Spirit Word Community Theological Hermeneutics In Trinitarian Perspective:

Spirit, Word, Community Amos Yong, 2006-01-31 The main thesis of Spirit Word Community is that Christian theological reflection in a postmodern world starts with the experience of the Holy Spirit but is at the same time post foundationalist in terms of being formed by the word and being adjudicated by various communities of interpretation Yet the book's hermeneutical and methodological proposals are not merely prolegomena to theology but already involve and assume theologically substantive claims derived from a pneumatological point of view Hence this is a pneumatological theology which illuminates the hermeneutical process precisely by showing how the Holy Spirit engages the human imagination to empower liberative practices in a world that remains graced by her presence and activity Spirit Word Community is meant in each of these senses to be a contribution to the formulation of a comprehensive theology of the Third Article for the twenty first century

Spirit-Word-Community Professor of Theology and Mission and Director Amos Yong, PH.D., This title was first published in 2002 How does one go about doing Christian theology Yong explores this question by proposing a pneumatological trinitarian hermeneutic Its thesis is that interpretation and theological method is an ongoing dialogue of Spirit Word Community of interpretive subjects as imaginative obligated and relational agents of the horizons of the interpreter the biblical and ecclesial traditions and the world and of founding historical and ongoing communities of faith and inquiry Ecumenical perspectives on the topics of pneumatology the doctrine of the Spirit metaphysics foundational pneumatology epistemology the pneumatological imagination and trinitarian theology converge in this book to move forward the present discussion of theological method

Theological Hermeneutics in the Classical Pentecostal Tradition L. William Oliverio, 2012-08-01 In Theological Hermeneutics in the Classical Pentecostal Tradition L. William Oliverio Jr accounts for the development of Classical Pentecostal theological hermeneutics through four hermeneutical types and concludes with a philosophical basis for future Pentecostal theological hermeneutics within the contours of a hermeneutical realism

Trinitarian Pneumatological Personhood and the Theology of John Zizioulas Ronald L. Adkins, 2023-02-28 In a growing secular society what distinguishes a Christian from a non Christian Is a Christian identified by certain religious and ceremonial activity social action principles or do their relationships identify them as Christian This book suggests that a Christian person is in a continual relationship with the Triune God through the Holy Spirit Furthermore this living relationship reflects the eternal relationship of the Father Son and Holy Spirit because people have been created in the image and likeness of the Triune God This book uses historical theological philosophical and biblical approaches to understand the Christian person Throughout this book the reader will be engaged with the modern Greek theologian John Zizioulas However this book is a study on the person of the Holy Spirit though never separated from the trinitarian relationship who makes a human person a Christian

Evangelicals, Worship and Participation Dr Alan Rathe, 2014-11-28 This book probes the ways in which turn of the millennium evangelicals in North America have regarded the landscape of participation. Rather, she views relevant evangelical literature by looking through a surprising lens borrowed from medieval theology, bringing into focus not only evangelical understandings but also the identities and historical traditions they reflect. One of the broadest reviews yet made of evangelical worship literature, this book reconnects evangelical tradition to the Great Tradition and in the process reappropriates classic concepts that are full of promise for contemporary ecumenical dialogue.

Canadian Pentecostals, the Trinity, and Contemporary Worship Music Michael A. Tapper, 2017-05-08 This volume offers a landmark analysis of the trinitarian impulses in contemporary worship music used by the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada (PAOC). It considers whether the lyrics from the most commonly used PAOC songs are consistent with this Evangelical group's trinitarian statement of faith. Colin Gunton's trinitarian theology provides the theological rationale for eight original and qualitative content analyses of these songs. Three major areas are considered: the doctrine of God, human personhood, and cosmology. Making use of Gunton's notions of relationality, particularity, and perichoresis, along with several key Pentecostal scholars, this book serves as a helpful descriptive and prescriptive theological resource for the dynamic practice of a trinitarian faith.

