Cherny, Marie T. Fallon, Stein Kaasa, Russell K. Portenoy, David C. Currow, 2021 Written by an established comprehensive multidisciplinary focused internationally recognized team the sixth edition has been fully revised and brought up to date with the inclusion of recent developments in the speciality to ensure that it retains its reputation as the definitive reference on palliative care The Hidden Faces of Courage Peter C. Wilcox, 2019-01-16 Mother Teresa said to have courage for whatever comes in life everything lies in that When people think about courage they often think about those who put their lives on the line for us every day like first responders firefighters or police officers But there are so many others who quietly endure with steadfast courage whatever comes their way in life These people are like the anawhim in the Old Testament the good kind people whom very few know about but who trust in the Lord He is their strength It is because of their faith in him that they live their lives with courage to face whatever comes their way In over thirty years as a psychotherapist and spiritual director Wilcox has often been amazed at the strength and courage of so many of his clients Some have faced physical disabilities others struggle with mental emotional or psychological problems still others with personal family or career issues These people are what he calls the hidden faces of courage Often they are not well known They certainly receive no notoriety or press Yet they are always there doing the best they can each day This book is an invitation to understand and appreciate the unnoticed courage and strength of ordinary people If we can walk in their shoes it will help us to be courageous for whatever comes to us in life

Parting Ways Denise Carson,2011-04-10 Carson explores in captivating detail the new alternatives to traditional institutionalized dying mourning and memorialization She deftly paints a vivid portrait of her own experiences and successfully ties in conceptual research on newer death rituals This book is truly unique and timely Tony Bell Professor Emeritus at California State University Fullerton Department of Sociology Parting Ways provides a fresh and contemporary perspective on American death rituals Carson expertly weaves her personal narrative around existing research and in the process she delivers an important analysis on ritual and death that is poignant and widely accessible Justin Holcomb Reformed Theological Seminary

Teaching Death and Dying Christopher M Moreman,2008-10-03 The academic study of death rose to prominence during the 1960s Courses on some aspect of death and dying can now be found at most institutions of higher learning These courses tend to stress the psycho social aspects of grief and bereavement however ignoring the religious elements inherent to the subject This collection is the first to address the teaching of courses on death and dying from a religious studies perspective
