

This summer Portland East Young Life plans to take 90 high school and middle school kids, and their leaders, to Washington Family Ranch's summer camps, to experience the best week of their lives. During this week these kids will be able to deepen their relationships with their leaders, eat family style meals, and experience adventure. The time kids spent at camp usually changes the course of their life, for the better. This change isn't cheap to come by though.

A week at camp costs $400 for middle school students and $500 for high school students. Please consider helping one of these kids experience the relationship and connection they need to develop into their potential, and let us thank you by representing your business or organization on the back of the t-shirts that we make for camp.

Christian Globalism at Home Hillary Kaell, 2020-06-09 An exploration of how ordinary U.S. Christians come to feel globally connected through the multibillion dollar child sponsorship industry. Christian Globalism at Home looks at the massive charitable industry that is Christian child sponsorship from its growth in nineteenth century Protestant missions to its status as one of today's most profitable private fundraising tools Investigating two centuries of sponsorship and its related practices in American living rooms churches and shopping malls Hillary Kaell examines the myriad ways that Christians who don't travel outside of the United States have cultivated global connections and the ethical and ideological questions involved Popular child sponsorship organizations including World Vision Compassion International and ChildFund raise billions of dollars and circulate millions of letters and photos around the world annually Kaell traces the movement of money letters and images along with a wide array of the lesser known techniques of sponsorship such as playacting hymn singing eating and fasting She shows how through this process U.S. Christians attempt to hone globalism of a particular sort by oscillating between the sensory experiences of a God's eye view and the intimacy of human relatedness These global aspirations are buoyed by grand hopes and subject to intractable limitations since they so often rely on the inequities they claim to redress Based on extensive interviews archival research and fieldwork Christian Globalism at Home explores how U.S. Christians imagine and experience the world without ever leaving home More Than A Shirt Joey D'Urso, 2025-06-19 Extensively researched and wonderfully written Joey's book deserves to be read by all Martin O'Neill There's more to every aspect of football than meets the eye and that's brilliantly captured here Adrian Chiles Intelligent thoughtful and brilliant Chris Mason BBC News Colourful a treat for anyone interested in football and politics Patrick Maguire The Times Original and innovative a Parts Unknown for the game Miguel Delaney Independent Smart warm and original Matt Chorley BBC Radio 5 Live Twenty Two Football Shirts that explain the world geopolitics and the biggest stories of our time Football is the world's most popular sport and the shirts worn by teams and their supporters are its greatest means of cultural expression Every year clubs launch new kits with increasingly extravagant marketing campaigns and convoluted explanations of how their designs reflect their history and local community But football shirts are much more than just a symbol of which club we support A seemingly innocuous combination of colours sponsor logos and materials can all reflect the social values financial struggles and political ideologies of the day as geopolitical issues increasingly seep into every aspect of the game Investigative journalist Joey D'Urso has travelled across the globe combining on the ground reporting with unparalleled analysis to collate a list of the twenty two football shirts that best explain the modern world More Than A Shirt will take fans on a journey from Birmingham to Belgrade and onto Medellin and Mumbai outlining how we can see the war in Ukraine in the shirt of Schalke in Germany or China's foreign policy in West Bromwich Albion's how the shirts of state owned clubs are used for sportswashing and why the French national kit embodies worldwide migration patterns A compelling and eye opening exploration More Than A Shirt is essential reading for any football fan and will change the way you think about the beautiful game's most universal symbol

Adopting for God Soojin Chung, 2021-12-14 Adopting for God is the first historical study to focus on the role of adoption evangelists in the transnational adoption movement between the United States and East Asia. It shows how both evangelical and ecumenical Christians challenged Americans to redefine traditional familial values and rethink race matters. Letters for Logan Deb Argel-Bastian, 2012-06-08 Letters for Logan is the heartfelt story of a mother's timeless love for her son and the legacy she is compelled to leave her grandson. Air Force Capt Derek Argel, 28, was larger than life: athletic, loving, dedicated, loyal, and above all, a son to Debbie, husband to Wendy, and father to Logan. Within days of his tragic death in the line of duty on Memorial Day of 2005 in Iraq, the first letter to Logan arrived. Then another came, and they kept coming from friends, colleagues, warriors, and family. They still arrive even years after the Combat Controller's death, each one weaving an enduring portrait for a little boy of his fallen father, gone too soon. Proceeds from this book will go to the Special Operations Warrior Foundation, rated as a four-star charity by Charity Navigator. The foundation provides full scholarship grants, educational and family counseling to the surviving children of special operations personnel who die in operational or training missions, and immediate financial assistance to severely wounded special operations personnel and their families. The family of Capt Derek Argel believes wholeheartedly in the mission of the foundation. First there, that others may live. Nora Wallace