A Theology of the Spirit in Doctrine and Demonstration Teresa Chai, 2015-02-12 This book is called a festschrift, meaning a book of essays written to honor those who have served the academic community well over a long period of time. Drs. Wonsuk and Julie Ma, the honorees in this book, served as faculty members, journal pioneers, and editors, and academic dean at Wonsuk at the Asia Pacific Theological Seminary (www.aptse.edu) for twenty-four years (1983-2006). In 2006, Wonsuk accepted an invitation to become the Executive Director of the Oxford Centre for Mission Studies in the United Kingdom, and Julie accepted an invitation to become a research mentor at the same institution. The theme selected for this book, A Theology of the Spirit in Doctrine and Demonstration, reflects the heart of the kind of people the Mases have been and continue to be in academics, practical ministry, and most importantly in their personal lives. The list of scholars below, representing a broad array of nationalities and academic disciplines, have followed the same theme in contributing articles within areas of their particular interest and expertise: Allan Anderson, Contextualization and Pentecostal Charismatic Education in a Global Village; J. Kwabena Asamoah Gyadu, The Blessing of Abraham: Pentecostalism and Ecumenism in African Perspectives; R. G. dela Cruz, Women and the Spirit in the Bezan Test of Acts; Rose Engcoy, Historical Sketch of Wonsuk and Julie Ma; Harold D. Hunter, Pentecostal Reflections on Apostolicity; Dave Johnson, Baptism in the Holy Spirit vs. Spirit Possession in the Lowland Philippines: Some Considerations for Discipleship; Veli-Matti Karkkainen, Theological Education in a Pluralistic World; Theological Reflections; Kirsteen Kim, Mission in the Spirit: From Edinburgh to Canberra and Athens; Robert Menzies, Missional Spirituality: A Pentecostal Contribution to Spiritual Formation; Ekaputra Tupamahu, Pentecostal Feeling in Conversation with William James and Rudolf Otto; A Preliminary Exploration; Amos Yong, Pentecost and Virtual Spiritual Formation: Renewing Theological Education in Global Context.

Beyond Pentecostalism Wolfgang Vondey, 2010-09-23 The Pentecostal Manifestos series aims to speak for and to a rising outward-looking generation.

of Pentecostal scholarship Written by both established and newly emerging scholars the various manifesto volumes are to be creative statements marked by rigorous theological scholarship reflecting a distinctly Pentecostal engagement with wider themes and concerns in Christian thought today Dismantling the Dualisms for American Pentecostal Women in Ministry Lisa Stephenson, 2011-10-06 The pneumatological magna carta of Acts 2 has never translated into a fully liberating praxis for Pentecostal women in ministry Scholars have given this problem limited attention but their works do not adopt the perspective of pneumatology or engage feminist theology In neglecting pneumatology Pentecostals have ignored a methodological approach and a dominant orienting motif that is fundamental to their spirituality In neglecting feminist theology they proffer an incomplete solution that addresses anthropological paradigms to the exclusion of ecclesiological ones After analyzing the historical and theological factors resulting in the present situation among American Pentecostal women in ministry this book proposes a Feminist Pneumatological anthropology and ecclesiology that address the problematic dualisms that have perpetuated Pentecostal women's ecclesial restrictions The Kerygmatic Spirit Amos Yong, 2018-11-06 This collection of fifteen sermons by one of the leading pentecostal theologians today provides insight into the form style and content of preaching in the pentecostal tradition while also being suggestive of normative homiletical theory and practice The Kerygmatic Spirit argues that Spirit empowered preaching is apostolic not only with regard to being rooted in the scriptural traditions but also with regard to connecting the that of the early Christian message with the this of contemporary experience and discipleship Hence rather than only reflecting pentecostal preaching of the sort that happens in the pulpits of churches connected to the modern movement by that name these sermons are presented as the participating in the form of gospel proclamation inspired and empowered by the divine Spirit poured out on all flesh on the Day of Pentecost by the risen Christ from the right hand of the Father Whether read or heard there are links to video and audio archives throughout these homilies are illustrative of exegetical and expositional practice that connects the biblical text with Spirit filled faithfulness in the twenty first century ecumenical church and world at large The Many Marks of the Church William Madges, Michael J. Daley, 2006 One holy catholic and apostolic these marks have distinguished orthodox Christianity since the fifth century Today however the church is known by many other characteristics e g it is prayerful intellectual catechetical biblical ecological and sacramental In this timely book William Madges and Michael Daley invite over forty authors and theologians to reflect on both the traditional and contemporary marks of the Church back cover Anglicans and Pentecostals in Dialogue David Hilborn, Simo Frestadius, 2023-09-22 This is the first comprehensive book on Anglican and Pentecostal ecumenical relations It introduces both movements with a particular focus on their approaches to ecumenism before exploring sacraments ministry ecclesiology pneumatology and mission with respect to both traditions As well as providing more theological and historical discussion the book also offers personal accounts of local national and international ecumenical engagement by both Anglicans and Pentecostals It is written predominantly although not exclusively from a

British perspective Even so as the first major published dialogue between these two global Christian traditions the book will be of value to all interested in Anglicanism Pentecostalism and ecumenism The Grace of Being Fallible in Philosophy, Theology, and Religion Thomas John Hastings, Knut-Willy Sæther, 2020-11-05 Why is epistemic fallibilism a viable topic for Christian thought and cultural engagement today Religious fundamentalists and scientific positivists tend to deal with reality in terms of knockdown arguments and such binary approaches to lived reality have helped to underwrite the belligerence and polarization that mark this age of the social media echo chamber For those who want to take both religion and science seriously epistemic fallibilism offers a possible moderating stance that claims neither too much nor too little for either endeavor nor forces a decision for one side over and against the other This book uses this epistemological approach to fallibilism as a positive resource for conversations that arise at the intersection of philosophy theology and religion The essays explore a range of openings into the interstices of these often siloed fields with the aim of overcoming some of the impassés separating diverse ways of knowing

