Sports Award Dinner Speeches:

Sport as History Tony Collins, 2013-09-13 Published to mark the career of one of sports history's pioneers this book traces the evolution of sport across three continents. It brings together some of sports history's leading scholars to investigate not only the history of sport but also how that history is written. This Festschrift marks the retirement of Professor Wray Vamplew, an internationally renowned leader in the field of sports history. His 1976 book The Turf was one of the very first academic histories of sport and he has been a prolific writer, scholar and teacher for almost forty years. No one has played such an important role in the field of sports history across North America, Europe and Australia. President of the Australian Society of Sports History ASSH, the British Society of Sports History BSSH, the European Committee for the History of Sport CESH and the International Society for the History of Physical Education and Sport ISHPES, Vamplew is currently editor of the North American Society for Sports History's NASSH journal, the Journal of Sport History. This collection reflects his interests and his appeal across the three continents; the essays deal with sport in America, Australia, Britain and Ireland and focus on the themes of national and regional identity, gender, trade unionism in sport and historiographical debates. It is essential reading for anyone who wants to understand the history of sport and how it is studied today. This book was published as a special issue of Sport in History.
