Postcards to Hitler Bruce Neuburger, 2024-04-09 Postcards to Hitler is the story of a Munich family living as close neighbors to the demagogue who will become the primordial commander of the Nazis as passionately told by one of their surviving relatives Bruce Neuburger As the story begins Europe has enjoyed many decades of peace on its own soil and Jews are enjoying a social renaissance in the industrializing urbanizing rising star that is Germany It is not at all clear that this good fortune might begin to unravel Benno Neuburger a modest German land investor

from Munich and Anna Einstein daughter of a cattle dealer from Laupheim marry in 1907 Their family life begins at a relatively prosperous moment in Germany and a particularly optimistic time for German Jews Even when news of an assassination in an obscure Balkan corner of the continent passes like a cold wind through Munich on a warm beer garden July day in 1914 people shudder but feel no great alarm What follows is a prolonged and bloody war provoked by inter colonialist competition which gives way to German defeat a revolution and a brief socialist interlude in Munich soon cannibalized by a merciless counter revolution and the pitiless demagoguery of defeated generals Living amidst this swirl Benno and Anna and their extended families in the German towns of Laupheim Traunstein and Wolfratshausen cling to hope for a peaceful resolution to the a period of prolonged crisis They struggle to survive as the economic and political climate becomes more difficult but to no avail Munich becomes the epicenter of German fascism fed by national resentment and racial madness and their own families are caught up in the storms and terror that follow Children turned refugees a bloody pogrom resettlements via train rides east desperate acts of resistance arrest and trials proceed as a Holocaust unfolds around them Postcards to Hitler is a deeply researched narrative history drawn from direct interviews and a mass of archival documents of great personal import including the Neuburgers final letters describing daily lives in close proximity to the Fuhrer and surrounded on all sides by a slow moving parade of horror until the perimeter between themselves and the Holocaust disappears

Heritage from Father Hormisdas Ndayishimiye,2014-02-12 Heritage from Father is a poignant testimony on the suffering from discrimination and the 1994 Genocide against the Tutsi in Rwanda It is also a testimony of love compassion and healing after the authors parents six brothers and sisters were killed in the genocide In this testimony the author highlights his awareness of Gods blessings upon him through people from different cultural and ethnic backgrounds It is evidence that the awareness reminds him of the values of gratitude and faith instilled by his father from early age The very values that had healed his father during the persecutions of the Tutsi in the years that preceded the horror of the 1994 genocide Heritage from Father is also an account of how the saving hand of remembrance kept away from him the pressing need for hatred that had started to overrun him and how it urged him to life in peace instead with himself and with the world This is particularly true in his personal style of forgiving the executioners of his family and relatives in spite of their refusal to own responsibility The Nation ,2010

Report United States. Congress. House,1962 Global "Body Shopping" Xiang Biao,2011-05-21 How can America s information technology IT industry predict serious labor shortages while at the same time laying off tens of thousands of employees annually The answer is the industry s flexible labor management system a flexibility widely regarded as the modus operandi of global capitalism today Global Body Shopping explores how flexibility and uncertainty in the IT labor market are constructed and sustained through concrete human actions Drawing on in depth field research in southern India and in Australia and folding an ethnography into a political economy examination Xiang Biao offers a richly detailed analysis of the India based global labor management practice known as body shopping In this practice a group of consultants body shops in different countries works together to recruit IT workers Body shops then farm out workers to clients as project based labor and upon a project s completion they either place the workers with a different client or bench them to await the next placement Thus labor is managed globally to serve volatile capital movement Underpinning this practice are unequal socioeconomic relations on multiple levels While wealth in the New Economy is created in an increasingly abstract manner everyday realities stock markets in New York benched IT workers in Sydney dowries in Hyderabad and women and children in Indian villages sustain this flexibility Networks of Contact Grace Anderson,2006-01-01 We are making an interesting break with conventional sociology In recent years sociologists anthropologists and other students of social behaviour have made considerable use of the network metaphor as a peg as a witching wand and as a blueprint from the Preface by Charles Tilly The Expibasketics and Intrigues of Love Fossungu, Peter Ateh-Afac,2016-09-01 Using expibasketical theory and findings this book attempts to understand and explain some of the wonders of love and the impacts these have on the other human institutions such as marriage and family that are supposed to be erected on love and understanding Love is a phenomenon that is hard to correctly master most probably because it is loaded with a lot of uncertainties This simple fact must be the reason behind the commonplace saying that love is blind a statement that can have several interpretations one of which being that it is hard to read or know exactly what is on the other party s mind Love thus becomes not only an intriguing feeling but also potentially full of intrigues Can love be so blind to realities and still be love The book answers many of such queries by expanding and delineating the frontiers of love and thence marriage and family The Story of a Life Simone M. Kleckner,2015-12-02 Prior to WWII when the Romanian monarchy modernized the nation Romania became one of the richest countries in Europe During that time my family was a part of privileged intellectuals and land owners After 1939 Romania was subjected to Fascism against her will and after 1945 the country came under Communist rule All of us were reduced to poverty I have witnessed how the Communist regime marginalized people and suppressed individual liberty private initiative lack of opportunities and hope I used the course of my life and decided to write its story for the purpose of showing others what an unsuccessful socialist Marxist government means When it came to power the State seized the fruits and the bounty it found however without producing anything on its own except thousands of deaths and political prisoners This is my story under a Communist regime when I lost my liberty
