Nursing Training At Sadf For 2015:

Military Psychology for Africa Gideon Van Dyk, 2016-03-17 Military Psychology for Africa is the first textbook of its kind from Africa. Selected authors with competent military psychology knowledge, skills, expertise, and experience each contributed a chapter to this unique book. The book empowers academics, students, and military fellows to apply this knowledge at academic institutions and military units during operations and in presenting short courses. The book will also equip soldiers with new knowledge for advancing peace on the continent and abroad. The Lady Apprentices Ruth Pomeranz, 1973

Sarah Jane has no career aspirations; all she wants is to leave school work as a cashier at Woolworths and get married. Then everything changes and she finds herself wearing a fluorescent pink uniform and studying to get into Nursing School. What inspired this surprising change of direction? What happens when she leaves home to live in a garrison town with a housemate who is a party animal? The big question being is she really cut out to be a nurse? Let's start at the beginning with Sarah Jane as a sixteen-year-old country girl, a bit old-fashioned but who has a mischievous sense of humour and who suddenly decides she wants to be a nurse. This funny yet poignant nursing memoir has Sarah Jane's trademark honest writing style which shines through in every story she tells. From starting her student nurse training in Essex to coping with patients in happy and heart-breaking situations. It gives you a young woman's view into the realities of entering the world of nursing in the 1980s. A highly entertaining and informative memoir which was able to take me from laughing out loud to having welled tears of empathy. S.
