Pamela Kristan,2003-01-01 The Spirit of Getting Organized is about sorting papers and using file folders But there s more to life than a neat office After years in the field of professional organizing Pamela Kristan realized that organizing was a doorway an opportunity to find personal power and meaning Organizing is an intimate encounter with life s everyday details that has the power to engage us profoundly with our soul with our world and with the farthest reaching grandest patterns of Nature Rather than pulling us away from spiritual work with mundane chores organizing can draw us into the cosmos