Pentecostals in the 21st Century Corneliu Constantineanu, Christopher James Scobie, 2018-01-11 A little over one hundred years ago the Holy Spirit breathed a fresh awakening into little communities in Topeka Kansas 1901 and then on Azusa Street in California 1906 Over the past century this spiritual awakening has touched every country on the globe By 2014 there were 631 million Pentecostals in the world comprising a quarter of all Christians and that number is forecast to grow to 800 million by 2025 This book offers a window into some of the unique features of this phenomenal movement through expert contributions from some of the world's preeminent Pentecostal theologians It presents a Pentecostal perspective on important theological themes that pastors theologians and lay leaders are grappling with in the twenty first century

The Crisis of Conversion J. August Higgins, 2024-06-25 This book attempts to identify a central problem within the North American evangelical imagination around the issue of religious experience and its relationship to the basic hermeneutical stance of biblical and theological interpretation The relatively recent emergence of the academic discipline of Christian spirituality offers a new set of methodological insights that may help to mediate the theological impasse between more conservative and progressive perspectives concerning the appropriate role of human experience for evangelical thought and practice Specifically we will explore the experience of religious conversion that lies at the center of evangelical spirituality in critical dialogue with the challenges and opportunities brought about by recent philosophical discourse and the postmodern turn variously understood

The Spirit of Creation Amos Yong, 2011-05-17 Is a pentecostal charismatic worldview defensible in light of contemporary science In The Spirit of Creation Amos Yong demonstrates that pentecostal thought does indeed have merit in scientific contexts What's more he argues that pentecostal charismatic views regarding the dynamic presence and activity of the Spirit of God and the pluralistic cosmology of many spirits have something important to add to the broad discussion now taking place at the crossroads of science and religion Interacting with many scientific fields of study including psychology sociology evolutionary science cosmology and more Yong's Spirit of Creation demonstrates the significance of pentecostal ideas to the ongoing dialogue between theology and science

An Amos Yong Reader Amos Yong, 2020-05-12 Amos Yong is the most prolific pentecostal theologian to date and his published works are so many that it is difficult to find an amiable entry point into his thought An Amos Yong Reader is the first introduction to Yong's theology in his own words It brings into one volume representative samples of the broad range of Yong's scholarship including theology of religions religion and science theology and disability political theology Luke Acts and theological method Christopher A Stephenson perhaps Yong's most insightful interpreter provides an introductory essay that both orients readers to Yong's extensive theological program and identifies the most important key to understanding Yong's theology as his most neglected work Spirit Word Community a book with implications far beyond the boundaries of Pentecostalism An Amos Yong Reader provides an overview of Yong's thought and a starting point for more thorough study in any of the major themes in his expansive corpus

Global Renewal Christianity Amos Yong, Vinson Synan, 2015-05-15 The growth of Spirit empowered Christianity has been nothing short of phenomenal From a handful of believers in the early twentieth century to a global movement today numbering over 600 million people in almost every culture and denomination those who embrace the Holy Spirit and His gifts are now the fastest growing religious group in the world This book is an authoritative collection from more than two dozen leaders in and scholars of the Spirit empowered movement in Asia and Oceania Focusing on the future of the movement these world renowned scholars address the theological and cultural challenges of the new century and share emerging insights on how the next generation will face them

Reading St. Luke's Text and Theology: Pentecostal Voices Riku P. Tuppurainen, 2019-10-16 Lukan narrative takes its readers into God's story how his salvation plan in Jesus began on the slopes of Judea and at the Sea of Galilee ending on the hill of Calvary and the Mount of Olives yet moving on and telling how the Spirit descended onto the Temple Mount empowering God's people who then began to fulfill the given mandate in the presence of the Spirit Yet readers of Luke Acts throughout the centuries have had a meandering journey as they have tried to understand the narrative's persuasion and Spirit references This book seeks to bring awareness to these challenges by some of the most respected Pentecostal biblical scholars and systematicians Here their vigorous labor with the questions of hermeneutics and theology in relation to Lukan writings have come to fruition These contributions have been collected as a Festschrift in honor and celebration of the career of Roger Stronstad a Pentecostal biblical scholar whose contribution to Lukan studies have moved Pentecostal scholarship from shadows into daylight The editor of this volume invites the readers of Lukan narrative to journey together on the road to Emmaus as we continue to ponder the events in the past the present and the future

Types of Pentecostal Theology Christopher A. Stephenson, 2016-10 In this the first critical study of the major theologians of pentecostalism Christopher A Stephenson establishes four original categories that classify recent pentecostal theologians methodologies in systematic constructive theology
