Enhancing Research for Academicians in Higher Education Mdikana, Andile Alfred, 2024-11-29 Academicians and postgraduate students in higher education often face challenges navigating the complex research landscape from formulating a sound rationale and problem statement to developing a robust theoretical framework and publishing their work effectively. Many need help publishing their research and making informed decisions and the current lack of assistance hinders their academic progress and contribution to knowledge production. Emerging academicians often need more guidance in research supervision and postgraduate students may require support in writing quality research proposals and dissertations. Enhancing Research for Academicians in Higher Education offers a transformative solution to these challenges providing a comprehensive guide to rethinking and reimagining research in higher education. Centralizing the research discourse through the concept of Africanization offers a unique groundbreaking and timely perspective. The book empowers academicians and postgraduate students to develop their research profiles, explore various research approaches and paradigms, and understand research's philosophical and theoretical foundations. The Architecture Annual 2004-2005, 2006

Implications, Prospects, and Challenges in China's Global South Strategy Yazdani, Enayatollah, 2025-06-04 China's Global South strategy emerges as a critical aspect of foreign policy deepening ties with developing nations across Asia Africa Latin America and the Middle East This strategic engagement carries significant geopolitical and economic implications even as China positions itself as an alternative to Western led governance Through initiatives like infrastructure investments trade partnerships and digital diplomacy China seeks to expand its influence and secure access to markets and resources critical to its long term growth However the approach is not without challenges Rising debt concerns local resistance to Chinese investments and geopolitical pushback present obstacles to China s ambitions Navigating the diverse political economic and cultural landscapes of Global South nations requires nuanced diplomacy and sustainable engagement models Strategic success may depend on China s ability to adapt its approach to meet its strategic goals and partner nation s expectations Implications Prospects and Challenges in China s Global South Strategy explores China s Global South policy in a globalized world It examines the complexities of modern international relations and various strategies to enhance global strategies and influence This book covers topics such as policymaking postcolonialism and geopolitics and is a useful resource for policymakers government officials politicians business owners economists academicians researchers and scientists ECRM 2019 18th European Conference on Research Methods in Business and Management Prof. Anthony Stacey, 2019-06-20

Foreign Policy in Post-Apartheid South Africa Adekeye Adebajo, Kudrat Virk, 2017-12-18 South Africa is the most industrialized power in Africa It was rated the continent s largest economy in 2016 and is the only African member of the G20 It is also the only strategic partner of the EU in Africa Yet despite being so strategically and economically significant there is little scholarship that focuses on South Africa as a regional hegemon This book provides the first comprehensive assessment of South Africa s post Apartheid foreign policy Over its 23 chapters and with contributions from established Africa Western Asian and American scholars as well as diplomats and analysts the book examines the current pattern of the country s foreign relations in impressive detail The geographic and thematic coverage is extensive including chapters on the domestic imperatives of South Africa s foreign policy peace making defence and security bilateral relations in Southern Central West Eastern and North Africa bilateral relations with the US China Britain France and Japan the country s key external multilateral relations with the UN the BRICS economic grouping the African Caribbean and Pacific Group ACP as well as the EU and the World Trade Organization WTO An essential resource for researchers the book will be relevant to the fields of area studies foreign policy history international relations international law security studies political economy and development studies Africa and Beyond Patrick J. Ebewo, Mzo Sirayi, Ingrid Stevens, 2014-07-24 Africa and Beyond Arts and Sustainable Development is a massive undertaking by thoughtful theorists and practitioners in the creative cultural industry The combined effect of the volume is to disabuse the fixed prevailing conception of the role of culture in society a view that consigns the arts to the periphery of social life devoid of any meaningful contribution to the alleviation of poverty and general development Contrary to this view the volume presents a more comprehensive meaningful insightful set of perspectives and paradigms that ascribe agency to creative cultural products in all facets of human development The usefulness of the volume extends beyond the industry itself It is meant for a broader readership and is therefore highly recommended for specialists and the public at large Professor Mokubung Nkomo Deputy Vice Chancellor Tshwane University of Technology South Africa
