Stamatis,2015-10-17 Handful of Sand and Other Poems is a collection of images and feelings that linger in the conscience and refuse to go away They evoke emotions the author is compelled to share with the reader in understandable language without obscurity plainly deliberately Whether it's observing an ant watching a rocker sway to the breeze or simply taking a train to the city these poems help to grasp a deeper meaning in seemingly routine actions and incidents Many insist we evolve from profound life altering events that lay their mark on us However it's the unpretentious simple occurrences throughout the years that shape who we are it's the unimpressive handful of sand we overlook that holds a million lives

Invisible Mending Labriola, Anthony,2015-03-12 A themed poetry collection a kind of sance an evening to get in touch with other souls and the world they once lived in Yet as a linked collection the poems trace the arc of a life from birth to death from childhood to old age and move towards a spiritual journey in art Our lives seem to be vanishing acts perfected from birth to death The trip also takes us within There are joys and sorrows a sense of delight and also grief The collection suggests that the real horror is losing a loved one But while the poems keep an eye on death the point is life even the contemplation of a life beyond death Certainly there is remembrance a time to mend our wounds both visible and invisible Invisible Mending tries to connect with the joy and grief that binds us all Invisible Mending consists of three parts I Invisible Mending II Walking Shadows and III Mending Time The title of Part I Invisible Mending refers to a technique used to patch fabric and leather so that the wound seems to disappear My father used invisible mending in his trade plied in the late 40's after World War II but abandoned it when he came to Canada in 1952 Part II Walking Shadows is a poem sequence dealing with the life in the theatre and life as a play The poor players that strutted and fretted their hour on the stage are gone but their shadows remain in life and theatrical memory Part III Mending Time is a suite of linked poems tracing the spiritual quests of artists writers and seekers who are searching for their true worth in the world Revolution Time Paul G.
