented in study abroad the lowering of language barriers and the engagement of faculty whose disciplines focus on domestic issues study at home can greatly expand the reach of global learning The book is organized in five sections the first providing a framework and the rationale for domestic study way programs addressing administrative support for domestic vs study abroad programs exploring program goals organization structure assessment and continuous improvement and considering the distinct pedagogies of experiential and transformative education The second section focuses on Semester Long Faculty Led Programs featuring examples of programs located in a wide variety of locations from investigations into history immigration culture and the environment through localities in the West and the Lowcountry to exploring globalization in L A and New York Section three highlights five Short Term Faculty Led Programs While each includes an intensive immersive study away experience two illustrate how a 7 10 day study away experience can be effectively embedded into a regular course taught on campus The fourth section on Consortium Programs describes programs that are either sponsored by a college that makes its program available to consortium members and non members or is offered by an independent non for profit to which institutions send their students The final section on Community Engagement and Domestic Study Away addresses the place of community based education in global learning and provides examples of academic programs that employ service learning as a tool for collaborative learning focusing on issues of pedagogy faculty development and the building long term reciprocal relationship with community partners to co create knowledge The book is intended for study abroad professionals multicultural educators student affairs professionals alternative spring break directors and higher education administrators concerned about affordably expanding global education opportunities The Ranger School Brad Woodward,2012-05 IIE Passport, Short-term Study Abroad ,2009 Writings on Archives, Historical Manuscripts, and Current Records ,1985 Zoology 1 Alfred Marlyn Elliott,1957 Directory of Research Grants 2008 Schoolhouse Partners LLC,2008-05 Volume 2 of 2 With more than 5 100 listings of grants programs from 1 880 sponsors the Directory of Research Grants is a comprehensive directory of grants available to researchers in every field of study The directory has a broad focus featuring grants for basic research equipment acquisition building construction renovation fellowships and 23 other program types Government grants include CFDA NSF and NIH program numbers Each record includes grant title description requirements amount application deadline contact information phone fax and email web address sponsor name and address and samples of awarded grants when available Printed in two volumes each with extensive indexes subject program type and geographic to help you to identify the right program quickly Research in Education ,1974 John of History, Baptist of Faith James F. McGrath,2024-10-04 Studies of the historical Jesus typically reduce John the Baptist to a subordinate role in the story of Christian origins This meticulous historical study focuses on John himself revealing his extensive and enduring influence In the popular imagination John the Baptist plays the supporting role of Jesus s unkempt forerunner But meticulous historical study reveals his wide reaching and enduring influence on the history of religion The first study of its kind John of History Baptist of Faith sheds light on the historical John the Baptist and his world James F McGrath applies historical critical methodology not only to the New Testament but also to the Mandaean Book of John a holy text of the last extant gnostic sect McGrath uses the teachings of John s pupil Jesus as a window into his mentor s beliefs Along the way he brings new clarity to questions of contention among scholars such as John s use of immersion as a substitute for temple sacrifice Bold in its claims yet careful in its method John of History Baptist of Faith lends fresh insight into John Jesus and their world McGrath s pioneering monograph will challenge and intrigue students and scholars of the New Testament and Second Temple Judaism The Source Loretto Dennis Szucs,Sandra Hargreaves Luebking,2006 Genealogists and other historical researchers have valued the first two editions of this work often referred to as the genealogist s bible The new edition continues that tradition Intended as a handbook and a guide to selecting locating and using appropriate primary and secondary resources The Source also functions as an instructional tool for novice genealogists and a refresher course for experienced researchers More than 30 experts in this field genealogists historians librarians and archivists prepared the 20 signed chapters which are well written easy to read and include many helpful hints for getting the most out of whatever information is acquired Each chapter ends with an extensive bibliography and is further enriched by tables black and white illustrations and examples of documents Eight appendixes include the expected contact information for groups and institutions that persons studying genealogy and history need to find Annual Report of the State of Georgia, Department of Education Georgia.
