Turkish Civil Code Tusev:

Public Funding of Religions in Europe Francis Messner, 2016-04-15 This collection brings together legal scholars canonists and political scientists to focus on the issue of public funding in support of religious activities and institutions in Europe The study begins by revolving around the various mechanisms put in place by the domestic legal systems as well as those resulting from the European law of human rights and the law of the European Union It then goes on to look at state support and particular religious groups The presentation of European and national law is supplemented by theoretical and interdisciplinary contributions with the main focus being to bring into discussion and map the relationship between the funding of religions and the economy and to infer from it an attempt at a systematic examination or theorization of such funding This collection is essential reading for those studying Law and Religion with particular focus on the countries of the UK France Belgium Germany Italy The Netherlands Spain and Turkey The views expressed during the execution of the RELIGARE project in whatever form and or by whatever medium are the sole responsibility of the authors The European Union is not liable for any use that may be made of the information contained therein Public Preferences and Institutional Designs Niva Golan-Nadir, 2021-12-10 This book explores the existence of gaps between public preferences and institutional designs in democracies and specifically cases in which such gaps are maintained for a long period of time without being challenged by the electorate Gaps such as these can be seen in the complex relations between the state and religion in Israel and Turkey and more specifically in their policies on marriage This line of investigation is interesting both theoretically and empirically as despite their poles apart policies Israel and Turkey share a similar pattern of institutional dynamics Existing explanations for this phenomenon suggested either civil society based arguments or intra institutional dynamics as reasons for the maintenance of such gaps This book enriches our understanding of policy dynamics in democratic systems by introducing a third line of argument one that emphasizes the effective role state institutions play in maintaining such arrangements for long periods often against the public will Handbook on Philanthropy and Social Policy Roosa Lambin, Jonathan Roberts, Rebecca Surender, 2025-06-09 This comprehensive Handbook considers the emergence of philanthropic foundations and institutions as increasingly crucial social policy actors It presents an interdisciplinary examination of modern philanthropies tracing their development and impact across global regions social policy sectors and policy making processes This title contains one or more Open Access chapters European Union Civil Society Policy and Turkey O. end of the old Eastern Question It deals with the role political and legal of the Treaty in the international system its effects on the national policies of the Great Powers and of regional States the impact of economic issues and oil diplomacy along with its social repercussions in the compulsory exchange of Greek and Turkish populations The book brings together historians political scientists experts on international relations and scholars of international law to cast new light on the shaping of the contemporary Eastern Mediterranean and the Middle East and the interaction between the regional and the global It is a valuable resource for academics and practitioners focused on all these areas of study

Political Islam and the Secular State in Turkey Evangelia Axiarlis, 2014-06-20 How safe is Turkey's liberal democracy The rise to power in 2002 of the right leaning Islamic Justice and Development Party ignited fears in the West that Turkey could no longer be relied upon to provide a buffer against the growth of Islamic fundamentalism in the Middle East Once hailed by the West as a model of secularism and moderation in the Muslim world Turkey is now seen to be under the influence of the creeping Islamisation of the JDP or AKP as it is known in Turkey Yet to what extent has this affected the lives of Turkish citizens Evangelia Axiarlis here explores the contribution of the JDP to civil liberties and basic freedoms long suppressed by secular and statist Kemalist ideology and how this has remained unexamined despite more than a decade in government In this the first detailed study of the policies and ideology of Prime Minister Recep Tayyip Erdoğan's government the author examines the extent to which the JDP has worked to improve civil life in Turkey and discrimination and to the justification of gender based violence globally This book demonstrates how women across the world are contributing to legal reform helping to shape non discriminatory policies and to counter current legal and social justifications for gender based violence The book takes case studies from Brazil India Iran Lebanon Nigeria Palestine Senegal and Turkey using them to demonstrate in each case the varied history of family law and the wide variety of issues impacting women s equality in legislation Interviews with prominent women s rights activists in three additional countries are also included giving personal accounts of the successes and failures of past reform efforts Overall the book provides a complex global picture of current trends and strategies in the fight for a more egalitarian society These findings come at a critical moment for change Across the globe family law issues are contentious We are simultaneously witnessing an increased demand for women s equality and the resurgence of fundamentalist forces that impede reform invoking rules rooted in tradition culture and interpretations of religious texts The outcome of these disputes has enormous ramifications for women s roles in the family and society This book tackles these complexities head on and will interest activists practitioners students and scholars working on women s rights and gender based violence
